Thank You, Mr. David Wright, For Visiting Our ES Students

Father Joshua Wong's Installation at St. Michael's Episcopal Church

On Saturday, February 1, Father Joshua Wong was installed as the seventh Rector of St. Michael's Church in El Segundo. Located on the corner of Holly Street and Richmond Street, this charming church and Pre-school is a living memorial and reminder that great blessings and dreams can be realized from small beginnings wanting a change. As we learned from Melissa Albers, the founder of the St. Michael's Children's Center's article, St. Michael's came into being in the late 1920's when a group of women and their children from St. Cross Episcopal Church in Hermosa Beach dreamed of starting an Episcopal Church in El Segundo. Since then, there have been six rectors and now in 2025, Father Joshua was selected as the seventh Rector and Chaplain of St. Michael's.

On a beautiful Spring morning service on February 1, Father Joshua was installed by Bishop Ed Little of the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles as their official full-time rector. Father Joshua described this as "a very special day in my life, both sacred and unforgettable."

On that day, St. Michael's saw a packed church with many of Father Joshua's colleagues, friends, and acquaintances from his previous parishes to support, encourage, and congratulate him on this celebratory day. The next day, at his Sunday service, He shared with the congregation the notable events and people that led to this moment. He compared these holy women and men who were instrumental to his journey of faith to

Simeon and Anna, the prophets mentioned on that Sunday's lectionary reading in Luke Chapter 2. He mentioned especially his father and a very special high school teacher who were great mentors in his life. He also spoke about different experiences in his past corporate life that culminated to where he is today—his career as a Creative Art Director in Advertising to his career in New York City as a Footwear Designer for Ralph Lauren. He said he never thought that he would go from "Soles to Souls." From designing shoes to nurturing and developing the souls of mankind, he is grateful for his interesting spiritual journey.

Father Joshua describes it as "an example of how God can work in our lives if we say "Yes." When he visited St. Michael's before his ordination to the priesthood, he felt that St. Michael's parish had heart and potential. A heart and potential to transform the world

Why the City Council Should Replace DEI with DOI

If the Declaration of Independence is true, that we are free, equal and have God given inalienable rights, then when and if this promise is ever fully realized it will allow us to live in peace and harmony with our neighbors. On the other hand, DEI is based on the belief that Systemic Racism and White Privilege is imbedded in all aspects of our culture and Society. Because of this, marginalized groups defined by color and gender remain in a state of unending oppression. There is no redemption at the end of the rainbow here. Both our Founders and Martin Luther King Jr. believed that America was created for a moral people that have the potential of one day, living up to the promise of our Creed.

A Sense of Home: Creating Homes for Aged-Out Foster Youth in South Bay

By Alex Reilly

A truck sits parked on the street, waiting to fill Symone's first home. While Symone was in foster care, she lived in 32 different residences over the span of fifteen years. It has been a long time since she has laid in a bed that is her own. Because Symone is a former foster youth, she is eligible to receive a home creation from A Sense of Home.

Before the move-in process begins, the volunteers, ASOH staff and alumni gather around Symone and her young family in the empty living room. The volunteers, an intergenerational mish mosh, introduce themselves to Symone and each explains a bit about why they are there. The circle is filled with positivity and excitement. Symone sheds a tear as she expresses gratitude for all the people who have donated items and come to support her, her partner, Michael, and their three-month-old daughter, Nya, today.

Then, Symone is ushered outside to await the reveal. The rest of the group carries home goods one by one from the truck into the narrow two-bedroom townhouse. The furniture and décor have all been donated by community members or companies that partner with ASOH, like Ruggable, Lamps Plus, SimpleHuman, Casper, Parachute, Living Spaces, and more. Back at the warehouse in Hawthorne, this home layout was painstakingly organized for the most efficient move-in possible. There is color coordinated tape on the walls to indicate where everything goes, as the home must be completed in under

Welcome to "Our town"

When the splintered sign of honor,
so old and worn and grey;
Appears as slick and neon,
Sunset colors blaze the way
For new heroes, waves and warriors,
Poets young and old
No matter who
They don't find it
Doing what they're told.

So take a walk

Through dreams
or awaken to a dare
With aims up high
Or sullen —
Cold breezes in your hair
No sign above
will guide you
Just sky and salty air
Finding joy in
"Do or Die"
Has made our
"There, there"

Eagles Celebrate their Seniors During Final Week of the Season

Story and Photos by Gregg McMullin

The final week of the regular season for winter sports teams has come and gone. For the El Segundo Eagles, it was an opportunity to improve their playoff hopes, with the CIF Southern Section announcing the brackets last Saturday. It was also the time to honor its seniors and their families. The boys' soccer team lost a close one, while the girls made their last game a memorable one. Both basketball teams lost on the day they honored their seniors. And the playoff brackets were announced.

Girls Soccer Makes Final Game Memorable.

The Eagles had plenty to play for and plenty of incentive when they faced the North Torrance Saxons. A win would certainly guarantee an invite to the CIF playoffs. As if the team needed more incentive it was the Senior Appreciation game where the program's seniors were honored prior to the game. In a special ceremony, the soccer seniors and their families were introduced. Those honored included Victoria Rodriguez, Chloe Thiel, Nyla Cho, Shelby Jackson, Ava Gutierrez, Sam Stahl, Bella Recalde, Kelly Kramer, Lila Cheung, Lauren Nguyen, Sophia Brown, Ava Adlam and Sammi Herrera.

The Eagles have a stalwart defense that has allowed just seven goals in eight Pioneer League games. Goalie Victoria Rodriguez and defenders Nyla Cho, Shelby Jackson, and Ava Adlam are a big reason for the team's challenging defense. The defense demonstrated its skills against a frustrated Saxon squad that was hit with several red cards. The Eagles turned back several Saxon opportunities and held them scoreless in a 2-0 win.

The Eagles controlled the game on both ends and continuously pressured North Torrance's defense. In the first half, Lauren Nguyen had two shots on goal blocked, and Nyla Cho took a pass and had a clear look altered by a Saxon defender. The Eagles had three corner kicks come close but turned away. The Eagles found the goal open in the thirty-first minute when a shot carried off several Saxons. Nguyen was at the right spot and hammered it by Saxon goalie Jordyn Salas for a 1-0 lead El Segundo lead. Three minutes later, Nguyen took a touch pass and guided it into the net for a 2-0 advantage.

The Eagles held on to their stern defensive effort in the second half and shut out the Saxons. The offense kept the pressure on North's goalie with plenty of looks, but none of the attempts found the net.

The Eagles finished second in the Pioneer League and were placed in the CIF Southern Section Division 1 playoffs, which began yesterday. The Eagles traveled to play Sunset League runners-up Newport Harbor, the third-seeded Sailors. The winner advances to Friday's second-round game.

Eagles Bow to Palos Verdes

The Eagles faced the Palos Verdes Sea Kings in the last game of the Bay League schedule. With the two teams vying for second place, much was at stake. The game was a defensive battle, and it went to overtime. The Sea Kings broke through with a goal in the ninth minute, a goal by Michael Murillo on an assist by Austin Ambris. It was an epic defensive battle between two talented teams.

Though the Eagles finished fourth in arguably one of the most challenging leagues in the CIF Southern Section, they were granted an at-large bid for the playoffs. They will host today's first-round CIF Southern Section Division 1 game with Freeway League co-champion Brea Olinda at 5 p.m. The winner advances to the second-round game to face the winner of Redondo/Arroyo Valley on Saturday.

Lady Hoopsters Garner Second Seed for Playoffs

The Eagles honored their three seniors before taking the court for their last Pioneer League game of the season with the South Torrance Spartans. Symai Jones, Alexia Mazzotta, and Kayla Tran were praised for their commitment and hard work in helping to make the basketball program successful. The Eagles fell to South Torrance, but it was still a memorable game for Symai and Alexia, who each scored in a game they'll remember.

The Eagles finished the regular season 17-11 and were awarded the second seed for the CIF Southern Section Division 3AA playoffs. The Eagles host South Hills (Covina) tonight at 7 p.m. The Huskies are the second-place team from the Hacienda League. The winner advances to Saturday's second-round game to face the winner of the Immaculate Heart/Huntington Beach game.

Eagles Honor Their Seniors Before Last Game

The El Segundo boys' basketball program said goodbye to its four seniors before their final game of the season. In front of a packed gym, seniors Darreson Naruse, Liam Endo, RJ Puffer, and Vitor Dorn were honored along with their families. The four talented seniors were thanked for their commitment, dedication, and willingness to strive to make the program stronger.

The season finale didn't go the Eagles' way. The Eagles fell to the South Torrance Spartans 43-39. After an impressive first half, in which the Eagles limited the Spartans to just two successful field goals, the Spartans made some adjustments. The Eagles' defensive effort was at its best, and the pressure they implemented stymied the Spartans time after time.

To start the second half, when the Eagles were struggling to connect on offense, South Torrance took advantage and closed the scoring gap. Late in the third quarter, the Spartans' Elijah Wiggins connected on a three-pointer that helped erase a nine-point first-half lead that El Segundo held. Logan Brooks sank a three-pointer, giving the Eagles a 35-31 advantage midway through the fourth quarter. From there, the Spartans outscored the Eagles 12-4 down the stretch and held on for the win.

Darreson Naruse, who led the Eagles in scoring this season, finished the game with 16 points, while Vitor Dorn had seven. Liam Endo was impressive on defense and had three steals, while RJ Puffer was a force inside.

Water Polo Advances in Playoffs

The girls' water polo team advanced to the second round of the CIF-SS Division 2

The Women by Kristin Hannah

By Kristen Morell, Librarian

This week I will be reviewing one of my recent favorite historical fiction novels and New York Times Best Seller, The Women by Kristin Hannah. In this novel, set in a transformative era in the United States, the 1960s; we learn about the women of the Vietnam War, the women that many believed were not part of the war at all. The protagonist, Frances "Frankie" McGrath is only twenty years old a nursing student inspired to enlist as a nurse when she hears a quote, "women can be heroes too." Frankie is of a privileged background, hailing from Coronado Island and was sheltered by her conservative parents. Frankie was raised to believe her life goal should be to become a wife and stay-at-home mother. Frankie always took pride in being a good girl and doing the right thing. It is the year 1965 and Frankie's brother ships out to serve in the Vietnam War. Shortly after, Frankie impulsively joins the Army Nurse Corps, inspired by her brother's decision. Once Frankie arrives in Vietnam, she is overwhelmed by just about everything. Almost immediately, Frankie experiences her first "MASCAL" or mass casualty incident and feels almost instant regret about her decision to enlist. Frankie meets her two roommates and fellow nurses, Barb and Ethel and they soon become her new family away from home. The telling of Frankie's time in Vietnam makes this story hard to put down but the story of her return home was just as fascinating. Frankie, as well as many other Vietnam Veterans had a very troubling experience upon her return to the United States. Kristin Hannah is so descriptive and it makes you feel as if you are in the story and experiencing everything the characters went through. Going Viral Review: Would You Sell Your Soul For Fame?

By Morgan Rojas for Cinemacy

The desire for virality might seem like a modern-day ambition, but Going Viral proves that the search for stardom is timeless. Directed by Vincent Vittorio (American Made Movie) and written & produced by Todd Pringle and Kevin Greene (You're Killing Me), this independent feature blends the best of 80's nostalgia with current technological advances to create a truly original genre film. This 80s sci-fi adventure is full of great music, fun special effects, and a stellar cast. And wow! It is fun to see Corey Feldman back on the big screen again!

Going Viral tells the story of a teenage boy's desperate attempt to achieve fame and the consequences he faces as a result. Beckett O'Connell (Shea Pritchard) is an awkward 15-year-old obsessed with skateboarding and becoming an influencer on V-TV, a new video-sharing platform. Similar to our generation's TikTok, V-TV rewards its users with likes and online fame. For months, Beckett tries and fails to get attention from the V-TV community. However, things change when he discovers Viral University, a surreal online portal. This is also where he meets Mr. Viral (Louis Kyper), a mysterious AI who promises success by encouraging fame-hungry teens to engage in practical jokes.

Following Mr. Viral's advice, Beckett starts by partaking in innocent yet annoying pranks. Just as expected, his popularity begins to rise. The girls at school start to pay him attention, and he begins to be recognized by people around town. Beckett's harmless practical jokes eventually turn dangerous when he goes too far by rigging an opponent's skateboard, causing serious injuries. It's no longer fun and games as Beckett realizes that Mr. Viral is more threatening than he was led to believe. With so much at stake, Beckett must team up with a reclusive gamer named Samurai (Corey Feldman) to take on the AI once and for all.

Filmmaker Vincent Vittorio excels in creating an aesthetically abundant 80s haven within the world of Going Viral. From the costumes to the props and the crowd-pleasing synched songs, Going Viral is a fun and family-friendly watch. In his role as the aging yet infamous gamer, Corey Feldman steals the show with his comedic timing and undeniable charisma. Leading the film, Shea Pritchard does an equally impressive job channeling his inner Marty McFly while remaining a unique central character.

Imagine Ferris Bueller had a Gen Z desire for influencer fame, and you'll have a good idea of what to expect in Going Viral. Full of heart and sideways ponytails, this vibrant indie film tackles the timeless challenges of self-discovery in the digital age. • two hours.

After the rugs are laid, the furniture settled, the cabinets filled with appliances, the beds made and art hung on the walls, Symone is brought in to see her completed home for the first time. She sits down on her couch with her daughter in her arms, looks around, and says, "I'm going to sleep so well tonight."

A Sense of Home began in 2015 as a random act of kindness by friends Georgie Smith, ASOH's CEO and founder, and Melissa Goddard, who put together one home. The organization was born and has exploded over the past several years, now taking on 3-4 home creations per week, with over 950 total and counting.

The key focus of ASOH's operation is preventing homelessness and building a community of former foster youths who can connect and grow together. Many young adults exiting foster care do not have any external help to fall back on and this makes transitioning into solo adult life especially difficult. A Sense of Home works tirelessly to create healthy, happy and safe living environments for those in need.

Once a foster youth ages out of their assistance programs, they are eligible to apply for a home creation with A Sense of Home. There is no cutoff age for recipients-the only stipulations are that the person served must be a former foster youth, moving into their first home, and working or in school.

If someone does not yet have a job or schooling, not to worry. ASOH has many other programs that help community members find employment, receive scholarships, and even source leases in new buildings all over Los Angeles through the Foster Youth to Independence (FYI) voucher program.

As well, ASOH provides resources to find accessible food, clothing, legal assistance, mental health services, mentoring, LGBTQ+ support, and more. The organization has also begun working with the LA County Department of Children and Family Services to spread awareness to foster youths so that they can apply for home creations before they are aged out.

Many ASOH alums participated in Symone's home creation, including Elvira, who is now a full-time staff member with ASOH and in the middle of her master's degree in social work. Elvira loves what she does, as a former foster youth herself, she has been in the same shoes as the people that ASOH serves.

Outside the home creation sits Elvira and Candice, who had her home created in 2019. Before receiving her home creation, Candice spent a year living in her car. She remembers the first night she spent in her brand-new home after the volunteers left. She woke up startled, not immediately knowing where she was. "It was surreal," she said, "I'll never forget that feeling."

Despite Candice currently being on dialysis and waiting to receive a kidney, she still showed up to the home creation. She has been to over 100 home creations in the past four years. "They're my family," Candice says, speaking of ASOH. "All of us who've been in foster care have some type of trauma or something that happened to us." Candice speaks of the bonds she has made with the people she has met through the organization. It is evident the joy she feels while surrounded by found family doing what she loves best.

Elvira and Candice chat about ASOH's most recent gala fundraiser, where the foundation raised over $1 million. They laugh together, passing Elvira's phone back and forth to see photos of friends in gowns enjoying the event. The women are close; Candice gushes about Elvira's 18-month-old daughter's big brown eyes before Elvira has a chance to show a photo.

Alicia is also present for the home creation, having received one herself only a few months ago. She is excited to give back the kindness that was given to her. She is currently in school for phlebotomy and has a two-year-old daughter. Around 87% of the former foster youth served are women and 54% of those women have children of their own.

The final step of the home creation process is to give Symone all the heart-shaped nametags and notes of well wishes from the volunteers. This 'Love Jar' is meant to uplift Symone and her family on any given day and remind her of the people who came to support.

There are many ways to get involved with A Sense of Home- through furniture and home goods donations, monetary gifts, warehouse volunteering, and joining the fun of home creations. The ASOH is small, consisting of only ten people, and is always looking for volunteers to experience the joy of creating a safe and loving home for others.

Volunteers carry in boxes of necessities to a new home.

PETSPETS Pets PETSPETS

Purrrfect Companions

Honey and Pumpkin

Since 1997, Kitten Rescue has rescued cats and kittens from a variety of situations. Young or old, tabby or Siamese, we care for orphaned and abandoned kittens that need to be bottle-fed around the clock, moms with litters, cats that need socialization, and sick or injured animals. When they are finally ready for their forever home, we will help match you with the purr-fect one. When you adopt, you save a life... and in turn enrich your own.

The Los Angeles Marathon is Kitten Rescue's largest fundraiser each year, and the funds raised are essential in allowing us to save homeless cats and kittens all year long. Kitten Rescue is proud to announce that we are an Official Charity for the 2025 Los Angeles Marathon presented by ASICS. Please join us March 16th in one of three marathon events and run or walk to help homeless animals! You can read more details on our website www.kittenrecue.org

Pumpkin and her sister Honey were part of a litter that was set to be euthanized at the shelter. Her foster mom called just in time to pick them up. They are very sweet and love to cuddle with their foster mom on the couch. Sometimes they need their space, but mainly Pumpkin and her sister will take turns cuddling with you. This duo gets along well with dogs and people and enjoy getting pets and kisses. A favorite game is the laser pointer. Honey and Pumpkin can be adopted together as a bonded pair.

A classic tortie gal with giant hypnotic eyes, Chutney is an exciting recipe of sweet, spicy. She is CLINGY and loyal. When offered a lift, Chutney loves to ride shoulders and nuzzle into your neck and cheek. Still young, Chutney loves playtime but is not hyper or wild. She would love some relaxation in her life and a home where she can be loved and accepted. Chutney needs a home that loves her for who she is and wants a little weirdo in their lives. She can be defensive when scared and reactive when around other cats, other pets, and children. If she has routine and can trust, she has no issues. Once that trust is there, she LOVES her humans. Chutney is looking for an adult only home as the only pet.

Dot is a sweet and affectionate kitten. She loves playing with her sibling, Yakko and her older foster siblings. One of her favorite hobbies is playing with brown crinkle paper. She also loves to take naps in sunbeams with her siblings and friends. Dot will lay next to you on the couch and will nuzzle your hand for attention. She has a lot of energy and would need a home that has a friend to play with, preferably with her sibling. She is still learning things, so she will need to be in a home that has experience and patience with young kittens. If you are looking for a furry friend who will bring joy, love, and endless purrs into your life, Dot is the kitten for you.

Meet Bubbles, a truly unique and wonderful cat. Born in 2016 with severe cerebellar hypoplasia (CH), Bubbles requires special feeding and potty routines, and needs an experienced CH owner who can be home all day to provide the necessary care. Despite her condition, which affects her motor skills, balance, and coordination, Bubbles is independent in her own way and enjoys life just like her able-bodied feline friends. Bubbles is used to living with other able-bodied cats and would fit well into a home with such a companion. While she requires special cat furniture to help her navigate her environment, she brings an incredible amount of joy and sweetness to those around her. She also loves stroller rides and will fill your days with affection and delight. If you have the experience and dedication to care for a special needs cat, Bubbles is ready to bring her unique charm and love into your home.

These cats and kittens are available for adoption through Kitten Rescue, one of the largest cat rescue groups in Southern California. All our kitties are spayed/neutered, microchipped, tested for FeLV and FIV, dewormed and current on their vaccinations. The donations and support we receive from individuals like you, who share our love and commitment to helping cats and kittens in Los Angeles, are the sole reason we are able to do what we do. We are grateful for your financial help. By making even a small donation today, you can touch the lives of the many deserving, wonderful animals in our care. There are many ways you can donate and help, and every dollar means so much. Kitten Rescue is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit. Your tax-deductible donations for the rescue and care of our cats and kittens can be made through our website or by sending a check payable to Kitten Rescue, 3519 Casitas Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90039.

Saving one animal won't change the world, but the world will surely change for that animal. •
