Gregg “Mac” McMullin: A Legend

At last Friday's Spring Rally, Athletic Director Steve Shevlin and the high school's athletes and student body surprised Gregg "Mac" McMullin and pulled out all the stops to honor and thank him for his years of service at the schools and sports programs. A throne fit for a king was placed centerfield, and Gregg took a seat and was honored by all. Bright blue T-shirts with "We ♥ Mac, the Eagle Eye in the Sky" were made and worn by coaches, athletes, and students. Student/Athletes lined up to shake hands, make a few heartfelt comments and share some memories. A special thanks goes to Athletic Director Steve Shevlin, Superintendent Dr. Melissa Moore, and photographer Ralf Stier, who made this possible. Photos by Ralf Stier. See photos on pages 10-11.

The Community Thanks Gregg “Mac” McMullin

Mac....thank you for your years of El Segundo sports coverage. I'm sorry I couldn't help bring Kevin a championship in '09, but that year started a pretty cool relationship between you and I. You have always put the athletes ahead of yourself and done a good job making us look better than we are in the papers as well haha. I want to personally thank you for your dedication to the city and sports. El Segundo sports has benefitted because of YOU. So, thank you Mac.

– Lars Nootbaar

Mac, Thank you for your years of passion and commitment to the El Segundo sports community. My family and I are so thankful for the love and support you've shown all of us from the moment we first met. It's rare to find someone in life that cares as much as you do about not only our sports careers, but our lives outside of sports as well. The Nootbaars take pride in El Segundo being a baseball/sports town, and having you continuously writing about it in the Herald is a big part of that. Thank you for all of the memories on and off the field. You're a legend in my book.

– Nigel Nootbaar #20

A huge shoutout to the most fervent supporter of Eagle Athletics around! Your dedication to the students of this community is unparalleled. LOVE from the ESHS Tennis Program and it's adoring coaches past and present - Kirby Onaga, Bonnie Maye, Paul Rayburn and the whole ESHS Tennis Team. From Captain Caleb Tsai and our senior leader Hirohito Yamashita on behalf of our team, thanks for all that you've done.

– Bonnie Maye

Mac has dedicated his work-life to shining a light on ESHS student-athletes. By sharing their hard work, growth and accomplishments across the El Segundo community, Mac has captured memories on paper for them to share with their loved ones and carry throughout their lives. We are so grateful for his commitment to the community and for honoring our future leaders with his talents. Cheers, Mac!

– Coach Mac, g lax

Dear Mac, I just wanted to let you know how much my family appreciates your coverage of Eagle Athletics throughout the years. I have enjoyed being covered by your game snapshots as a coach, a fan, and now a parent. And, I can honestly say without your expert camera skills, I would have zero photos of my children as they do the thing they love. My parents have saved every single article where their grandchild is mentioned, and proudly cut them out to hand deliver to me. Your spectacular capture of my son in mid-shot is splendidly on display on our living room wall, reminding me of my favorite thing to do...watch my kids compete. Thank you for allowing me to watch my kids play while you do all the work.

– Rainy and Greg Smith, Georgi and Tim Chrisman

My name is Juliette Oudot- LaGue I'm an athlete on El Segundo high school varsity's lacrosse team. I along with other freshmen volunteered to say a couple of words about Mr. Gregg and his dedication to our schools' events. I feel honored to be a part of a team that was mentioned in the herald. I truly appreciate seeing my school represented and talked about in our local paper.

– Juliette Oudot-laGue

Mac is an incredible person and has had such an impact on so many athletes lives for years on end. He has always been an amazing coach, and a mentor to me and so many others coming through El Segundo High. It was always special to have him constantly be around the football team, but as my baseball coach for 4 years. Whether you wanted to talk about the game or life in general Mac always had an ear to listen and was always willing to lend a helping hand. Cheers Mac, to an incredible career thus far!

– Michael Bundy

In a community so rich with history, we often think of trailblazing heroes from the past that paved the roads for future superstars to write their names in the history books. John Stevenson, George Brett, Scott McGregor, Willie Parsons, Alberto Concepcion, Matt Engle, Lars Nootbaar, and so many more. But what the history book fails to recognize is not the names that are written in the book, but the name of the man who wrote it for us.

Along the sidelines, across the four corners of every field, court, and rink stands a one-legged man who was there for every touchdown, homerun, and iconic hometown moment. With a pencil and a paper this man brought stories of small-town kids and turned them into real life legends.

It's easy to forget sometimes what makes our community so special. Some might say it's the local history. Some might say it's the beach. But as I grow older and reflect back on my experience growing up in a small town like El Segundo, I realize that it's much more than that. The foundation of our community is built upon the investment that each of us put back into it without asking for anything in return.

Gregg McMullin, our forever scribe, has been a champion for all of us whether we realize it or not. Thank you, Mac for more than just your words. Thank you for your time, your attention, and your investment into each one of us without asking for anything. You're exactly what makes our community special and whether you know it or not - you're with all of us - through and through.

Letters

Thank You from a Very Appreciative Person

Over the years I have had the honor and pleasure to watch, meet and write about student athletes from their youth teams to throughout their high school careers. So, when I was asked to cover an event at the high school I gladly accepted. I attended the Spring Pep rally expecting to cover the event and take photos for the El Segundo Herald. I was surprised and humbled when I was introduced to the entire student-body by Athletic Director, Steve Shevlin. He presented me with a plaque for my support and coverage, for the El Segundo Herald, of El Segundo high school athletics. It was a George Bailey, 'It's a Wonderful Life' moment for me and it brought me to an emotional state. The adoring signs displayed and specialty shirts the students wore, honoring me, brought me to tears. You truly have no idea how this moment in time has meant to me. I want to extend my sincere and heartfelt appreciation and thank Athletic Director Steve Shevlin, Heidi Maerker (Herald Publications), Ralf Stier (Ralf's Photography), Ashley Richmond (Student Activities Director) Dr. Melissa Moore (Superintendent) and the teachers and school administrators of El Segundo high school. I want to thank all the students but want to specifically thank Sammie Kleiger, Ethan Ralls, Katy Duran, Dylan Immel, Liam Endo, Anthony Temesvary, Brady Engelhardt and Natalie Long for your kind words. You have humbled a very grateful person thank you again,

— Gregg McMullin

Beware: El Segundo Residents and Business Community

Please be aware of any phone call or walk-up solicitations involving the El Segundo High School Athletic Program and some promotion benefiting an El Segundo High School athletic program. These organizations are not affiliated in any way with El Segundo High School and are using deceitful and unscrupulous methods to obtain your donations. We encourage everyone to investigate through inquiry of what is the motive for these solicitations. If you are not convinced of the integrity of the promotion, please do not give anything until you contact us. Eagles Dominate Inside while Struggling Outside

Story and Photos by Gregg McMullin

The El Segundo high school's boys' volleyball team has all but dominated their Pioneer League opponents, while the boy's golf team is showing signs of success. The baseball and softball teams have hit a snag and are struggling to go into Spring Break.

Volleyball Team in Control of Pioneer League

The Eagles are one of the top four teams ranked in the CIF Southern Section Division 3, and for good reason. With their sweep of league foe Da Vinci, they improved to 8-0 in the Pioneer League and 14-2 overall. Their two losses were to Mira Costa, ranked fifth nationally, and Huntington Beach, widely considered the top-ranked team in the nation.

Facing Da Vinci, the top-ranked Division 5 team, proved to be no problem for the Eagles. In their first meeting, El Segundo dropped the first game 25-23 when Da Vinci went on a run to close it out. The Eagles proceeded to take down the Wolves 25-10, 25-23 and 25-10 in the next three games to win the match.

In the team's final match before Spring Break, the Eagles swept Da Vinci 25-19, 25-19, and 25-18. It was a spirited match between two teams with power hitters and enough defense to extend rallies.

El Segundo got a 15-10 lead in the opening game before the Eagles went on a run. Nolan Kelley and Dylan Pilkvist nailed points, and Daniel Escobar's consecutive ace serves gave their team a 19-13 comfortable lead. Ryan Pilkvist's thunderous hit set up the Eagle's first game win.

The Eagles and Wolves played a tight game to start in the second game, but Da Vinci never took the lead. The Eagles went on a run outscoring the Wolves, and took a 16-12 lead. A block by Nolan Kelley and consecutive aces by Jackson Breneman gave El Segundo a 22-17 advantage. The game ended when Kelly made a block of Da Vinci's Cody Evans' hit.

The third game was another close one when Ryan Pilkvist's kill and Nolan Kelly's ace gave the Eagles a 6-2 lead. The Wolves made it close and came within 18-15 before Dylan Pilkvist's kill, and an extended rally ending with an unforced error gave the Eagles a 20-15 lead. Gio Biondo's hit set up the game-winner, and the Eagles swept Da Vinci.

The Eagles return to action Wednesday at home when they host West Torrance at 3:30 p.m.

Golf Team Showing their Potential

The El Segundo HS Boys Golf Team is off and moving this spring with a group of determined young athletes wanting to put their stamp on golf at El Segundo. With the winter weather causing some havoc on sports, golf has been forced to postpone matches and move practice rounds. This hasn't stopped the team, as they have now entered league play and are pushing for a spot in the CIF playoffs.

The Eagles started the season with a challenging non-league schedule against some very tough local schools. This included matches against St. Monica at Chester Washington GC, the Torrance Tartars at Los Verdes GC, St. Francis at Brookside GC, and Culver City at Westchester GC. The young Eagles battled and won two of their four non-league matches

The Spring Pep Rally ended with the faculty squaring off against the students in a fun exhibition basketball game.

A Lovely Girl: The Tragedy of Olga Duncan and the Trial of One of California's Most Notorious Killers by Deborah Holt Larkin

By Roz Templin, Library Assistant
El Segundo Public Library

True crime is a popular genre for readers and Deborah Holt Larkin's book A Lovely Girl: The Tragedy of Olga Duncan and the Trial of One of California's Most Notorious Killers, is a unique addition to that category.

Ms. Larkin's father Robert Holt was a reporter and columnist for the Ventura County Star-Free Press. While he was covering the Olga Duncan case, "Debby" (the author) became extremely interested in it. At first she was terrified that she herself could go missing (or worse) or that her family could suffer from random violence noted in the local newspapers.

Lovely Girl: The Tragedy of Olga Duncan and the Trial of One of California's Most Notorious Killers by Deborah Holt Larkin

The format of the book alternates from her 10-year-old child's eye viewpoint and the actual facts of an investigation into a missing nurse in Santa Barbara. Olga Duncan was a well-liked woman who worked as a surgical nurse at Santa Barbara's Cottage Hospital. She was last seen by friends on a Monday night in November of 1958. She was married to a local attorney, Frank Duncan. She was also almost eight months pregnant.

Debby saw the headline "Missing Nurse Sought By Police, Friends" in the Santa Barbara News Press and quickly discovered that she could not stop thinking about it. Despite admonitions by her father to stop worrying about it, Debby soon began to obsessively follow the case.

As the author leads the reader through the police probe into Olga's disappearance, it becomes obvious that there were some far-fetched circumstances that turned up. It is learned that Olga and her husband were not living together ... her husband Frank seems to routinely dismiss the odd reason for their estrangement: his mother's possessive feelings toward her son. Frank frequently mentions that his mother (Elizabeth Ann Duncan) was "terrified of being alone, and she's afraid of losing (him.)" There are tales from Olga's friends that her mother-in-law was harassing her. Then, accusations of extortion, intimidation, fraud, kidnapping ... and that's just the beginning!

Soon, evidence of violence is exposed when Olga's tragic remains are discovered. Perpetrators are sought, arrested and a trial follows when the killers finally confess. But who was behind it all? And so, a story stranger than fiction unfolds.

This tale does not follow the usual "true crime memoir" formula (if there is one), but juxtaposes Ms. Larkin's memories of her family, friends and neighborhood almost seamlessly with the very readable account of the "remarkable Duncan case." Her recollections as her younger self Debby seem in-the-moment, rather than nearly 65 years in the past. Life in the 1950s was mixed with visions of promise and hope, even though the Cold War and fear of Communism loomed. American society was becoming somewhat affluent with the steady growth of the suburbs that were populated with a larger middle class. The family unit was still important - parents wanted their children to have better lives than they had had during the World War II era. The goings-on in the Holt family's household, at times quite comical and at others, a bit poignant, reflects that time of "modern" life. Bob Holt is quite a character and it is easy to see why he made such a huge impression on Debby and her younger sister Betsy as they were growing up. There's a particular anecdote featuring their father that was completely side-splitting. I don't want to spoil it, so just know that it involved a Christmas episode of Dagnet on TV, an exhausted Bob Holt passed out on the couch and a surprise visit from local minister Reverend Ralston. Hilarity did ensue.

Ryuichi Sakamoto: Coda is a Sensational Portrait of a Legendary Musical Poet

By Morgan Rojas for Cinemacy

One of the hardest adjustments I had to make during the 2020 lockdown was not being able to visit my favorite bar. No, not for the drinks, but for the hi-fi audio equipment and their vast collection of classic and rare records from all over the world. This Japanese-style "listening bar" is where I first discovered Ryuichi Sakamoto, and for that, I am ever grateful.

Thankfully, MUBI cured my quarantine-induced hi-fi blues with the 2017 release of Ryuichi Sakamoto: Coda, courtesy MUBI.

Ryuichi Sakamoto: Coda, a documentary about the daily life and creative process of one of the industry's most innovative and revelatory artists. Sadly, the legendary composer passed away on March 28, 2023 at 71 years old.

Ryuichi Sakamoto is a man who dedicated his entire life to creating art. The documentary wonderfully sweeps through his musical career- highlighting his days as a member of the techno-pop band Yellow Magic Orchestra to his work on Alejandro Iñárritu's The Revenant. His accomplishments are many, and those familiar with his work consider him to be one of the great artists of our time. Despite the accolades, awards, and notoriety, his humbleness remains untouched.

It's fascinating to watch how passionately Sakamoto respects sound and the concept of its use. How it's created, how it's used, and, semi-morbidly, how it will reflect on him when he's gone. Sakamoto lived with throat cancer, but he didn't let that get in the way of consistently creating. Using field recordings of running water, forest air, and other natural sounds, he creates a purity that amazingly complements the delicateness of his piano keys. The result is a sound unlike any other, hauntingly beautiful and dynamically all-encompassing.

Thanks to MUBI, this special edition release, directed by Stephen Nomura Schible, also includes the full concert documentary Ryuichi Sakamoto: async At The Park Avenue Armory. And although my Sonos is no match compared to my favorite "listening bar," Sakamoto's music transcends standard commercial speakers, making me feel like I'm back in my favorite place once again.

Distributed by MUBI, Ryuichi Sakamoto: Coda is available to stream on MUBI, for rent on Apple TV+ and purchase via Kino Lorber. •

Thanks Gregg McMullin

As you know Mac has been an amazing announcer for decades across multiple sports supporting El Segundo. On behalf of the basketball program, we would just like to thank you for your dedication and loyalty to our school and sport.

– Liam Endo

Thank you, Mac for devoting your own time to announcing our basketball games. I appreciate you elevating the experience, making high school sports so much more memorable.

– Elijah Coles

Thank you, Gregg for all you have done for El Segundo's sports, we greatly appreciated all your hard work and dedication to highlighting our high school sports. For our Girls Lacrosse team this year we came in with a new set of coaches and you taking the time to recognize us really meant a lot to the team. Thank you for everything and I wish you a happy retirement.

– Lia Giroux

Coach Mac, I just want to thank you so much for everything you have done for me in athletics. You made my baseball experience so much fun. I learned a lot from you and you always had the guys laughing and ready to play. Your dedication to sports and writing in the Herald, has brought so much joy to so many athletes in El Segundo.

– Tyler Murray

Mac, your coverage of all levels makes competing in our town more exciting and fun for both players and families. I'm sure we'll continue to see you supporting us at our games, but thanks again for all you've done for us.

– Grady Lubs

Mac's passion for El Segundo athletics is second to none and I had the pleasure of having him as a coach when I played baseball for the high school but our relationship traces back earlier than that as he covered the Babe Ruth All Star teams that I was a part of. When I was 15, our team made it to the Babe Ruth World Series in Van Buren, Arkansas and Mac made the travels so he could make sure our team was covered in the Herald. It meant a lot to us on the team to know that our friends and family back home could follow us on our journey but it showed us just how dedicated and passionate Mac is towards El Segundo youth sports. If someone is playing, you know Mac will be covering it. Thank you for all you've done throughout the years Mac!

– Connor Underwood

Since I began working at ESHS, Gregg McMullin has been a welcoming presence in the press box. His friendly demeanor, classic voice over the loudspeaker, and sincere praise of our programs is irreplaceable. Not only is he fully invested in high school sports, attending banquets, tournaments, and exhibition games but you can find him covering the youth sports in our community and highlighting incredibly special moments for our ball players. I have kept the clippings from the Herald featuring images of my kid pitching or sliding home in the Little League championship; memories that are now in scrapbooks, on walls, and that my family will have forever, thanks to Mac. He shows up at the drop of a hat, sends me incredible photos when asked, and makes our small town really come alive on the page. Mac, you are legendary. Thank you for your services to this community.

– Ashley Richmond, ESHS,
Director of Activities

Dear Mac, SURPRISE! On behalf of ASB, and the entire El Segundo Community we want to thank Mac for his support and dedication to our school throughout the years. He's made a tremendous impact on the entire Eagle athletic community. Ask any athlete and they can recall a time where he's shown his support taking pictures at our games. From Little League, to now high school sports, he continues to have a tremendous presence in his community. Every kid running to their porch to pick up The Herald, and dropped off that morning, was delighted to see the word snack had written about them and their team. Whether he was interviewing a coach, parent, player, Mac was tackling the story from every angle, and getting the scoop. His delivery and the evident heart in Mac's words made people feel special. His dedication to highlighting others and making them shine, makes him shine. No words can describe our gratitude and appreciation for the years of service he's given for the past couple decades. His legendary presence will always be remembered in El Segundo.

El Segundo High Says Goodbye As Steve Newell Moves On

By Gregg McMullin

As the sun set on yet another school year and the students and faculty said their goodbyes to each other for the summer, the El Segundo High School said best wishes in retirement to long time teacher/coach, Steve Newell.

Newell was honored with a retirement party hosted by John and Gail Stevenson where co-workers (past and present) and some of Steve's close friends gathered to pay homage to the man they called "Sharky".

Steve and Barbara will be moving to Redmond, Washington to be closer to their son Brett and his family. The Newell's daughter, Julie and her family are moving from Georgia football Championship in 1962. After graduation he attended Long Beach State where he played wide receiver while earning his degree. After graduating from Long Beach State he played for the San Diego Chargers, chasing down passes for nearly three years before an injury cut short his NFL career. That's when Newell decided to chase his other passion—teaching.

Bob Kingston, the vice-principal who recommended Newell for hiring in 1969, said he had recommended him because of two very important traits he saw. "When Steve taught his math classes he took it very seriously and when he was coaching he was very dedicated," Kingston said.

Kingston remembers how well disciplined Newell's students were and how well respected he was in front of the class. Kingston believes that is why he was so successful in the classroom and on the football field as a coach. Kingston said, "Steve spent equal time with his students and the athletes and was just as interested in both and played no favoritism."

Kingston thought that Newell was a "great guy, good coach and someone [he] admired." Kingston went on to say that Newell and his wife, Barbara were great parents and that you could see why their children, Brett and Julie turned out so well.

Another of Newell's co-workers, Larry Cummings, who gets a broad smile when he talks about Newell, said that he will miss his long-time neighbor from across the street. "Steve was a just a great neighbor and even when he was having real hard time with his back he had real concerns for my family. (Pause) He just put others before himself."

Cummings said that Newell was as conscientious a person as you'll ever find and a very dedicated teacher in the classroom. "He was really prepared whether it was in the classroom or on the football field," he said.

Craig Cousins, who coached with Newell for a number of years said, "Steve was a real communicator and the players all respected him." He added, "He was fair with his assistants and he let us coach."

Cousins remembers coaching with Newell on the frosh/soph and varsity football teams and described him as someone he enjoyed being around. Cousins said that they worked well together on the gridiron because of their chemistry with the players and the way they complimented each other's coaching philosophies and that may have had a part in Newell's success as a coach.

Indeed Newell's coaching methods in the late

the Eagles to their best season in the school's history. That was the year the Eagles lost to Burroughs of Burbank on a rain-soaked field in the CIF semi-finals.

Steve Shevlin, the current Athletic Director and head football coach at the high school, said he owes a lot to Newell. "Steve recruited me to come to El Segundo because he thought I might be a good candidate to take over the football program one day."

Shevlin said that Newell was so meticulous and organized about his football practices that he adopted that way to run his practices. Shevlin went on to say that Newell saw to that the transition was smooth and that's because of his leadership qualities. He also said that he will miss the camaraderie and the mentoring that Newell provided not only him but to other teachers as well.

Perhaps John Stevenson summed up Steve Newell the best when he said "Steve was a go-to guy at the high school and someone you could count on." Stevenson remembers that Newell was quick to step up in the early 1990s when he had a heart condition and couldn't make the annual summer baseball trip to Montana. He asked Steve if he would help accompany the team on the trip and help coach the team and Newell quickly said yes. Even though Newell's background was football and not baseball, he knew how to coach and the players had a great respect for him and he made the trips very smooth.

What many of Newell's friends fondly remember about him was his way of finding the perfect meal. For example in Miles City, Montana, Newell was a fixture in one of the local steakhouses on Main Street because they had the biggest and best steaks he'd ever had. Cousins added, "He loved a hot, piping breakfast on the road."

Steve and Barbara Newell called El Segundo home for over 30 years and made some lifelong friends here. And though they're moving away to a new home, a thousand miles away, they will always be close to our hearts. •

Heidi Maerker and "Mac" share a moment during the celebration.

Gregg calls me "Boss," and I call him "Jimmy" (as in Jimmy Olsen, Superman's best friend, and sidekick). Gregg, we have worked together for over 19 years. You are the super man – dependable, steadfast, honest, positive, giving, the list goes on and on. You are always there for me and all of us at the Herald; my asks were never too big or too small - you never say "no." Ready to help with whatever is needed. You are the community's gem - Coach, Father, Announcer, and Volunteer. For many years you worked for the Herald for free, donating your time to give to the sports community. You gave your knowledge of the games, the history of El Segundo sports, and your love of the game(s). Covering many different sports teams is very difficult and time-consuming, but you do it every week with a smile. You taught yourself photography and take shots equal to any professionals I've worked with. You are a true forever friend, and I love you with all my heart.

– Heidi Maerker, El Segundo Herald

Thank you, Gregg for taking the time to celebrate our Eagle athletes. The numerous articles and photos throughout the years show your commitment to our community. Without your support, we wouldn't have such a beautifully documented history of our school and community sports programs. Your dedication truly shines in your words and images. We are so grateful for all your hard work.

– Mike Gonzales

Although a number of us athletes have not met Mac, we appreciate all of his hard work year after year. Without him the detailed coverage that we see in the El Segundo Herald would not exist. His commitment to sharing the countless memories that have been made in the sports we play is something that all of us look forward to. Not only us but the community as a whole enjoys reading on what Mac produces as it never disappoints. We just want Mac to know that everyone involved in the community appreciates the job that he does, and no one else could ever do it any better.

Dear Gregg, Thank you for always being so happy and nice to everyone at the Herald office. Every time you walked in the door, you always made sure to say Hi to everyone & ask how we all were doing. Also, thanks for helping my son Chase learn the ins and outs of football announcing. He really looks up to you! You're the best!

– Debbie Waite

Dear Gregg, Thank you for making me always feel welcome and helping mentor me with football announcing when I was at the High School. I really learned a lot from you and enjoyed my time spent with you in the announcing booth. You even came to see my drama play and cheered me on and I really appreciate your friendship and support!

– Chase Waite

What can I say about Gregg? He's such a kind person and always has a smile on his face! No matter the occasion, whenever I see Gregg, it makes me happy, and I know it's going to be a good day in El Segundo. Thank you for being a part of this amazing community Gregg!! You are awesome.

– Lily Craig, Chevron Product Company

There are few people in this world who can truly be called great, but one man who undoubtedly fits that description is former Manhattan Beach police officer and current sports writer, Gregg McMullin. Throughout his life, Gregg has been a shining example of what it means to give back to one's community in so many ways. As a police officer, his dedication to his work along with his compassion and professionalism were appreciated by all who knew him. After retiring, he decided to use his passion for sports and began writing for a newspaper. Through his writing, he has become a beloved figure among local sports fans, known for his insightful commentary and his ability to capture the excitement of every game.

– Bill Ruane,
RE/MAX Estate Properties

Gregg McMullin has been an incredible friend, supporter and vital member of El Segundo for so many years. His love for sports and for the community shines through in all he does. He is always happy to help the Chamber and is so appreciated! The joy he captures each year at the Holiday Parade brings smiles to faces as people see photos of their little ones marching down Main Street. Our Main Street Car Show enthusiasts love seeing the images of their cars taken through Gregg's lenses. He has been such a wonderful friend to the Chamber and to me personally as well as my husband, Dave. I'm so grateful for Gregg and for that friendship.

– Marsha Hansen, *CEO/President
El Segundo Chamber of Commerce*

Gregg, you're a legend, selflessly shooting and covering sports for our youngsters in town, with passion and commitment. Thank you, Gregg for creating so many limelight opportunities for our kids.

– Mayor Drew Boyles

Gregg McMullin has been a tireless champion for the El Segundo High School athletic program and athletes. Gregg is a constant, the person ESHS can count on to always show up to report on all things sports at ESHS. ESUSD is extremely fortunate to have Gregg covering high school sports. His commitment to the athletes and ESHS has been unwavering to ensure the greater El Segundo Community remains connected. Gregg's reporting has truly made a difference in the lives of countless students and families. Thank you, Gregg, for showcasing our students, you are part of the ESUSD family and will always be an Eagle at heart!

– Melissa Moore, Superintendent

For students, the high school experience is embodied in what we would call the five A's. Three of those A's are what Mac supports the school in making sure our students fully enjoy and experience. Those are Activities, Athletics, and, most importantly, Attitude. Mac has been out there at practically every single student activity's event and athletic games. Not only is Mac taking photos, but he is interacting with students, giving them those words or encouragement and support. All of this creates a positive attitude amongst all of the Eagles that Mac impacts. He is essentially a defacto member of our faculty. Thank you, Mac!!! We appreciate you!!!

– Ali Rabiei, Assistant Principal, ESHS

Thank you, Gregg, for your innumerable contributions to our community and for making a difference in the lives of so many.

– Scott Houston, *President,
West Basin Water District*

Gregg, McMullen is one of the finest human beings you will ever meet. He is amazing and when it comes to helping others and being of service to this community, I can't imagine anybody more deserving of our praise and thanks. He loves El Segundo, especially the sports community and has been a stalwart in keeping this town informed of games, athletes and their future success, scores and results, and human-interest stories that we all love to read. I think if I had to use one word to describe Gregg, it would be "unselfish". He goes out of his way to build up other people for their abilities and athletic endeavors with never a thought about the work and effort he puts in himself. He volunteers his time constantly as an assistant coach, scorekeeper, announcer, and top-notch writer without any remuneration or expectations of praise. He does it out of love and that's why his work is so exceptional. The players parents and coaches appreciate him so much and people like Gregg McMullen are so rare. I value Gregg as a friend and thank God for a man who cares so much about others. Thank you, Gregg.

– Sandra Sabosky

Gregg has been a beacon serving athletics in our community at the high school and youth levels. The Herald contributions Mac provides make our coaches, athletes and players immortal. Having your name, accomplishments and sometimes picture in the local newspaper gives so much joy to those involved in our community sports and high school athletics. Mac's time, effort and bearing the expense to make these articles happen for the community are the greatest joy for teams and their families. As we move into the digital age and paper and ink disappear it is with great gratitude that I express a thankfulness to Mac as he continues to serve our community and our programs in the community and high school. Thank you for all you do Gregg.

– Michael Wagner

Thank you, Mac for all your years of service to the students at El Segundo High School. You have had such a big influence on the success of so many programs. As a High School Baseball Coach at El Segundo, a football stats man for the Football program, an announcer for the Baseball, Basketball and Football programs, you exemplify the traditions and values El Segundo represents. I want to wish you continued success in your coverage of EL Segundo Athletics, and say THANK You for all you do.

Seafood Bombs

Provided by Campbells Soup Corp.

What are Seafood Bombs? They're warm little stuffed biscuits filled with crab, cheese, bacon and the OLD BAY® seasoned clam chowder that brings it all together. A super-hearty appetizer that you can hold in one hand while watching the game, these Seafood Bombs are brushed with melted butter and more OLD BAY® so the outside tastes as good as the inside! The filling tastes a bit like baked crab dip but better, creamy and cheesy and a little bit spicy, and they take a little more than 40 minutes to make, start to finish! Make these Seafood Bombs for your next party, then watch them disappear!

Ingredients

- 1 can (18.8 ounces) Campbell's® Chunky® OLD BAY® Seasoned Clam Chowder
- 1 can (about 6 ounces) lump crabmeat, drained
- 4 ounces cream cheese, softened
- 1/2 cup shredded Cheddar cheese
- 5 slices bacon, cooked and crumbled
- 1/3 cup sliced green onion
- 2 cans (16.3 ounces each) jumbo-size biscuit dough (16 biscuits)
- 1/2 cup (1 stick) butter, melted
- 1 1/2 tablespoons OLD BAY® SEAFOOD SEASONING

Send us a photo and recipe of your favorite dish.

We'd love to share it with the community. Send to: web@heraldpublications.com

Directions

- Step 1: Stir the soup, crabmeat, cream cheese, Cheddar cheese, bacon and onion in a large bowl.
- Step 2: Separate the biscuit dough into 16 pieces. Split each piece in half, making 32 (can pull apart with your hands). Roll each into a 4-inch circle. Place about 1 tablespoon soup mixture in the center of each circle. Pull the sides up over the filling to form a ball and press to seal.
- Step 3: Spray the air fryer basket with cooking spray. Mix the butter and OLD BAY®. Set the air fryer to 350°F. (no need to preheat). Air-fry in batches, seam-side down, (8 bombs at a time) for 7 minutes per batch or until golden brown. Remove from the air-fryer and brush with the butter mixture (then keep warm in a 300°F. oven). Serve warm.

Tips

- Don't have an air fryer?: You can also bake the bombs in the oven! Heat the oven to 375°F. and arrange the bombs, seam-side down, on 2 parchment paper-lined baking sheets. Bake for 15 minutes or until golden brown. Brush with the butter mixture while still hot.

to gain confidence going into league play.

With league play underway, the Eagles started week one against South Torrance, the league champion last season. Due to heavy rain, only one match was played, with the Eagles losing 244-215 at weather-pelted Los Verdes GC. Week 2 was a match against the preseason favorite to win the league title Redondo HS. Again, only one match was played due to rain and as a result, Redondo defeated the Eagles 221-205 at Alondra GC.

The Eagles faced West Torrance at Alondra GC and rebounded from their first two matches and came away victorious with a 232-235 victory. Jack Harris led the team with a four over 40 and guided the Eagles to the close victory and their first league win of the season. The Eagles battled West Torrance again but this time at Westchester GC. The Eagles won 204-191 and were led by Jack Harris, who shot an even-par 32. Joey Schobel had one of his best rounds of the season and finished second with a four over 36.

Head coach David March is very excited about the prospects of the first-year program and the remaining matches this season. With nine of the ten players being freshmen or sophomores, the team's future is looking bright.

Baseball Team Struggling to Score Drops Three in a Row

The Eagles went into the Spring Break having lost three consecutive games, including back-to-back shutouts. It is believed to be the first time in program history, dating back to 1960, the Eagles had been shut out in consecutive games.

The Eagles faced the Torrance Tartars in a key Pioneer League matchup and fell 5-4. They took a 3-0 lead in the first inning on the strength of key RBIs by Dylan Immel's sacrifice fly, and back-to-back RBI doubles by Hudson Comer and Anthony Temesvary. In the third inning, El Segundo took a 4-1 lead on Temesvary's RBI single. In the fourth inning, Torrance closed the deficit by scoring two runs to make it 4-3. In the bottom of the seventh inning and with the Eagles on top 4-3, Torrance put together a rally. They combined a single followed by an RBI double, an intentional walk, and a Sienna Mayer played flawless defense against North Torrance. single to load the bases. The game ended on a 10-pitch walk-off base-on-balls, and the Eagles lost a heartbreaker.

In the second game against Torrance, the Tartars scored three runs on a wild pitch, an RBI single, and an RBI double. The Eagles could not mount a comeback and fell 3-0.

In the Elks Tournament first-round game against La Salle, the Eagles had no answer for the Lancer's pitcher Val Gomez. The Eagles were held to just three hits and were shutout 9-0. They continued their tournament schedule with games against Beckman (Irvine) and Palos Verdes earlier this week. The Eagles return home next Wednesday at 3:15 p.m. when they host West Torrance.

Softball Team Wins One and Loses One

The Eagles split their Pioneer League games defeating South Torrance 2-0 but dropping one to North Torrance 8-4. It's been an up-and-down year for a team full of youthful experience that has shown they can compete with anyone.

They showed their mettle against perennial powerhouse South Torrance. Sammie Kleiger and Charlie Pages had RBI singles, and Hailey Wantz went the distance in the circle, limiting the Spartans to just three hits.

It was a different outcome when the Eagles faced North Torrance and fell 8-4. After the Saxons took a first-inning 1-0 lead, the Eagles put together a four-run inning in their half of the first inning. Allie Stevenson tripled to centerfield and scored on Sammie Kleiger's sacrifice fly. Sienna Mayer drew a walk and later scored on an error. Miranda Sullivan reached on an error and scored on Charlie Pages RBI single. Pages would eventually come around and score on a wild pitch giving the Eagles a 4-1 lead. Unfortunately, it would be the only inning they put together a run-scoring rally.

The Saxons would chip away at the lead, scoring three runs in the third inning to tie the game. They would add three runs in the fourth inning and, for good measure, another run in the seventh inning to defeat the Eagles 8-4.

The Eagles host St Joseph (Santa Maria) on Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. and Da Vinci at 3:15 p.m. •

Maiya Anderson struck out the first three of four Saxons she faced.

Sammie Kleiger drove in the Eagle's first run against North Torrance.
