Wiseburn Recognizes Longtime Employees

By Dylan Little

Five Wiseburn School District employees (with a combined 160 years of history there) were recognized for their contributions and their roles in shaping the District with their long and accomplished tenures during the May 31 School Board meeting. The long-serving individuals were classified employees Jewel Jugend, school nurse from Dana Middle School; Peggy Kremer, kitchen worker from Cabrillo Elementary; Emerita Penna, an aide from Cabrillo; Mark Walker, Maintenance worker; and Terry Johnstone, a teacher at Anza Elementary. Each of these honorees was joined by proud friends and family. Superintendent Tom Johnstone was excited, not just for his wife Terry, but for the chance to recognize these dedicated workers who have helped the District's students for many years.

"This is without a doubt my favorite meeting of the year," said Johnstone. "What we're about here in the Wiseburn School district is the people. What we are going to be recognizing tonight is the accumulation of over 150 years of service to the kids and families of the Wiseburn School District." The first employee to be honored was Jugend, who has worked at Dana for 40 years. She started as a health clerk in 1972 and has since then been an invaluable member of the school's staff. Dana Principal Aileen Harbeck touched on just some of the responsibilities Jugend has tackled over her tenure. "In her years of applying band-aid, taking temperatures, pushing wheelchairs, passing out ice packs and medication, holding kids' hands and talking to the occasional paramedic, Jewel has looked after the well-being of hundreds and hundreds of children, and on some occasions some adults," said Harbeck. "Her evaluations over 40 years reveal a strong work ethic and a caring attitude." She then directly addressed Jugend and said, "Things will never be the same without you...We all know Dana is far and away a better place because of you."

The next honoree was Kremer, who has worked at Cabrillo for 35 years. Cabrillo Principal Margaret Lynch shared a story that helped exemplify how dedicated Kremer is to the students there. "My first conversation with Peggy was over the phone--I was asked to call her to be sure she could accommodate a change in the lunch schedule," Lynch explained. "It would mean shorter prep time for her for first and second grade, but would give teachers a longer teaching block for their early birds and late birds. Her response was, 'Will this be good for kids, because if this will be better for kids of course I'll do it.' The sincerity of her question and her response has resonated with me. Will it be better for kids--then of course I'll do it."

In addition to her willingness to make her work more challenging to benefit the students,

Lynch had a long list of other stellar qualities that make Kremer an asset to Cabrillo. "Through the kitchen, she touches every child every day," said Lynch. "She does her job with attention to every detail. She's a team player and a team leader and she recognizes and appreciates the work of the ladies who work with her and alongside her."

Penna is also from Cabrillo and has been working there for 30 years. In her time there, she helped create the school's English Language Development program (ELD) that has become extremely valuable to the district. Johnstone called her the driving force of ELD at Cabrillo and complimented her ability to adapt to some recent changes to the ELD program despite her personal connection. "[Penna] is very, very special to me," said See Wiseburn, page 12

For 20 years, the City of Hawthorne has been hosting a blood drive in cooperation with the American Red Cross. Putting together the event presents several challenges for organizers despite the City's ongoing experience and efforts coordinating everything.

"It takes scheduling it on a good day and it takes contacting our community and let them know that there is an American Red Cross blood drive happening in our area," Community Liaison Officer for the City of Hawthorne Rosalinda Martinez said. "The need of blood is really high and the blood that is donated to the Red Cross is a worldwide donation to anyone that needs it. That there is one of my focuses for donating--you never know when we will be one to use it."

This year's event will take place Monday June 11, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The Bloodmobile will be located behind Hawthorne City Hall at 4455 W. 126th Street at the corner of Grevillea Avenue. All presenting donors will receive a coupon for free admission to will also be a Wahoo's free taco coupon and all donors will also be eligible to enter a regional Ticket to Summer Fun Drawing.

All people looking to donate will be required to register by signing in and showing identification [drivers' license or a Red Cross donor card]. The potential donor will also receive a mini physical test including checking vital signs such as blood pressure levels, as well as iron levels. It is recommended that donors wear short-sleeve shirts, that they eat a small and healthy low-fat meal prior to donating.

"Getting enough people involved is always a challenge because people kind of expect that we will come," American Red Cross Account Manager Donor Resources Alice Lan said. "Sometimes people don't think of the need for blood. It is constant and always there. People donate when there is a disaster, but we would like to have a constant supply of blood on hand--especially

~ Mother Teresa

This column serves as a community forum where local leaders volunteer to respond to faith and religious questions submitted by readers.

Do I have to go to church/temple to be a good Christian/of your faith?

While home or individual prayer and meditation is an integral and ancient part of Jewish daily life, there are some prayers and services which require a quorum of 10 Jews, called a 'minyan'. The kaddish memorial prayer for the deceased, call to worship, and numerous other pieces of liturgy require a minyan. This gets its basis from the biblical story of Abraham arguing with G-d to save the doomed cities of Sodom and Gomorrah. G-d promised Abraham that if there were ten righteous people to be found in the town, the entire town would be spared from destruction for the sake of the ten. I find that praying with a group elevates the spiritual experience to a much higher level than I can achieve on my own. We help lift each other up in prayer. On the most sacred day of the Jewish calendar, Yom Kippur, the confessional prayers are written in the plural. Even if most of the sins we recite don't apply to us personally, we make it easier for the penitent to confess his or her mistakes by saying the entire list along with everyone else.

Hebrews 10.25b

Let's keep a firm grip on the promises that keep us going. He always keeps his word. Let's see how inventive we can be in encouraging love and helping out, not avoiding worshiping together as some do but spurring each other on, especially as we see the big Day approaching.

What are "the promises" and "his word"?

When we go to church we hear God's Word through preaching. We learn what the promises are. We hear "his word" read and explained. Imagine if you heard an announcement on the radio, or you received an email, text or twitter on your mobile device saying, "God will be speaking at Dodger Stadium this Sunday!" Wouldn't you go? In church you will hear God speak through His word, the Bible.

I urge you to find a Bible believing, preaching church to attend. There you will find the greatest promise ever told - Jesus died for all the wrongs you've ever committed so that instead of you being punished, He was punished in your place. You will hear of God's great love for you. Romans 10.14-15, 17

"Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved." How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them?... Consequently, faith comes from hearing the message, and the message is heard through the word about Christ.

PETSPETSPETSPETSPETS Purrfect Companions Pets Without Partners

Discover love when you find your purr-fect partner.

Ralphie was discovered hunkered down in a raindrenched and mud-soaked drainage culvert with his mama and five littermates. In spite of his rough start in this world, Ralphie is a sweet and loving fellow. He's very playful and loves people, cuddling, tummy rubs and lots of attention. This adorable boy likes children, having been raised with his foster mom's four-year-old granddaughter. He's a perfectly delightful fellow in every way. Now his quest begins for the loving family that will overlook his slightly imperfect eye (due to his prolonged exposure to the cold and damp as a baby) and love him for the sweet and wonderful little guy he is! Ralphie love other cats so much and wants a home with another kitty so he can be as happy as possible!

Yin and Yang were rescued as babies from a backyard. Yin is the adventurous half of his brother Yang. He loves to play with strings and feathers, but his favorite game is playing chase and wrestling with Yang. His beautiful smoke-black fur has the markings of a Tabby showing through and he is especially endearing when he looks up at you with his emerald green eyes. Yin enjoys playing with children and is warming up to his foster mom's little Maltese.

Yang is the sweet and mischievous half of his brother Yin. Yang is very bold and loves to explore new places. His cuddly personality makes him so easy to fall in love with, especially when he crawls up on your lap to take a nap. With his white fur and mesmerizing smoky green eyes, he has an elegant look. Yang loves to play with children and is fine with his foster's Maltese. Adopt Yin and Yang together and create the perfect balance in your life!

These kittens/cats are available for adoption through Kitten Rescue, one of the largest cat rescue groups in Southern California. All of our kitties are spayed/neutered, microchipped, tested for FeLV and FIV, de-wormed and current on their vaccinations. For additional information and to see our other kitties, please check our website at www. kittenrescue.org, or email us at mail@ kittenrescue.org. Your tax-deductible donations for the rescue and care of our cats and kittens can be made through our website or by sending a check payable to Kitten Rescue, 914 Westwood Boulevard, #583, Los Angeles, CA 90024.

On Saturdays, we have adoptions from noon to 3:30 p.m. in Westchester at 8655 Lincoln Boulevard, just south of Manchester Avenue, and also in Mar Vista at 3860 Centinela Avenue, just south of Venice Boulevard. Our website lists additional adoption sites and directions to each location.

You'll have a "fur-ever" friend when you adopt a "pet without a partner."

Hayden was born around March 13, 2012 and he is growing like a weed! He is silly, playful, sweet and very loving. This handsome little boy has really long legs and a gorgeous tri-colored coat. He is a sweet little wirehaired hound of some sort. We believe Hayden is your typical no-issue puppy. He is currently in foster care where he has learned to use the pet door and is doing his business outside most of the time. Hayden will be neutered when of age, is current on vaccinations, de-wormed, microchipped, good with other dogs and loves kids.

Flapper was found by our vet Dr. Caylor--he was unable to locate his owners. His son named this sweet boy Flapper because his big ears flap when the wind blows. This is a really sweet little dog. His tan coat with white accents makes him a strikingly handsome little fellow. Flapper is about two years old and he is full-grown at 11 pounds. Flapper loves all other dogs and is currently kenneled with his new girlfriend, a sweet little Pomeranian named Reba. Flapper is a little shy when you first meet him, but in about two minutes he is all over you. Flapper has good play manners with the other dogs, but his most favorite place to be is on your lap. Flapper will lay or sit with you for hours--he just loves people and children. He is a love of a little dog and will be the best friend to any child looking for a dog of their own. Flapper is neutered, current on vaccinations, de-wormed, microchipped, good with other dogs and loves kids.

Bruiser, now Brutus, got a great home and he will soon have his own personal

Website. Watch for him at www.JustBrutus. com. Our little man wrote his own update that he wanted to share with you:

"My new daddy was going to write to you, but I decided to do this myself. I was adopted with the name Bruiser, but my new daddy and mommy were having problems with the name so I chose an easier name for them. Well, the name I finally settled on is Brutus. My mommy and daddy seem to be able to pronounce this better. Now, I live in a big house with a big backyard and I have four brothers and one sister! Two are dogs like me, but not like me. Ginger is a Golden Retriever. She's big and I'm always jumping to get out of her way when she runs. She keeps me warm when we're sleeping. Junior is a Chihuahua like me. It's taking a little longer to get to know him. I'll win him over, though. I'm good at that. The other three are cats. They don't look anything like me and they say "meow" a lot. I think they're speaking French or something. Spot is the oldest and we get along very well. Spartacus and Morpheus are brothers. We get along well. I found out that they were all rescued like me! I knew we would have a lot in common. Every morning I have been going on walks with Mommy, Daddy, Ginger and Junior. We go to this park that's down the street. We get to see a lot of squirrels and sometimes we get to see a strange animal. I think its Irish 'cause they call it an O'Possum. After the walks, we get to go home and rest. It's a long way to walk, but it's fun. So to conclude this update to my life so far, I'm doing good and I'm happy. Look for me on Facebook. They wouldn't let me use my chosen name, but look for me as "JustBrutus Brutus." Find me and be my friend. My daddy will be getting me my own website very soon. We're hoping that we will get the domain name www.JUSTBRUTUS.com, so come and visit me and we'll have some fun! Again, I want to thank my foster mom Jen. I miss you and Thanks to Animals Rule. I couldn't have done it without you. You helped me at a difficult time in my life ... " -- Brutus a.k.a. Bruiser.

By Adam Serrao

The road to the NBA Finals is well underway and the competing pool of four teams that remains could turn into two with the snap of one's fingers. Now that the lockout-shortened season is in its final stretch, the real stars with both experience and skill have come out to play. From LeBron James and Kevin Durant, to Tim Duncan and Kevin Garnett, players from the young and athletic to the old, cagey veterans are attempting to do whatever it takes to chase down the much coveted championship jewel for their fingers. Even though there are only four teams left, however, does it still seem too troublesome to predict a title winner? Well, you're in luck. With the help of my precious intuition and the crystal ball that sits near my keyboard, I will tell you (and the odds makers in Vegas) who will, in fact, win the 2012 NBA championship trophy.

Let's start with the Boston Celtics. Their victory over the Miami Heat last Friday night gave Irishmen and Boston fans alike a sense of rejuvenation and hope that the Celtics may just have what it takes to overcome the two-headed beast that is the Heat. When they beat them again last Sunday to tie the series at 2-2, most everyone began to furrow their collective brows and join together in the thought that Boston might just pull off a shocker. With Rajon Rondo blowing up in this year's Eastern Conference Finals and Kevin Garnett's enduring athleticism outcompeting the void left by an injured Chris Bosh, the Celtics do seemingly have a chance. What will ultimately lose them the series and a shot at this year's championship, however, is the trade they made in the offseason shipping out Kendrick Perkins. Perkins isn't producing much now with the Oklahoma City Thunder, but keep in mind that the big, bulky center dropped approximately 32 pounds to fit in with the younger, more athletic team headed by Durant and Russell Westbrook. If Perkins was still on the team (instead of an inactive Jeff Green) and was still as intimidating. the Celtics would beat the Heat. Combine Perkins' absence with the diminished skills of Paul Pierce and his propensity to foul out of every important game and you have the reason why the Celtics will be this year's first team of the final four to drop out of contention.

Over in the Western Conference, there is an epic battle going on between the young and the old for the last spot in this year's finals. The youth and athleticism of Durant and Westbrook matched up against the astute and fundamentally sound San Antonio Spurs led by Tim Duncan and Tony Parker. It's easy to figure out the Thunder. They're young, they're talented and they have the ability to run you off of the court. The Spurs, on the other hand, have been at it since the year they drafted Tim Duncan in 1997. The team has made the playoffs 21 of the last 22 seasons, including all 15 years that Duncan has been a part of the squad. "Elite" is the only word that comes to mind. But then you get the Spurs of a year ago that like this year, entered the playoffs as a number one seed but lost their first playoff series to the eighth seeded Memphis Grizzlies, four games to two. Confusing how a team that good could have a letdown that big. Victorious, at one point, in 20 of their last 21 games, the Spurs have now dropped three games in a row including a key game five last Monday in San Antonio. Another letdown of epic proportions, right before our very eyes. At the beginning of the series, the Spurs looked powerful, skilled and basically unbeatable. As the series wore on however, the Spurs from a year ago resurfaced and lived up to their characterization as an old team that just can't keep their intensity for the entirety of a six-to-seven game series. In order to lose the series to the Thunder, the Spurs had to lose three out of four games and it looks like they are going to do exactly that. The younger, swifter, fresher Thunder take the series in six games against the Spurs.

The Oklahoma City Thunder against the Miami Heat in this year's NBA Finals. LeBron James and Dwyane Wade versus Kevin Durant and Russell Westbrook. It seems to be a battle of good versus evil. The consensus of basketball fans across the nation absolutely hates LeBron James. If they don't hate him, then they just don't want to see a team that has constructed itself go all the way and win the NBA title. That being said, there is one reason why basketball fans everywhere will be happy with this year's winning team. That reason's name is Erik Spoelstra.

Spoelstra has never been a high quality head coach in the NBA. Given the talent on his team, anyone could step in and draw up X's and O's to get two of the best players in the league to the Finals. Even with the two best players, however, the Heat is losing games that the team just shouldn't be losing. A lack of structure and organization (stemming from the head coach) deep into games and during key moments in the fourth quarter is evident. The only set plays that Spoelstra calls are either 1.) give the ball to Wade and let him drive it to the basket or 2.) give the ball to LeBron and let him drive it to the basket. Because of this, Durant, Westbrook and the rest of the Oklahoma City team that goes beyond just its two main stars will have a field day against Miami and expose them as the weaker team. My crystal ball tells me that the series will go six games, but in the end the up-and-coming Thunder will rumble their way to the rim, roar past an undisciplined Heat team and keep the trophy away from LeBron James for at least one more year. David Stern will get the ratings that he wants, but good always triumphs over evil. Oklahoma City is your 2012 NBA champion. •

Joe's Sports St. Mary's Places Fifth at State Meet

By Joe Snyder

The St. Mary's Academy girls' track and field team from Inglewood had some strong showings in placing fifth in last Saturday's California State Championships at Buchanan High in Clovis. The Belles were sparked by Rachel Toliver, who had a second place finish in the triple jump at 40 feet, one inch and a keyed their 4x100-meter relay team to a third place finish.

St. Mary's prime track and field rival, Gardena Serra, won the state title accumulating 60 points to 36 for runner-up Oceanside El Camino. The Belles had 22 points.

Toliver teamed with Summer Buckley, Alijah Hale and Sierra Peterson to lift the Belles to third place in the 400 relay, which was timed at 46.21 seconds in the 95-degree heat to start the meet. St. Mary's also had a third place finish by its 4x400 squad of Buckley, Hale, Peterson and Zuri Henderson clocking 3:50.1.

Serra won both relays, winning the 4x100 in 45.92 and the 1,600 timing 3:46.45. The Cavaliers have several key athletes living in Hawthorne and Inglewood involved and their track and field program produced their first ever State girls crown for any sport since the previously all boys school first admitted girls in the 1991-92 school year.

South Bay Swimmers Begin Summer

The Hawthorne-based South Bay Youth and Adult Swim Teams start their summer schedule with a Huntington Beach Pier Ocean Swim on Saturday. Hawthorne also has some age group dual meets at Mira Costa High in Manhattan Beach. It will have a tri-meet against Surfside and the Manhattan Beach Surf on June 29, versus Manhattan Beach Dolphins and Surf on July 6 and against Dolphins and Surf on July 21. It will also have the Southern California Athletic Association (SCAA) Championship Meet at Mira Costa on August 11.

The club's most popular Ocean swim meet is the International Surf Festival's Two-Mile Hermosa Beach to Manhattan Beach Pier Swim on August 5, but it plans to compete in Seal Beach on June 30, Balboa to Newport Beach Pier on July 14, the San Clemente Ocean Festival on July 21 and 22 and the Naples Island Swims in Long Beach on August 18.

For further information on the South Bay Swim Club, including the youth Stingrays, please call the Hawthorne Community Pool at (310) 643-6523 or log on at www.South-BaySwimTeam.org.

District 37 Tournaments Start

With the regular local Little League Baseball season over, the District 37 Little League Tournament of Champions begin on Saturday at various sites. For the first time, the tournament will be only single elimination since it has to end before the all-star tournaments start on June 23.

In previous seasons, the District 37 Tournament of Champions, currently known as the Carl Magee Memorial Tournament, was double elimination but had to change due to all-star classics starting about two weeks earlier than the previous years when most of the games began after Independence Day.

District 37 includes Little Leagues from Hawthorne, Lawndale, Lennox, Inglewood, El Camino Village Tri Park (including players from Hawthorne, Lawndale and Gardena), Del Aire (an unincorporated Los Angeles County community between El Segundo and Hawthorne), Compton, Playa del Rey, Playa Vista and Westchester. •

Senator Wright Recognizes Student Achievement at Annual Luncheon

Courtesy of the Office of Sen. Roderick D Wright

Senator Roderick D. Wright (D-Inglewood) once again recognized outstanding graduating elementary, middle, high and adult school students in the 25th Senate District at his annual Student Honors Luncheon, which was held Saturday, May 19, at CSU Dominguez Hills. The student honorees were chosen by their schools based on academic excellence, community service and/or overall self-improvement.

All student honorees were given certificates of achievement, and several won $500 scholarships in an essay contest. Several parents have already contacted Wright to say what an affirming and life-changing experience the recognition of their outstanding achievements has been for their children.

Students who attended were also entered in a raffle for prizes generously donated by local businesses, including amusement park passes and the latest in high-tech gadgets. Sponsors for this year's luncheon, hosted by the National Family Life & Education Center, included GTECH, Pacific Gas & Electric, SCAQMD, BPAmerica, Inc., AT&T, Time Warner Cable, Southern California Edison, Southern California Gas Company, Nestle USA, the Barona Band of Mission Indians, CA Cable & Telecommunications Association, Celgene Corporation and Cox Communications.

Wright praised the teachers and involved parents who provide the foundation to make these students' success possible. The program was once again directed by event emcee William Allen Young, best known as the star of the television programs CSI: Miami and Moesha, who was once a student in the

At the event, it was announced that San Pedro High School is the latest recipient of a $5,000 Barona Education Grant, with Wright presenting assistant principal Aadil Naazir with an oversized check to represent the award. SPHS plans to use the funds to purchase electronic equipment for students in their Advancement Via Individual Determination (AVID) Program to use in preparing high-quality presentations.

Guests at this year's event were entertained by a student jazz ensemble and dancers from CSU Dominguez Hills, as well as a pair of dancers from Inspire Dance Ministries in the San Fernando Valley. Opening remarks were given by CSUDH's Greg Saks. The Pledge of Allegiance was led by California Highway Patrol officer Dion Conley, and the invocation by Carson City Councilmember Mike Gipson. Congresswoman Laura Richardson helped present adult education awards.

News for the City of Good Neighbors

From City Clerk Norb Huber Sad Ending

For several years, I coached my daughter's AYSO soccer team out on the old Dana Middle School campus fields. It was fun coaching the girls because they didn't think they knew everything like the boys did. For two years, "Millie", was our goalie. She wasn't the most athletic. She wasn't the best athlete on the field, but she was determined to play hard and did everything we asked her to do. That same determination led her to excel in Math at the Hawthorne Math and Science Academy. Overcoming obstacles seemed to be no problem to Millie. She was accepted to UC, Berkeley and moved on to college with a twoyear-old son. Millie was a single mom, helped with the parent/student programs and did Math tutoring on the side at Berkeley. Last month she graduated. Seems like a wonderful story. Unfortunately, the story doesn't end that way.

Less than a week following graduation day, Milanca Lopez and her son, Xavier, were killed in an automobile accident in Berkeley. Millie's boyfriend is being charged with manslaughter for their deaths. Last evening I attended the Rosary for Millie and Xavier at St. Joseph's Church in Hawthorne and joined with a large gathering of people there to mourn two lives cut way too short. Life can be short, it can be cruel, it can bring excruciating pain. Everyday we should live in gratitude and love for the family and friends we have to share life with. You never know what life will bring.

The Boys on Tour

The Beach Boys' 50th Anniversary Tour rolled into Southern California last weekend with concerts at the Hollywood Bowl and the Verizon Amphitheatre in Irvine. Reports from attendees indicated that the Boys haven't forgotten their hometown. Several times during the concert, Hawthorne, Hawthorne High School and Hawthorne Boulevard were mentioned as the old stompin' grounds of the most famous band to ever come out of SoCal.

during the summer when it is very difficult to have a constant supply of blood available because a lot of the schools are out and people are on vacation."

For the most part, all people who come out to donate will have the opportunity to do so. However, there are instances where a person will not be able to donate. "There are restrictions, which are on a pamphlet that people who come in that day will receive," Martinez said. "There are restrictions--if you have a fever or had a cold, you can't give blood, or if you have been in Europe within the past year. There are a few things that must be weeded out so somebody can donate and a lot of the times it turns out to be a good thing." Attendance to the blood drives will vary for a variety of factors. From time of year to day of the week, it is always difficult to predict how many donors will make it out on any given day. "With the economy when people are out of work is when we see a decrease in donations since they aren't donating at work," Lan said. "Little issues like the weather can also affect the blood drive. A lot of it also depends on the city and how well the coordinator promotes the event, how many people are involved and what kind of buy-in the organizers take. We have really good and strong support in Hawthorne. Rosalinda is really great in recruiting everyone, making the phone calls necessary. The City, the Mayor, the City Council are all really big supporters and that really helps as well."

What Election?

A big misconception is growing in this country. The misconception is the belief that unless the general election for president is on the ballot, then the election is not very important.

The truth is that the people we elect to lower offices, like state assembly or city council, has much more of a direct effect on our lives than the leader of a nation of 320 million people. This week's low primary election turnout is an indication of apathy for our election process. Every vote counts. Every election matters.

Blood shortages are a constant problem for the Red Cross and hospitals across the country. The Red Cross indicates that every two seconds someone in the United States needs blood, which emphasizes the need for people to donate as often as they can. In addition, because blood has a limited shelf life, the blood supply of any community must be constantly replenished in order to meet patients' needs. One pint of Johnstone. "She has been the mainstay of the ELD program at Cabrillo now not just over these past few years, but really over 30 years. She was asked to do something very difficult. She had a very successful program in place and we came in three years ago and made some adjustments to that program. And like everybody else, sometimes when you have something very special and that you're passionate about it's not the easiest thing to accept changes. Mary did an awesome job and she's shining brighter than she ever did before and the whole ELD program is shining brighter than it has before."

After Penna was recognized, Maintenance and Operations Manager Bill Denney called up Walker. Walker has worked in the District for 30 years and has proven extremely capable, especially with fixing the computer systems. On top of working out computer problems, he helps oversee all the communication required for the Great American Shake-Out, which the District participates in each October. "When I first started here, I didn't know anything about the school, so Mark was my right-hand man," said Denney. "His knowledge is still sought after. I don't think a week goes by when I don't ask him a computer question...he has always been there to help me through it. Mark continues to be a huge asset to Wiseburn and I congratulate him."

The last honoree was Terry Johnstone, who has been teaching at Anza for 25 years and also married to Tom Johnstone. He joked that since she started at the District first, people say he's Mrs. Johnstone's husband and never the other way around. "She is someone who truly embodies what the school and the District is all about," said Anza Principal Chris Jones. "Someone who when you think about the words that describe her has just the right ones--caring, loving, nurturing. These are what make Terry. The best way I can describe Terry is she is like a warm cup of cocoa. When you need that moment of peace and nurturing and loving, you turn around and there she is. And it's that feeling of warmth she gives off that we all get the benefit of." • blood can be used to save up to three lives.

"We need to constantly supply our hospitals with blood, but when summer rolls around and schools are out we really struggle," Lan said. "We receive about 40 percent of our donations from high school students."

In an effort to attract more donors, the Red Cross is organizing a campaign, The City Blood Challenge, where cities throughout Southern California will be competing. "It is a friendly competition between different cities," Lan said. "We will be presenting the 'Most People Participating Award' and the 'Most Percentage of People Participating Award.' We are having it during the summer because of the usual shortage, but the winners will be announced in September. We really appreciate the City of Hawthorne's partnership. Without them, we would not be able to supply the much-needed blood to our patients in Southern California."
