Wiseburn Board Hears Concerns, Discusses Funding Challenges

By Duane Plank

With no special presentations on the agenda, the Wiseburn School Board meeting last Thursday evening was expected to be relatively brief. It didn't turn out that way, though. Three concerned citizens addressed the Board during the "from the public" portion of the meeting, raising questions and eliciting member comments and answers for nearly 30 minutes. The public comment portion of the meeting typically occurs after the members return from an initial closed session.

The Board later in the meeting decided -- after back-and-forth discussion with administrators -- pull multiple spending items from the agenda, as it continues to consider how to allocate funds in the wake of the defeat of the June 5 school bond Measure W.

Comments during the public hearings included citizens giving their opinions on the increase of school facilities developer fees, the Aviation Boulevard interim site of the Success Learning Center, and Wiseburn Unified School District's before-and-after-school program.

Members of the public also expressed that they hoped to see the District increase its social media presence and communication about hot-button issues, although there are parameters that preclude the Board from posting certain information online. Board members responded that they are working on increasing communication avenues to concerned parties and attempting to make all District actions as transparent as possible.

During his comments, Superintendent Dr. Blake Silvers commemorated the service and passing of long-time District employee custodian John Grady, who served for more than 30 years and retired in October 2014. Grady, who died on Aug. 22, worked at Juan de Anza Elementary and at the District's Alan B. Shepard School. Silvers, prior to the meeting, noted that Grady's memorial service was well-attended by Wiseburn employees and called it "a nice tribute."

Also before the meeting, Silvers talked about his first couple of weeks on the job since school restarted in late August for the District's elementary and middle schools. Silvers made his inaugural State of the District address, captained the employee start-of-school barbecue in late August, and announced the 2017/18 classified and credentialed Employees of the Year.

Marcos Chavez received the honors as the Classified Employee of the Year. He has worked for Wiseburn for more than a quarter of a century, mainly at Dana Middle School. He originally joined the District in October 1991, assigned to the maintenance and operations department as a custodian.

Director of Educational Services Dr. Aileen Harbeck said about Chavez that he "helps make Dana tick. He is such an important ingredient to the logistics and support that makes Dana Middle School a great place." Silvers added, "I, as this individual's supervisor, have shared that [Chavez] has such a tough job. He always answers with a positive attitude and shows up to support the situation."

The Certificated Employee of the Year is Cabrillo Elementary's Jennifer Williams. Silvers, in his reveal of the employees of the year, called first grade teacher Williams a "cheerleader for collaboration with a passion for great instruction."

During reports, Board member Dr. Neil Goldman talked about attending what he termed "inspiring" District back-to-school nights, and how Wiseburn is trying to be as proactive and transparent as possible in communications with members of the community.

Board President JoAnne Kaneda noted the "dedication of the teachers," and espoused "the Wiseburn community of learning." She commented on how the recent open houses were "packed."

Deputy Superintendent Dr. Chris Jones updated the comings and goings at the Da Vinci Schools, including the upcoming California Shake-Out drill that will take place in October; as well as the exploits of the Wiseburn High sports programs and the always challenging traffic issues with student drop-off and pick-up at the new campus.

Harbeck touted the diligence of Wiseburn teachers and the way that they have taken advantage of myriad professional development opportunities.

Film Review

In Bel Canto, All You Need is Love

By Morgan Rojas
for www.cinemacy.com

Julianne Moore has played a scorned, stone-cold intellectual in Maggie's Plan and a mother struggling with an early onset

Alzheimer's diagnosis in Still Alice. In both films, much like the rest in her extended repertoire, Moore is the centerpiece of an emotional catharsis and her performance shapes the films into memorable works. This may be why director Paul Weitz relied on such a tried and true movie star to bring both depth and drama to Bel Canto -- a thrilling film adaptation based on the award-winning novel by Ann Patchett about an opera singer held hostage while performing abroad, and the unexpected relationships she forms while being held prisoner.

Wealthy Japanese businessman Katsumi Hosokawa (Ken Watanabe) arrives in South America to attend a party celebrating the upcoming factory his company plans to build in a nearby impoverished town. The lavish party, which takes place in a beautiful mansion, includes a full wait staff for the dignitaries flown in from all over the world. Katsumi doesn't get caught up in these high society details because he has his sights set on the guest of honor: the world-renowned opera singer Roxane Coss (Moore). However, his opportunity of a lifetime to hear Roxanne perform in such an intimate setting is cut short when anti-government terrorists storm the mansion and take everyone hostage, demanding to swap the innocent group in exchange for the country's president.

Being held as political prisoners is a terrifying reality for all involved, but Katsumi does everything he can to make Roxane feel safe. Despite the fact that this group of captives speaks different languages and comes from a variety of cultural backgrounds, the hostages do their best to connect with each other. Katsumi's bond with Roxane grows stronger by the day as she begins to let her guard down and allow her vulnerabilities to penetrate through her usually poised exterior. Days pass by while negotiations between the police and the rebels stall. Yet inside the mansion, humanity begins to break down barriers with rebels as they open up to and form friendships with the hostages and vice versa.

Ken Watanabe, better known as Katsumoto in 2003's The Last Samurai, is a stoic presence on screen. His performance is restrained and strong, yet his timing as to when to show his vulnerable side is perfect. Moore shines as Roxane Coss, with the only caveat being the scenes of her singing. Her voice is dubbed over by international opera star Renée Fleming. Fleming's vocal talent is breathtakingly beautiful, but knowing that her voice isn't coming out of Moore's mouth can feel strange at times. Ultimately, a suspension of disbelief is necessary here.

Bel Canto is a very tight-knit film, with the majority of the story taking place in or around the mansion. This gives the audience a sense of the confinement the hostages feel. At times, it can play a bit too overly dramatic, but the message is loud and clear: love is universal. Love and admiration for others can cross language barriers, cultural differences and distance. Now isn't that a beautiful thing to be reminded of every now and then?

Bel Canto is not rated. 102 minutes. Now playing at Laemmle Monica Film Center, On Demand and iTunes September 21. •

Two Steps Forward by Graeme Simson and Anne Buist

Reviewed by Kristina Kora-Beckman,

Fiction novelists and real-life partners Graeme Simson (The Rosie Project) and Anne Buist team up in this tale about two strangers—Zoe and Martin—who embark on following the famous Camino de Santiago pilgrim route. Also known as The Chemin, the ancient path winds through picturesque countryside and quaint villages and every year attracts thousands of walkers from around the globe. Pilgrims walk for many reasons: religion, self-discovery, business, companionship and even romance.

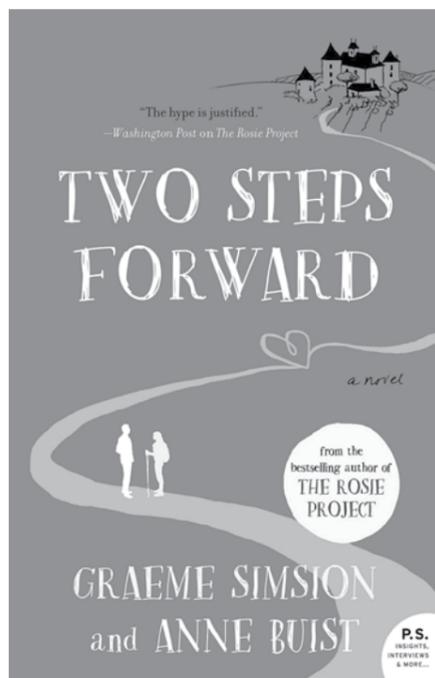

For Zoe, an American artist, the journey was a spur-of-the moment decision that she hopes will bring her closure and direction after her husband's unexpected death. An English engineer living abroad to escape an acrimonious divorce, Martin embarks on the journey to field-test a prototype cart he designed in the hopes it will lead to future business prospects.

Interspersed with logistics about the pilgrimage such as finding shelter and food and dealing with weather and terrain, I also enjoyed the stories about the people Zoe and Martin meet along the way, and seeing their personal progression throughout the journey.

Simson and Buist have walked the Camino in real life, which lends credibility and richness to the described details, from the shared meals to the soul-searching that solitude and physical activity can inspire.

Director of Facilities Planning Vince Madsen gave his report and answered member queries on the state of funding for facilities as the work continues on the pool, gym, and soccer field and possible "portable" District buildings. He indicated that the new pool will hopefully be ready for usage by recreational swimmers and athletic teams in mid-November.

Board members questioned the delays for the El Segundo Aquatics Center grand opening and asked when swimmers will get to first utilize the pool. Madsen also discussed ongoing and upcoming expenditures as the District continues Phase II construction and looks at current facility needs.

Board member Nelson Martinez wanted to know about the timing for the demolition of the old Dana School site, which appears to be quite a ways off.

Goldman expressed his thanks for the work Madsen has done for Wiseburn. "We are going to miss you, man!" he said. Madsen is scheduled to leave the District when his contract expires on Oct. 31.

The Board approved a proposal from Decision-Insite, the group which presented at the last Board meeting, to provide a demographic study of Wiseburn. The cost to the District is not to exceed $7,038, with the study expected to provide analytics data to help decision-makers implement enrollment procedures and strategies as well as leverage student-location technology. Silvers said that gaining accurate insight into District demographics is key as Wiseburn moves forward developing its master plan. Madsen echoed the sentiment when asked by Martinez and Goldman about the value of the partnership with Decision-Insite. Citing the need for the demographic deep-dive, Madsen said, "It is a huge tool for master-planning. We need to find more information that we might not know today."

Prior to the meeting, Silvers commented, "It was nice for me to get to all the elementary schools and back-to-school nights... [It is] really invigorating, makes you really understand why we come to do this every day." He added that the state of the District is strong "because of the people that are here. It's not about the buildings. What it really boils down to...is the people in the buildings. This is an exciting time for me and for the District. We are not buying any more land, so it's about what we can do to bolster our current facilities."

The next regularly scheduled Wiseburn Board meeting is slated for Thursday evening, Sept. 25. •

Recycling does not include burning, incinerating, or thermally destroying solid waste.

"Recyclable Materials" means Construction and Demolition Debris which has some potential economic value, and is set aside, handled, packaged, or offered for collection in a manner different from Refuse in order to allow it to be processed for Recycling.

"Self-Hauler" means Construction and Demolition Debris which is removed from any premises by the Waste Generator, and which is transported personally by such Generator (or by his or her full-time employees) to a processing or Construction and Demolition Recycling Facility in a manner consistent with all applicable laws and regulations.

Section 7-63. Application of Article to Covered Projects.

(1) Unless otherwise exempt under Section 7-65 projects by the City or by any applicant meeting the following thresholds shall be considered Covered Projects, shall meet the Diversion Requirement and shall comply with all provisions of this Article:

(a) All new construction initiated by January 1, 2017 or later;

(b) Nonresidential remodeling, addition, and alteration projects;

(c) Residential additions and alterations which increase the building's foot-print, volume, or size;

(d) All demolition projects

(e) Grading projects which generate Land Clearing Debris; and,

(f) All City-sponsored construction, demolition, and renovation projects, except as provided in this Section and in Section 7-65, shall be considered Covered Projects for the purposes of the Article and shall be subject to all applicable provisions of the same. The City is not required to submit a Security Deposit for City-sponsored Covered Projects.

City-sponsored projects limited to interior plumbing work, electrical work or mechanical work are not Covered Projects. City-sponsored demolition or construction required to protect public health or safety in an emergency, as defined in Public Resources

Code Section 21060.3, as it, from time to time, may be amended, is not a Covered Project.

(2) Compliance with the provisions of this Article shall be listed as a condition of approval on all building or demolition permits issued for a Covered Project.

Section 7-64. Required Diversion Rates.

The Applicant for a Covered Project shall divert a minimum of sixty-five percent, or the state-mandated diversion percentage, whichever is greater, of the Construction and Demolition Debris and one hundred percent of Land Clearing Debris from newly constructed buildings resulting from the project.

Section 7-65. Exempt Projects.

The following projects are exempt from the requirements of this Article:

(1) Demolition or construction required to protect public health or safety in an emergency, as defined in Public Resources Code Section 21060.3, as it, from time to time, may be amended;

(7) A project of City Public Works or City public construction for which the notice inviting bids has been published pursuant to Chapter 2, Article 5 of this Code prior to the effective date of the Ordinance codified in this Article.

(8) A project, as determined by the Public Works Director or his or her designee, not generating construction or demolition debris.

Section 7-66. Waste Management Plan Requirements.

Each Applicant, including the City, for a permit for any Covered Project shall complete and submit a Waste Management Plan. The Waste Management Plan shall include the following information, calculated with the Conversion Rate, and shall be attested by the Applicant, under penalty of perjury, as true and correct for all stated facts and as a best estimate based on all information reasonably available about the project, where all of the facts cannot be ascertained:

The estimated volume or weight of Construction and Demolition Debris, listed for each material; The estimated volume or weight of Construction and Demolition Debris that can be diverted, listed for each material;

The estimated volume or weight of Construction and Demolition Debris that will be land-filled as solid waste;

The identification of the vendor or facility that will collect or receive the construction or demolition debris or that will deconstruct the structure;

The estimated quantity of Universal Waste by type and final disposition of such material; The estimated volume of Land Clearing Debris; and,

The estimated date on which demolition or construction is to commence.

Section 7-67. Performance Security. Applicants for permits for a Covered Project shall submit a Performance Security in cash, check or other form as determined by the Waste Management Plan Compliance Officer, with the Waste Management Plan. The rate for the Performance Security, based upon the recommendation of the Public Works Director, shall be set by resolution of the City Council.

Section 7-68. Review of Waste Management Plan.

(1) Time for Review. A Waste Management Plan shall be approved or denied no later than fifteen business days after a complete application is made. The approval may be based on imposed conditions reasonably necessary to meet the standards of this Article.

(2) Approval. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Article, no permit shall be issued for any Covered Project unless and until the Waste Management Plan has been approved, based upon the following findings by the Waste Management Plan Compliance Officer:

(a) All information required by Section 7-66 is submitted;

(b) The plan establishes a mechanism such that the diversion requirement shall be met; and

(c) The Applicant has submitted Performance Security in compliance with Section 7-67.

(3) Non-approval. If the Waste Management Plan Compliance Officer determines that the Waste Management Plan is incomplete or fails to indicate that at least sixty-five percent, or the state-mandated diversion percentage, whichever is greater, of all waste materials generated by a Covered Project will be reused or recycled, then the Waste Management Plan Compliance Officer shall either:

(a) Return the Waste Management Plan to the Applicant marked "Denied," including a statement of reasons; or

(b) Return the Waste Management Plan to the Applicant marked "Further Explanation Required," including a statement of reasons.

Section 7-69. Transportation of Construction and Demolition Debris.

It is unlawful for any person other than the City's licensed franchised collector or a Self Hauler or those persons employed by the franchise collector to collect or haul any Construction and Demolition Debris within the City.

Section 7-70. Waste Management Plan Compliance Reporting.

(1) Monthly Reports. Monthly reports shall be submitted by the Applicant on a form provided by the Waste Management Plan Compliance Officer certifying recycling activities of the prior month for each Covered Project. Failure of the Applicant to provide timely monthly reports may result in a "non-compliance" determination of the Project by the Waste Management Plan Compliance Officer, and may result in a forfeiture of the Security Deposit.

(2) Final Report. No later than thirty days from the completion of a Covered Project, the Applicant shall submit a compliance reporting form, under penalty of perjury, to the Waste Management Plan Compliance Officer. The form shall include the following information:

(a) The dates Demolition and Construction actually commenced;

(b) The actual volume or weight of Construction and Demolition Debris, listed for each material;

(c) The actual volume or weight of Construction and Demolition Debris that was diverted, listed for each material;

(d) The actual quantity of Universal Waste that was properly disposed or diverted from landfilling, listed for each material;

(e) The actual volume of Land Clearing Debris that was diverted;

(f) A specification of the method used to determine the volumes and weights and a certification that the method used was the most accurate, commercially reasonable method available; and

(g) Original receipts from all vendors and facilities which collected or received Construction and Demolition Debris, indicating actual weights and volumes received by each.

Section 7-71. Release of Performance Security.

No later than fifteen business days from the date a complete compliance reporting form is submitted, the Waste Management Plan Compliance Officer shall determine whether the Applicant has complied with the requirements of this Article, and the following shall occur:

(1) Full Compliance. On a determination of compliance with the requirements of this Article, including the monthly reporting requirement, the full Performance Security shall be returned to the Applicant within fifteen business days of determination.

(2) Good Faith Effort to Comply. If the Waste Management Plan Compliance Officer determines that the Applicant did not comply with the requirements of this Article, then the Waste Management Plan Compliance Officer shall determine if the Applicant made a good faith effort to comply. In making this determination, the Waste Management Plan Compliance Officer shall consider the availability of markets for the Construction and Demolition materials transported for disposal in a landfill or transformation facility, the size of the project, and the documented efforts of the Applicant to divert the required materials. If the Waste Management Plan Compliance Officer determines that the Applicant has made a good faith effort to comply with the provisions of this Article, then the Waste Management Plan Compliance Officer shall approve the release of the full Performance Security, or a portion thereof.

Any portion of the Performance Security not released to the Applicant shall be forfeited to the City, and shall be used for the purposes of promoting recycling within the City.

(3) Noncompliance. If the Waste Management Plan Compliance Officer determines that the Applicant has not made a good faith effort to comply with this Article, or if the Applicant fails to submit the documentation required by Section 7-70, within the required time period, then the Performance Security deposit shall be retained by the City.

(4) Withdrawal of Building or Demolition Permit Application. The Waste Management Plan Compliance Officer may authorize the refund of any Performance Security deposit if the building or demolition permit application is withdrawn or canceled before any work or demolition has begun.

(5) All Performance Security deposits retained by the City shall be used only for:

(a) Refunds of Performance Security;

(b) Costs of administration of the program established by this Article;

(c) Any costs reasonably incurred by City to achieve the diversion of construction and demolition materials from a landfill; and

(d) To promote waste diversion efforts in the City.

(6) No interest shall be paid on any Performance Security.

Section 7-72. Exception from Compliance with this Article.

Prior to commencing demolition or construction, an Applicant wishing relief from the requirements of this Article may seek an exception, partial or complete, from the requirements of this Article through the following process:

(1) Initiation. The exception process shall be initiated by the filing of a complete exception application with the Waste Management Plan Compliance Officer. The Waste Management Plan Compliance Officer shall determine the completeness of the exception application within five business days of the filing of the application. During this review, the Waste Management Plan Compliance Officer may provide suggestions for possible ways of meeting the diversion requirements.

(2) Decision on Application. Following consideration of the exception application, the Waste Management Plan Compliance Officer shall either make the required findings and take action on the application; including a determination of the maximum feasible diversion rate for each material, if less than sixty-five percent, or the state-mandated diversion percentage, whichever is greater, is determined, and shall designate this rate on the Waste Management Plan; or shall state why the findings cannot be made and deny the application. A decision on the application shall be rendered within seven business days following determination the application is complete.

(3) Findings. All of the following findings must be made prior to the approval of an exception:

(a) There are exceptional or extraordinary circumstances or conditions applicable to the project that do not apply generally to similar projects;

(b) Granting the application will not constitute a grant of special privilege inconsistent with limitations imposed on like projects; and

(c) Cost to the Applicant of strict compliance with this Article is not the primary reason for granting the exception.

Section 7-73. Appeal.

Any person or entity aggrieved by any decision or finding under the provisions of this Article with respect to approving or to denying a Waste Management Plan, or to granting or denying an application for an exception from compliance with this Article, may appeal such decision or finding. An appeal must be filed within five days after receipt of notice of any protested decision or finding by filing with the Director of Public Works a letter of appeal briefly stating therein the basis for such appeal. A hearing shall be held on a date no less than fifteen days, nor more than sixty days after receipt of the letter of appeal. Appellant shall be given at least fourteen calendar days' notice of the time and place of the hearing. A neutral hearing officer selected by appellant from a City-approved list, shall give the appellant, and any other interested party, a reasonable opportunity to be heard, in order to show cause why the decision or finding should not be upheld. In all such cases, the burden of proof shall be upon the appellant to show that there was no substantial evidence to support the decision or finding appealed. At the conclusion of the hearing, the hearing officer shall make a final and conclusive determination. The appeal process set forth in this Section does not apply to administrative citations pursuant to Chapter 1, Article 3 or Article 4.

Section 7-74. Violation of this Article. It is unlawful and a violation of this Article to do any of the following:

(1) To willfully fail to comply with any provision of this Article.

(2) To provide false or misleading information in any required plan, report or document.

(3) To fail to meet the diversion requirement for any Covered Project.

Section 7-75. Prosecution of Violators.

A violation of any provision of this Article shall be prosecuted as a misdemeanor or infraction at the option of the City and as further set forth in Section 7-76, with respect to penalties and administrative proceedings.

Section 7-76. Penalties and Administrative Proceedings.

(1) Misdemeanors. Any person who violates any provision of subsection 1 or 2 of Section 7-74 is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500.00) or by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding six months, or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(2) Infractions. Any person who violates subsection 3 of Section 7-74 or any other provision of this Article is guilty of an infraction, unless determined by the City Attorney pursuant to Inglewood Municipal Code Section 1-18.3 to be a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine as established in the Inglewood Municipal Code Section 1-18.

(3) Each person convicted may be deemed guilty of a separate offense for every day during any portion of which any violation is committed or permitted. For violations of subsection 3 of Section 7-74, the violation shall be considered to commence on the date when demolition or construction first commenced, and this date is rebuttably presumed to begin on the commencement date provided by the Applicant in the Waste Management Plan.

(4) In addition to the provisions of Section 7-75, violations of this Article may be subject to the administrative proceedings set forth in Chapter 11, Article 11.4 of this Code, including, but without limitation, civil penalties, late payment penalties, administrative fees, or other related charges as established by resolution of the City Council.

Section 7-77. Remedies Not Exclusive.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, administrative remedies specified in this Article are in addition to and do not supersede or limit any and all other remedies, civil or criminal. The remedies provided for therein shall be cumulative and not exclusive.

Section 7-78. Standards and Guidelines.

The Waste Management Plan Compliance Officer may establish and adopt standards, guidelines, and criteria consistent with this Chapter which are reasonably necessary to achieve the objectives of this Chapter. Said adoptions may be published at the Public Works Counter and the City website.

SECTION 2. If any section, subsection, subdivision, paragraph, sentence, clause or phrase of this ordinance, or its application to any person or circumstance, is for any reason held to be invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining sections, subsections, subdivisions, paragraphs, sentences, clauses or phrases of this ordinance, or its application to any other person or circumstance. The City of Inglewood hereby declares that it would have adopted each section, subsection, subdivision, paragraph, sentence, clause or phrase hereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more of the sections, subsections, subdivisions, paragraphs, sentences, clauses or phrases hereof be declared invalid or unenforceable.

SECTION 3. The City Clerk shall certify to the introduction, approval, passage, and adoption of this ordinance by the City Council and shall cause the same to be published in accordance with the City Charter, and thirty days from the final passage and adoption, this ordinance shall be in full force and effect.
