The Beach Boys Immortalized

The Beach Boys monument in Hawthorne celebrates the site of the childhood home of the Beach Boys. Located at 3701 W. 119th Street, in Hawthorne, it stands on the former location of the Wilsons' home, which was demolished in the mid-1980s during construction of the Century Freeway. City Council Denies Legal Claim Filed by Dog Owner

By Nancy Peters

With the room nearly fully occupied, the City Attorney's Consent Calendar contained one item at the Hawthorne City Council meeting on Tuesday, August 13 with a recommendation to deny a claim filed by the owners of the Rottweiler that was shot and subsequently died after an incident involving the dog owner and the Hawthorne Police Department. The claim alleged emotional distress on the minors in the family at the loss of the family pet. The Council voted 5-0 to deny the claim filed by the Rosbys on behalf of their children.

In a public hearing, which included a presentation by a representative of McDonald's Corporation who defended the way the new store and drive-through would be an asset to the community as part of a complex being built at the southeast corner of Rosecrans Avenue and Yukon Avenue, several members of the public voiced their opinions against the drive-through in particular--stating that the quality of life would be compromised for those who live directly adjacent to the property in an eight-unit townhome on Yukon Avenue. Another comment was in favor of the building of a McDonald's, after many citizens had been queried on their opinions of the fast food chain adding to its presence in Hawthorne.

The Council voted 5-0 in favor of the construction of the McDonald's with a drive-through at the corner of Rosecrans and Yukon under a Conditional Use Permit, thus overturning the denial by the Planning Commission of the same petitioned construction.

Other business included the approval of a four-way stop sign installation at the intersection of Ramona Avenue and 141st Street. The Hawthorne Police Department will make a point of patrolling that specific area to remind drivers of the placement of the new signs.

A resolution was approved to establish a Veterans' Affairs Commission to give a "voice" to veterans who live in the city.

Members of the new commission must be residents of Hawthorne. The resolution to establish a Senior Citizens Commission for those residents with an interest in senior citizen matters was inadvertently omitted from this evening's agenda and will be part of the agenda for the August 27 Council meeting. This commission would come under the guidance of the Recreation and Parks Department.

City Risk Manager Dennis Hernandez presented a proposal for a $201,871 premium for earthquake insurance in the amount of $7 million with a five percent deductible of appraised real estate property value for City Hall, the Memorial Center, Sports Center, Senior Center, and the three Fire Stations--all buildings owned by the City of Hawthorne. The five percent deductible would be the starting point for any FEMA dollars that could be granted in the case of any damage caused by an earthquake that would adversely affect the construction integrity of any of the buildings covered by the insurance. The seven-mile proximity to the Inglewood Fault Line is a major reason to purchase this earthquake insurance. The buildings have a combined appraisal value of $62.7 billion. The Council will take the earthquake insurance recommendation under advisement and put a resolution on a forthcoming agenda.

The five vendors for the city-wide tree trimming project were presented and Director of Public Works Arnold Shadbehr was asked to choose the bidder who meets all the requirements, including the lowest bid amount in accordance with the State of California precedence set for bidding projects. Shadbehr suggested that it is not always the lowest bidding vendor who is chosen if one or more of other requirements are not met, with every effort made to choose the best vendor to service the city.

The Congestion Management Program (CMP) was deemed to conform to the California Government Code under which the CMP is developed. With no citizen input at the public hearing, the CMP Local Development Report will be submitted to the Los Angeles County Congestion Management Program.

A new unmarked Police Department vehicle purchase was approved in the amount of $30,353.23 and services of TTG was approved for Fire Safety Engineering at the Air Traffic Control Tower at Hawthorne Municipal Airport.

The Council also approved destruction of Police Department internal records for the calendar year 2007. However the resolution to destroy miscellaneous Finance Department records was pulled from the agenda to validate that no records relating to HUD actions are part of the destruction action, despite the electronic copies of all records that are part of the archives. The Holly Park Homeowners' Association petition for replacement of equipment at Holly Park, to include picnic tables, barbecues and benches, will be made part of the 2014 budget process at the cost of $19,800.

The City Manager was approved as the chief labor negotiator for the City employee contracts for the Hawthorne Executive Group and the Hawthorne Municipal Employees Association as the contracts come up for renewal of terms.

Mayor Danny Juarez directed Planning Director Gregg McClain to investigate the individual homeowner property encroachment issue at a property at Imperial Highway and Grevillea Avenue and advise the property owners of how to deal with the encroachment.

The filing period for candidates who are seeking public office in the November 5 election was closed on Friday, August 9. City Clerk Norb Huber publicly thanked his staff for their excellent work in coordinating all the paperwork that needed to be filed with the Los Angeles County Registrar. All information for each candidate had to be validated prior to filing. There are candidates for City Clerk, City Treasurer, two City Council seats, and the Mayor's position. Those interested in the names of those who filed papers to appear on the ballot can research the Registrar's website.

The next City Council meeting will be held on Tuesday, August 27 at 6 p.m. •

Indoor Soccer Leagues Off to Good Start

By Joe Snyder

In its first year of operation, the Hawthorne Recreation Futsal (Indoor soccer) leagues are off to a very good start. The adult leagues have already played several games and the youth leagues currently finished off their third matches Saturday at the Betty Ainsworth Gymnasium.

There are a total of 25 adult and youth teams in three separate leagues--the adult, youth under 15 years old, and under 10. There are youth squads for boys and girls.

The adult league consists of eight teams, predominantly named after various well-known squads throughout the world. It includes league leader Anthrax, which after the July 27 contests displays an outstanding record of 11 wins, one loss and one tie for 34 points. Futsaleros (9-3-1) is in second place with 28 points, while San Julian (8-2-2, 26) is in third. Rounding out the rest of the league are Javentud (8-7, 21), LCFC (6-7-2, 20), Barcelona (4-8-1, 13), CD Jaguares (4-8-1, 13) and Arriva Peru (3-9-1, 10).

There are also seven teams for youth under 15 years and six for those under 10 years old. Currently leading is Juventus with a 2-0 record for six points. Other teams for under 15 include LCFC A, LCFC B, Xolos, La U, Real Madrid and L.A. Thunder. In the under division are leader Real Madrid (1-0, 3), Real Espana, Thunder, Inglewood, LCFC and KIS.

"We were off to a slow start," Futsal official Leo Yanes said. "We started out with a lot of scrimmages. Little-by-little, the teams are starting show improvement.

For indoor soccer in the Ainsworth Gym, the court is an estimated at 20 by 50 meters. With it, some of the games get rather physical with the ball bouncing rather dynamically on the floor and the walls. "We're hoping to get more teams and more kids involved," official Chris Race said. "This gives kids something to do. We're looking to get good community support."

Yanes and Race both hope to start outdoor soccer, as they are seeking a place to play either at a local park, high school or both.

For the adults, this Saturday is the final league matches before they begin the playoffs on August 16. Youth playoffs are expected to start in a few weeks. Games are played at the Ainsworth Gym from 4-10 p.m. on Saturdays.

YOUTH BASKETBALL: DIVISION IV: ACTION UPSETS FIRED UP

Division IV (ages 12-13) action Saturday at the Ainsworth Gym. Jacson Weullard sparked Action's balanced scoring attack with 15 points, followed by Jordan Demus with 10 and Semishi Taufa with eight.

Richard Harris led all scorers with 16 points for Fired Up, which fell one game behind the leader Lakers with a 6-3 record. Martis Jones added 10 points and Michael Moore chipped in six. Action improved to 5-4 and within one game of the second place Fired Up.

LAKERS TAKE LEAD

The Lakers took sole possession of first place in the Hawthorne Recreation Division IV with an easy 50-19 victory over a young Air Force squad on Saturday. Eddie Kemp outscored the entire Air Force team with a game-high 23 points. Andre Jones and Ryan Jote each contributed six points. The Lakers improved to 7-2 and are one game in front of the second place Fired Up (6-3).

Shange Paget led Air Force with five points. Prince Sean Burford and Kaylon Davison had four points, apiece.

HARLEM STARS REMAIN UNBEATEN

The Harlem Stars improved their undefeated record to 9-0 in the Division III (ages 10-11) with a key 32-25 win over the second place Hard Work Saturday. Jalen Perry led Harlem Stars with 10 points. Tochi Awiyo and Jeremy Arciniega put in seven and four points respectively. John Alvarez and Khalid Jalloh scored 13 and 11 points for Hard Work.

PISTONS TOP BULLDOGS

The Pistons defeated the Bulldog 39-34 in the Division III play on Saturday. Kelvin Annin led the Pistons with 11 points. Kenneth Hill tallied seven points. Bruce Tucker and Kamile Aretaga totaled four points apiece.

The Moseleys scored all of the Bulldogs' 34 points, with Mahlik leading with 20 and Imari tallying 14.

GLADIATORS EDGE PANTHERS

In a low-scoring Division II (ages 8-9) battle, the Gladiators slipped past the Panthers 10-8 on Saturday. L.B. Nelson led the Gladiators with four points, while Aymann Suliman, Richard Beaird and Jayden Calhoun each scored two. Lejace Gentle had seven of the Panthers' eight points.

AVENGERS DOWN CLARK

Amari Croons contributed nine points, while Bryan Annan chipped in seven to key the Avengers to a 16-8 Division II basketball win over Clark on Saturday. Jalen Coleman and Joshua Perkins led Clark with four points each.

DIVISION I BASKETBALL

In Division I (ages 6-7) basketball play, Mambos routed the Little Rascals 25-4. The Fundamentals beat the Knights 27-18. The Pride rolled over D-Up 35-19 and the High Flyers downed Clark 22-8 on Saturday. •

Lakers' Season Outlook

By Adam Serrao

The Los Angeles Lakers have been one of the most successful franchises in the National Basketball Association since the league's inception. With that great success there naturally comes a more and more demanding fan base. The people of Los Angeles who cheer on Atlanta Hawks and--soon after--a matchup with Dwight Howard in his newly tailored Houston Rockets' uniform. All in all, the Lakers could be looking at an 0-6 or 1-5 start to the regular season.

Then there's the end of the schedule. By that time, Kobe should be well adjusted

"If the Lakers wish to have any chance in the first week of play, they'd better hope that Bryant hobbles back on to the court sooner rather than later."

the Lakers expect success on a year-in and year-out basis. When they don't get it, there always has to be a scapegoat. Take for instance last year's great expectations measured together with the poor final product. Mike D'Antoni was at the head of the line to take blame for the team's poor play. Fans everywhere wanted him out of town and clamored for Phil Jackson's return. If it wasn't D'Antoni taking the heat, it was Dwight Howard. Well, if the fans of Los Angeles thought the last two seasons were bad, their patience will really be tested this season. The release of the 2013-2014 schedule demonstrates exactly why the Lakers and their fans should be ready for, and maybe even embrace, one of the most futile seasons that the organization has had in the last 15 years.

Think back to the summer of 2012. Oh, how great it was. Dwight Howard decided to sign with the Lakers and on July 4, our country's very own Independence Day, Steve Nash seceded from the Phoenix Suns and joined forces to create a "super team" in Los Angeles. Not so super. A coaching change, disagreements with blueprints and schemes and tons of injuries later, the Lakers lost the war for their freedom and became just another casualty in the first round of the playoffs. Now, the Lakers have been left in a less than desirable position stemming from those circumstances. Howard is gone. The llost war brought a swift end to Metta World Peace (who now finds himself in New York with the Knicks), and the Lakers are hanging on to several one-year contracts with the intent to be entertaining, if not competitive, amidst a league of youth, speed and talent. Though the Lakers will be able to start fresh in 2014, the moves that they have made are not enough to help them be competitive in this upcoming season.

If you take a quick glance at the Lakers' upcoming schedule, it quickly becomes apparent that there will more than likely be more chants for the firing of D'Antoni within the first week or two of the season. The city's own purple and gold open up the 2013-2014 campaign against inner-building rivals the Los Angeles Clippers. That's the newly restocked and reloaded Clippers headed by Doc Rivers, who will most certainly look to make a statement on opening night against a Lakers' lineup that will most likely be devoid of Kobe Bryant. If the Lakers wish to have any chance in the first week of play, they'd better hope that Bryant hobbles back on to the court sooner rather than later. After the Clippers, it's the Golden State Warriors, followed by the San Antonio Spurs, to his new Achilles and in full effect for the Lake Show. If they wish to put on any type of show, however, it's going to have to be against the Clippers, Rockets, Warriors and Spurs all over again with a game against last year's Western Conference Finals competitors the Memphis Grizzlies to top it off. So what does this breakdown of the schedule tell us? Well, if the Lakers aren't going to do damage early--and they certainly shouldn't be looking to do damage late in the season--then they are going to need a pretty epic run right smack-dab in the middle to be able to make any noise in the playoffs, or even just in this year's regular season. But what about the unpopular opinion that the Lakers shouldn't even try to make noise?

That's right--the Lakers should tank the season. One of the most unpopular opinions in all of sports... But it almost looks as if the league is trying to make up for the botched Chris Paul trade that would have had the All-Star point guard playing in the purple and gold rather than the red and white. With an extremely difficult schedule at both ends, a crippled Bryant and a roster full of names that will leave most casual NBA fans scratching their heads, it seems as if the NBA is almost asking the Lakers to tank. The league is always better when the Lakers are competitive, and surely executives of the NBA know that. Tanking the season this year will be the best thing that the Lakers can do in order to become extremely competitive next year. First of all, it will allow Kobe to sit on the sidelines and heal for a longer amount of time, it will finally get D'Antoni out of the head coaching chair and it will get the Lakers into the draft lottery.

It has recently been reported that the Lakers have the worst talent in the league for players under the age of 25. An old and slow Lakers' team is something that fans here in Los Angeles have had to put up with for years now and it is showing no signs of getting better. A horrific season this year will help to outweigh that in next year's draft--a draft that is touted to be the best since the 2003 season when LeBron James, Dwyane Wade and Carmelo Anthony all burst onto the scene. All three of those players will be free agents as well, ripe for the Lakers picking (if you're an optimist). So if the fans of Los Angeles want to bring "Showtime" back to the Staples Center floor and not see it in the guise of a Clipper uniform, maybe they should root for an entirely horrific season this year. The only hurdle left would be to convince Kobe Bryant of that. •

News for the City of Good Neighbors

From City Clerk Norb Huber

Slate is Final for November Election

The slate of candidates for the November 5th Hawthorne City elections has been finalized. Each of the incumbents that are up for election are being contested by challengers. Mayor Danny Juarez is being challenged by Jose Guterrez and by Chris Brown. Council members Angie Reyes English and Alex Vargas are being challenged by Katrina Manning, Gordon Michael Mego, Mike Talleda, Frances Stiglich, and John Jefferson. Treasurer Thierry Lubenec is being challenged by David Patterson and Shelby Anderson is challenging Norb Huber for the City Clerk's position. So, with this slate, the campaigning can begin. There will be several election forums. Absentee ballots are mailed out at the start of October, so Hawthorne will be full of political action these coming months. Remember to register to vote early so that you can have your voice heard come November.

Elon Makes News Again

The news media is right there whenever Elon Musk has something to say and he had plenty to say the other day concerning his radical idea called the hyperloop. Even though his idea of having people travel at speeds of over 700 mph in a tube has many questions that still need to be answered, the media and the general public give him credibility based on what Mr. Musk has done with his previous wild ideas. This past Monday, he said that it would be possible to build hyperloop from LA to SF in the next seven to ten years. The cost of a ticket? $20? Wow! It would be fun to make a quick afternoon trip up to SF to watch a Dodger/Giant game and return to have dinner that same evening back here at home.

Hawthorne Museum Open on Tuesdays and Saturdays

The Hawthorne Historical Society volunteer docents open the Hawthorne Museum each Tuesday and Saturday between the hours of 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. The museum has recently received more donations from long time residents. It is located across the parking lot from the Hawthorne Library. Come on down and see the history of the City of Good Neighbors.

Chamber to Host Mixer

The Hawthorne Chamber of Commerce will host a mixer at Eureka Burger on Thursday, August 15 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. The public is welcome to attend. You can get to know many of our business leaders through these social mixers.

Vacation Time

I will be taking a brief vacation next week. Hawthorne Happenings will be written by guest writers for the next two weeks. I will be back with you again in September. Have a great end of summer.

One Man's Opinion

By Gerry Chong

"Yo, America, I'm here in the heart of civilized Detroit, bringing you a review of this week's news... just a'lounging in the warm summer sun, sitting on a large rock that used to be a part of the wall of an art museum. Unfortunately the art was stolen, the windows were smashed and the building set afire--but the rock is intact. I've stacked newspapers from around the country at my feet so I could read the leading headlines to you, keeping y'all informed. F'rinstance:

Pew Research Center says 36 percent of millennials (those between 18-31) now live at home with their parents. That's a record 21.6 million young'uns sponging off mom and dad--the highest percentage in 40 years.

But hell, Pew didn't do enough research. They didn't tell us how many of the parents are living with their parents. Bet the old grannies and gramps are grumbling about supporting another generation.

According to the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, between 2009 and 2012, the number of doctors abandoning Medicare has tripled. That statistic is layered on top of the 60 percent of all physicians considering opting out of the medical profession entirely! Let's think about what that means: First everyone will have trouble finding a doctor--especially if you're a senior. That's good news for Obamacare because the government won't need the IPAB panel to determine which treatments seniors may receive. After all, if there ain't no doctors, there ain't no treatment, so the entire argument about death panels for old folks is moot.

Ahhh, let's see what else the government is up to. Moments before adjourning for their August vacation, Congress exempted itself and 11,000 staffers from Obamacare. Now, this is a little awkward since a central part of Obama's sales pitch was that lawmakers and their aides would be subject to the same law as their lowly subjects. Evidently the lawmakers finally read the law and concluded, "It's not for me."

Yippee and Hallelujah--the press says we're in a job boom. Did you know that? In July, there were 266,000 jobs created. Unfortunately, 174,000 were part-time jobs and only 92,000 were full-time jobs. Of all those jobs created, 50 percent were low-paying jobs.

For the first seven months of the year, there were 953,000 jobs created, of which 77 percent were part-time. So what does this mean? It means the income for the average American household is falling, and the length of the work week is collapsing, even as the President says our economy is growing.

There's a lot of irony in the news too. The Administration formed a Call Center to inform Americans of the benefits of Obamacare. In Contra Costa County, 7,000 people applied for 204 jobs but were disappointed to learn the jobs were part-time with no health benefits. Figures, doesn't it?

So Detroiters, keep your chins up. We're not unique here in the Motor City. We're just ahead of the rest of the country. Keep on truckin'.

Another Man's Opinion

A New Attitude Towards Mental Health

By Cristian Vasquez

The introduction of Senate Bill 330 by State Senator Alex Padilla is a reminder of the urgency with which we as a society need to look at the issue of mental health through a more academic lens. Currently there is no active process for reviewing any types of frameworks toward adopting instructional materials on mental health. These efforts have been suspended since July 28, 2009. Furthermore, the State Board of Education (SBE) is specifically prohibited from reviewing any frameworks and adopting any instructional materials until the 2015-16 school year. This bill requires that the next revision of the health curriculum should include a distinct category on mental health instruction.

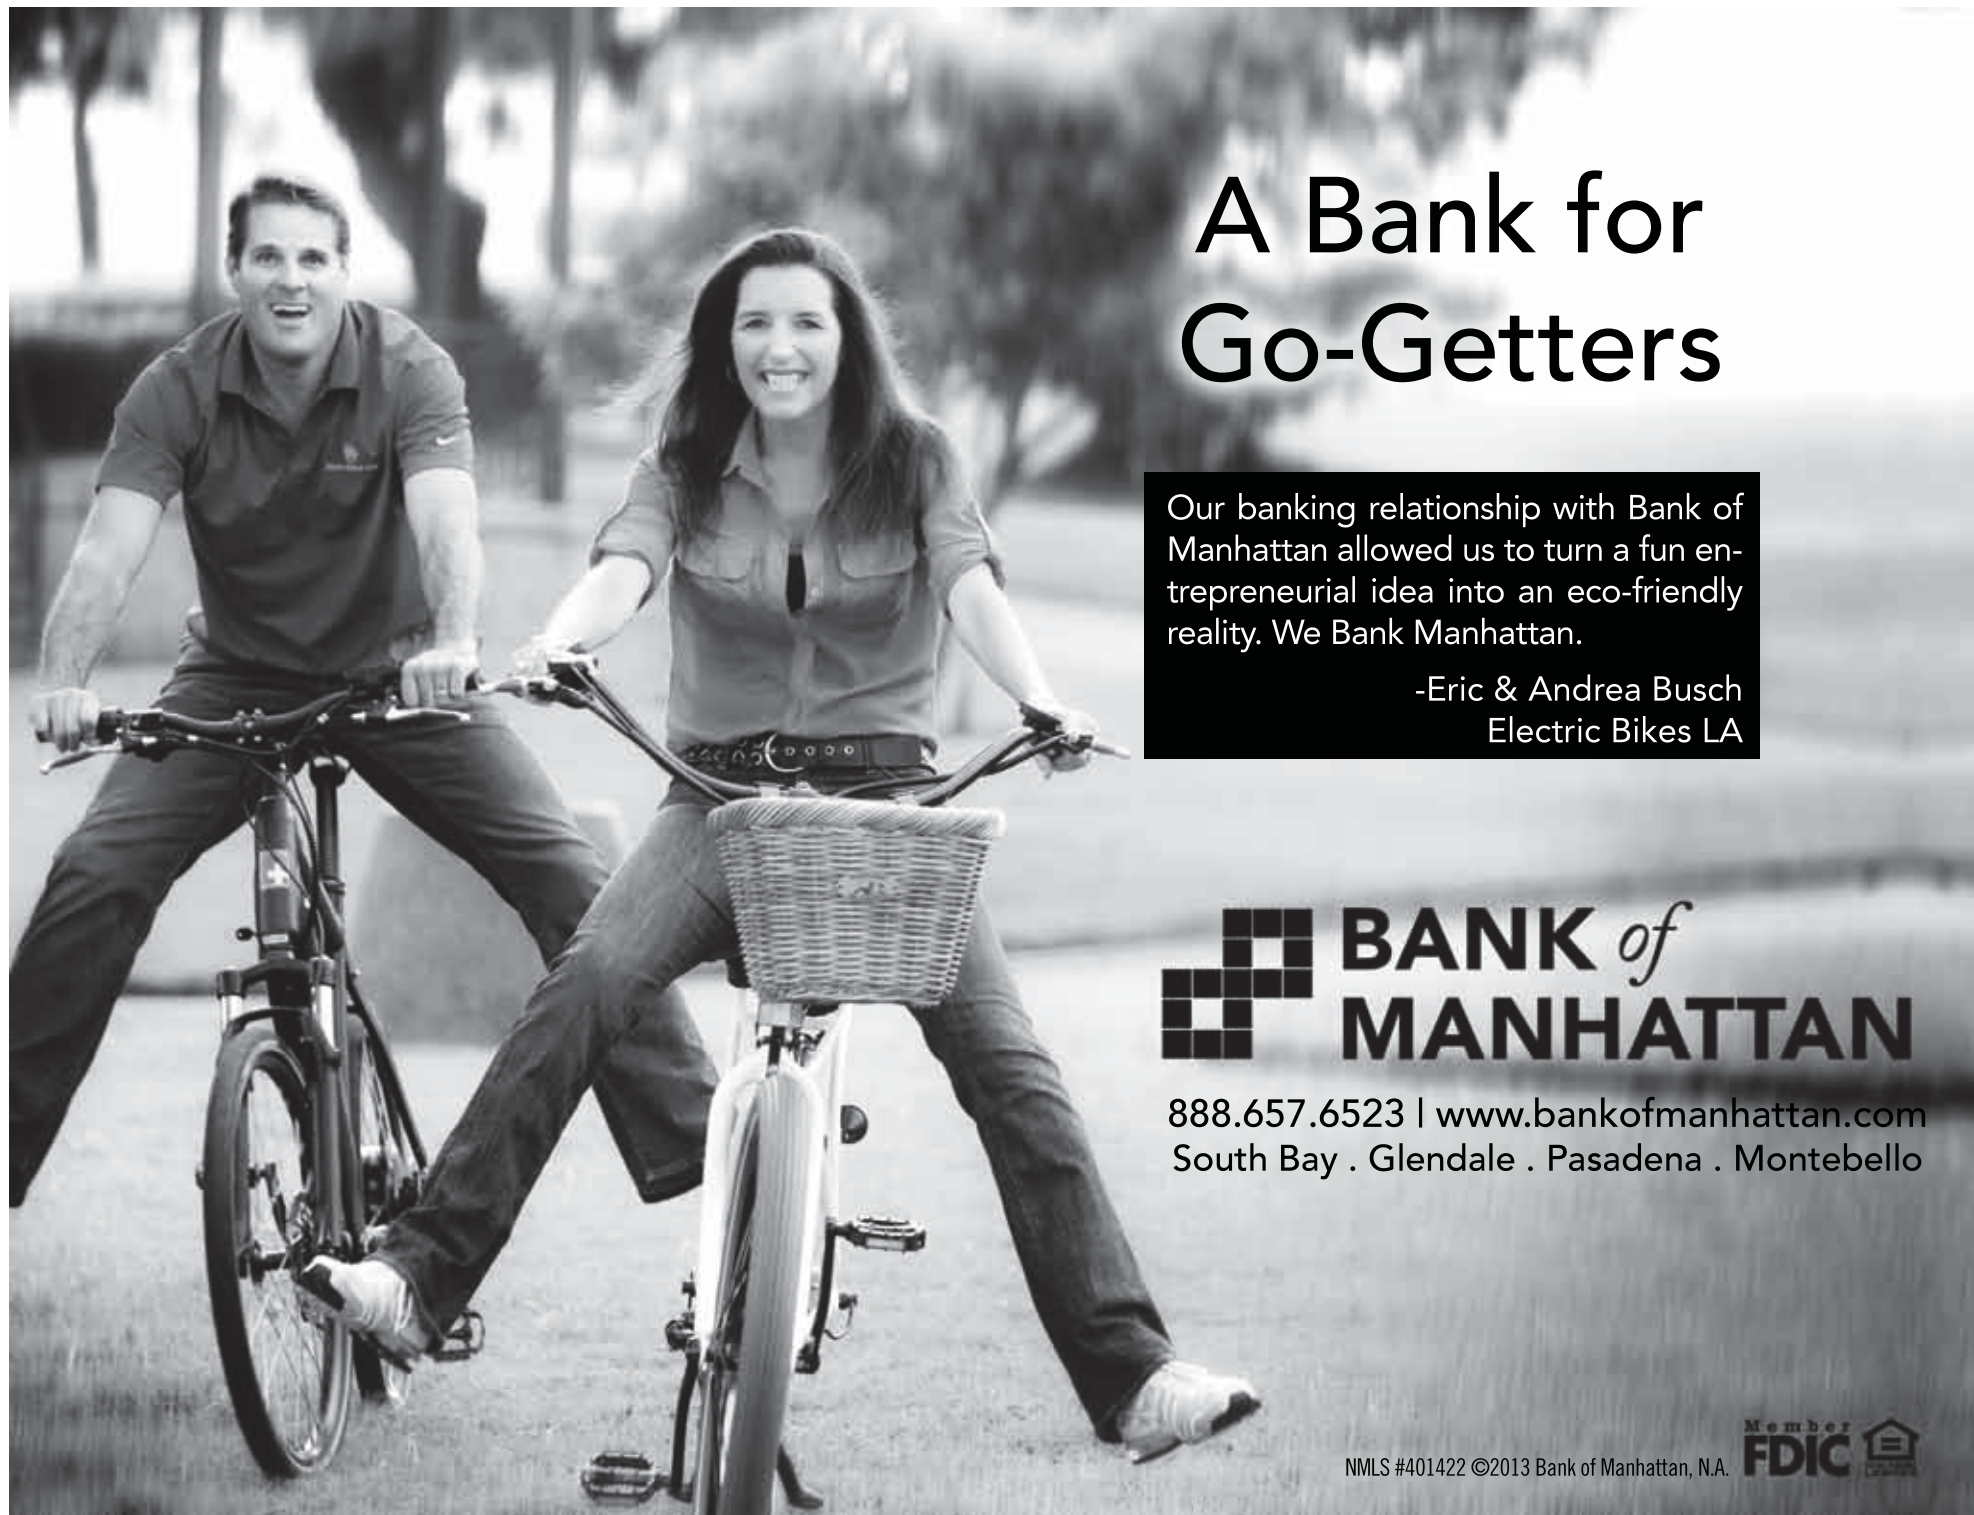

As a society, we continue to struggle with understanding mental health issues for a wide range of reasons--the most significant being the stigma that exists for people suffering from mental issues and disorders. It is tragic that because we don't fully understand the effects of mental conditions on people and the many conditions that do exist, that we, as a society, have the tendency to lump all patients with mental disorders into the "crazy" category. These people are not crazy--they are ill and need care in a variety of forms. Unfortunately for many years, these patients have been stigmatized mainly because most people are not educated about the issue.

Not having a curriculum available to explain to students in the K-12 system what some of these mental disorders are, how they affect people and what the patient must go through will only delay the process of making the general public more aware and accepting of afflicted individuals.

Teaching kids and teenagers that suffering from a mental disorder does not make the patient a bad person is the first step in helping the person afflicted by the condition. Patients with mental illnesses or disorders are reluctant to reveal details of about their struggles because they don't want to be mocked or shunned. When this occurs, the conditions for the person afflicted become worse because they are being marginalized, thus limiting their ability to socialize and try to lead a normal life.

In 2010, when the Lakers beat the Celtics in game seven of the NBA Finals, then Lakers' small/power forward Ron Artest gave one of the most interesting postgame interviews I have ever seen. After saying hello to his old neighborhood, wife and kids, Artest thanked his psychiatrist. The NBA star, from the biggest stage he had ever set foot on, told the world that he was afflicted by a mental disorder. Artest admitted that his doctor was crucial in helping him "relax a lot"--and based on his performance that night, he wasn't lying. The admission from an NBA star, known for one of the ugliest fights in NBA history, that he had a mental disorder brought the issue national attention. Unfortunately in our social media world, these issues are trendy for a while and then quickly forgotten.

Hopefully Senate Bill 330 and Senator Padilla's efforts bring the issue back via an academic approach so that more people with mental disorders can seek the help to relax them, without any of the stigma. If Ron Artest could overcome his issues, then so through a proper academic framework can society overcome its issues with mental disorders.

When I was growing up and my mom would find it on sale, she would buy us 'the San Francisco treat'. We would have it with chicken or pork chops. But sometimes I would just make a box of it and add some frozen veggies to it and top it with cheese for me to eat after school.

For those who don't know what this is... it's Rice a Roni.

I remember the salty savory taste of this stuff to this day.

But after reading the amount of salt that's in the box I came up with my own version of this treat.

The Chef

Chef Shafer's Rice a Roni

- 1 medium red onion, chopped fine
- 1/4 cup olive oil
- 1 cup white rice, uncooked
- 1/2 pound fettuccine pasta, broken in 4 inch pieces
- 6 cups chicken broth or more may be needed to ensure the rice is tender
- 1 teaspoon ground turmeric
- 1/4 cup chopped parsley
- 6 to 8 basil leaves chopped
- 2 tablespoons unsalted butter

In a large saucepan, sauté the onions in the olive oil.

Add the rice and sauté with the onions.

Add the parsley, turmeric, fettuccine, and broth. Simmer till rice and pasta are tender.

Finish with the basil and the unsalted butter, then check to see if you need to add salt or pepper. •

Pets Without Partners

Adopt a "pet without a partner" and give a homeless pet a second chance in life.

This sweet little teacup Chihuahua is Pistol Annie. Our darling girl was found abandoned in an empty lot in downtown Los Angeles left to fend for herself. Annie was born with deformed hind legs--her kneecaps were on the side of her legs, making it impossible for her to use her hind legs to walk. Now since her knee surgery to place her patellae in the correct position, this amazing little pup is running and playing like any pup her age should do. Check out her two videos on our website. It's both heartbreaking and heartwarming. Annie is nine months old, weighs three pounds and is ready to share her love with you. If you can't adopt this amazing little girl, please consider donating toward her care as her surgery bill is huge! Pistol Annie is spayed, current on vaccinations, de-wormed, microchipped, and is great with everyone. However, children in the household should be 13 and older due to Annie's small size.

Clover is a very unique-looking puppy... like a little sheep ready to be shorn! Her dear mom Abbey, (also available for adoption) is a sweet, brown Chihuahua. Dad was a little Poodle who did the dirty and then took off! This little gal is all about fun and games. She is a butterscotch tan in color with beautiful blue eyes. She is happy, healthy and loads of fun. Clover has a cute, spunky personality and loves everyone she meets. She was born on June 1, 2013, is ready for her new home, and will need to be adopted in our relative area so she can come back to be spayed at our vet. Clover will be spayed when of age, is current on vaccinations, is de-wormed, microchipped, great with other dogs and cat-safe.

To learn more about these and other wonderful dogs, visit our website at www.animalsrule.org. If a dog is on our website, it's available. Or come to our Saturday adoption events from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at 305 North Harbor Boulevard in San Pedro (just off the 110 near the cruise port). We are always in need of donations for veterinarian bills and our senior dogs. Donations can be made through our website or by sending a check payable to: Animals Rule Placement Foundation at 305 North Harbor Blvd., San Pedro, CA 90731. All donations are tax-deductible. We are a registered 501©3 non-profit organization.

Happy Tails

Shanti (aka Ava) is not only a wonderful companion, but has stepped up to the plate to become her human's service dog. From while I turned in some shoes to be repaired and then walked like a little angel over to Macy's and sat with me while I waited

"When you adopt a "pet without a partner," you will forever make a difference in their life and they are sure to make a difference in yours."

homeless to a higher calling, Shanti is truly amazing....

"Shanti is amazing! She is an unusual dog and deserves an unusual name, so I just made this one up myself and she responds beautifully. She had her first trip to the mall today...sat patiently at Nordstrom's

(an interminably long time) to return a package. She is really the most amazing dog I've ever owned. She fits us perfectly. We go to the dog park every evening so she can socialize with other dogs. However as of now, she really prefers to socialize with the humans.

Purrrfect Companions

This week's brother pair will definitely entertain you and charm their way into your heart. Magoo and Barney play with the other cats and dogs at their foster home and could do well in a multi-pet household. They were hand-raised from four weeks old and love to be with their humans.

Barney

Magoo is the total package...an affectionate, charismatic personality with a beautiful silky soft coat. Perching on your shoulder with the heart of a mountain lion, he will then flop over like a rag doll to be cuddled, purring up a storm. Magoo especially loves to lie on your chest as you watch TV or next to your feet as you work at the computer--and soon purrs himself to sleep. He is an energetic, spunky, fun-loving kitten with a look in his eyes that will melt your heart. This darling boy loves to be with you and know that he has your love. His kitten antics will entertain you as he jumps in the air to see how high he can reach and fetches his favorite fuzzy ball when you throw it for him. With his distinct black and white markings and golden eyes, Magoo will grow to be a strikingly handsome cat.

Although he is the smaller of the two, Barney rules the roost and commands the attention of his brother Magoo. His soft, gray Tabby markings over his white coat are the perfect background for Barney's beautiful green eyes. He is adventurous and independent, is not afraid to tackle a stuffed toy twice his size, and yet craves your attention. Barney will lie on his back cradled in your arm waiting for a belly rub as he purrs contentedly or will lie at your feet like a puppy dog. He is an energetic, spunky, fun-loving kitten with an inquisitive nature. Ready for action at a moment's notice, he will run and play but then curl up with his brother or next to you. This sweet boy is still just a baby who loves to be held and assured he is loved.

These kittens/cats are available for adoption through Kitten Rescue, one of the largest cat rescue groups in Southern California. All of our kitties are spayed/neutered, microchipped, tested for FeLV and FIV, de-wormed and current on their vaccinations. For additional information and to see our other kitties, please check our website www.kittenrescue.org or email us at mail@kittenrescue.org. Your tax-deductible donations for the rescue and care of our cats and kittens can be made through our website or by sending a check payable to Kitten Rescue, 914 Westwood Boulevard, #583, Los Angeles, CA 90024.

On Saturdays, we have adoptions from noon to 3 p.m. in Westchester at 8655 Lincoln Boulevard, just south of Manchester Avenue, and also in Mar Vista at 3860 Centinela Avenue, just south of Venice Boulevard. Our website lists additional adoption sites and directions to each location.

Magoo and friend

Shanti at your service.

She trains very easily. Has only had one accident in the house and that was her third night here when she was still getting settled in. She is very comical and does things regularly that make us laugh. Thanks so much for the pictures--they are great and I love them!

I'm heading down to have her registered as a service dog. I am blind in my right eye and she heels on my right side and prevents me from bumping into people when we're in a crowded place. She also is helpful on stairs and curbs, as my depth perception is not always so good. We absolutely adore her and are most grateful to Emily for rescuing her and to your organization for all the wonderful work you do to prevent animals from suffering and to find them loving homes... Most sincerely, Ruthann." •
