El Segundo Council Rubbish Discussion Keeps City 'Business-Friendly'

By Liz Spear

In just under two hours, on a night in which the voters of the United States would decide their next President and El Segundo residents would elect three residents to the council, the El Segundo City Council tackled a recommendation from city staff to allow only four trash haulers to be granted commercial solid waste non-exclusive franchise agreements, turning away at least eight other trash haulers currently doing business in the city, preventing them from working in El Segundo.

In other news, on two 5-0 votes, the city council granted the "existence of an emergency" that authorized the "Award of a contract without competitive bidding for the permanent repair of the City of El Segundo Wiseburn Aquatics Center pool heaters. Installation of the new pool heating system will close the Aquatics Center pools in July and August of 2025, according to Public Works Director Elias Sassoon.

At least five people weighed in on the commercial trash hauling proposal during Public Comment, two expressed their appreciation of the proposal and the selection process. Those two voices were from American Reclamation and Waste Management. The other three voiced their opposition to the proposal. One speaker, resident Shari Metcalf, advocated for the small "Mom & Pops" trash haulers, saying she had run her own commercial trash hauling company, A and A Waste and Roll-Off Services, Inc., with her husband and a partner from 2000 to 2016 and then sold it to another small company, Patriot Services. She said that when customers deal with smaller companies, they tend to receive better service and not feel like a number and less important. They don't get repeatedly transferred when calling by phone, which is annoying. She said the city was selecting larger commercial trash haulers in its four recommended choices: Waste Management, Athens, EDCO, and American Reclamation. She told the council that she had called one of the four for a quote for service on a commercial property she owns in El Segundo and that the quote was three times more expensive than what she currently pays.

"Why would you want to remove a company that provides great service to its customers and at a better cost?" asked Metcalf, referring to Patriot Services, noting that under city staff's recommendations, Patriot would no longer be allowed to operate in El Segundo. She also cited the city's statement on one of its websites that El Segundo "is a great place to grow your business or your family..." when denying small businesses the opportunity to do business in the city.

The two brothers who own Patriot Services, John and Barton Keuroghlian, were also present Tuesday night, with John addressing the council, saying they service more than 25 percent of the commercial and multi-family customers in El Segundo. He noted that they have been serving the city for 14 years and that their growth has been organic due to their "commitment to personalized service and our dedication to exceeding customer expectations." He also said, "We are consistently reinvesting in our business and the community by acquiring state-of-the-art equipment, including metal containers, carts, and a brand-new collection vehicle that cost us over $400,000." He noted that the company has the "ability and resources to assist the city to meet compliance thresholds set by the State of California."

Mori Bellicoff, co-owner and president of Haul Away Rubbish, said his company's business has always been about recycling. His father started the company in November of 1949, and second, third, and fourth generations are now working at the company. He noted that his father had achieved 90 percent diversion with Rold Gold Pretzels around 1960 before "diversion was even known" and that the company began when the word for "recycling" was "salvaging." He then said, "What bothers me is I turned in an RFP, and your staff and your consultant did not even offer us an interview, which absolutely makes no sense to me." He said he thinks city staff does not understand the trash industry. "This is, again, a little disturbing that your staff would not even consider a 75-year-old company and our experience."

After the council handled other items on the agenda, the city's Environmental Programs Manager, Daniel Pankau, gave a presentation on the selection process, noting that the city council has jurisdiction over trash hauling in the city and that currently, companies apply for a permit and have "minimal vehicle standards" to meet and "no substantive qualifications" to acquire a permit. He noted that with the passage of SB 1383, the state's most significant waste reduction mandate in 30 years, which also has specific requirements for jurisdictions and haulers, the city's current process needed to be updated to avoid the city's exposure to significant fines. Mayor Drew Boyes recused himself from the matter because he works in the industry.

Pankau told the council that currently, the city has permitted nine companies to perform commercial trash services in the city and that the multi-step process of notifying trash haulers of the city's intent to transition to an exclusive non-franchise model started in 2019 with notice for a Request for Qualifications sent to 12 trash haulers in November 2023. He noted that currently, the city has nine permitted trash vendors. Of the 12 who responded to the RFC, all were deemed qualified and provided with a Request For Proposal in April 2024. Staff then and a consultant reviewed the RFPs and set interviews with the top nine that took

Lawn Sign Taken from My Yard

Sometime during the night of November 2nd a Harris-Waltz lawn sign was stolen from my yard. I wonder how lacking in dignity a person must be, how little self-respect an individual must have, to sneak into a neighborhood yard in the black of night to steal a sign he doesn't like. Did he feel even a modicum of shame? Unlikely, because like the man he intended to honor by this petty act, he must be of weak and selfish character and of a fundamentally dishonest nature. I believe he felt proud of himself as he slunk off in the night with my sign.

The Raft by S.A. Boden

By Kim Harris, El Segundo Middle School Library Assistant
El Segundo Middle School Library

The Raft by S.A. Boden is a plane survival story about 15-year-old Robie, who is in a plane wreck while going home to Midway Island from Hawaii. Robie decides to go visit her aunt in Hawaii because she misses her and is a little bored on Midway. When Robie gets to Hawaii, her aunt had to leave on a business trip and leaves Robie with her neighbor. The neighbor, however, calls Robie's aunt to tell her she can't check on Robie after the aunt leaves. Robie experiences freedom for the first time and goes out to explore Hawaii. While she is out, Robie is almost attacked by a homeless man and then someone tries to break into the apartment. This leads Robie to make the decision to want to go back home.

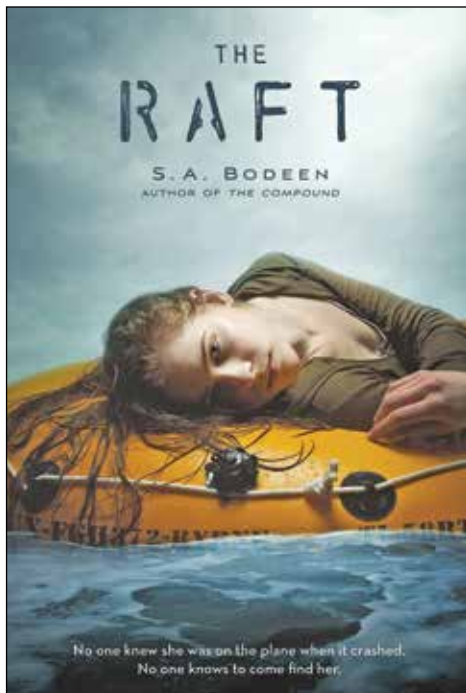

Robie gets on the next cargo flight to Midway at the last minute and instead of having her usual pilot, there's a new co-pilot named Max, along with the pilot Larry. Everything goes according to plan until the plane engine suddenly cuts out and the plane starts to go down. Larry is uncommunicative and Max shouts at her to put on a life vest and throws the life raft into the water. Suddenly Robie is in the water struggling for her life. Max manages to rescue her and pulls her onto the raft, but Larry is nowhere in sight. Robie is absolutely terrified. She's in the middle of the ocean on a raft surrounded by sharks and doesn't know how she's going to make it. Robie is terrified of sharks, especially when they bump the raft and attack other fish that surround her. Robie and Max have no water, and their only food is a bag of Skittles. Unfortunately for Robie, no one knows that she is missing because when she tried to call her parents, the phone line was down. What is going to happen to Robie and Max?

They are adrift in the raft for 3 days, and Max is unconscious the majority of the time. Hunger leads Robie to learn how to fish, and she eats raw fish pretending that it's sashimi. Just when Robie fears that all is lost, she finds an island Northwest of the Hawaiian Islands. It is uninhabited, but she is able to build a fire and collect a little water thanks to materials that drifted onshore. Robie learns to survive on the island and is full of hope that she and Max will be rescued. The last part of the book has a big twist. What's going on with Max? Does Robie survive to see her parents again? Read to find out what happens!

I liked that the book was full of suspense and twists. It is hard to read a book with only one setting and pretext, but Boden manages it well. If you like YA literature with psychological suspense, this is the book for you!

The Raft and other books are available to check out at the Middle School Library and Public Library. Visit www.elsegundolibrary.org to request with your library card or stop by the library Monday through Thursday 9am-9pm or Friday and Saturday 10am-5pm. • place in June 2024. "We feel that the top four recommended haulers offer the greatest value to customers along with assurance to the applicable laws and regulations," said Pankau.

SB1383 requires the state to reduce organic waste (food waste, green waste, paper products, etc.) disposal by 75 percent by 2025. It also requires that 20 percent of currently disposed edible food be recovered for human consumption by 2025.

"We do have to respect our RPF process," said council member Lance Giroux, after asking about the process and likening it to a job vetting interview process in which you may start with 50 applicants, calling the cutting process "normal." "That being said, I think we also have to look at the fact that, actually Republic (one of the four vendors city staff was recommending) didn't show up tonight, right? There was nobody from Republic. My understanding is Patriot has about 25 percent, Republic about 23 percent and Athens has about 18 percent of the current business. Is that accurate? he asked Sassoon and Pankau, who stood at the presentation podium. Before they could answer completely, he said, "Just more or less, right. Okay, so that's two-thirds of the business. Am

I also understanding Athens is the only one who made the top four. So my concern here is that we are gifting 50 percent of the business to four people who haven't done business in the town before or have done a little bit of business in town before..." He then added, "I believe we do have a responsibility here to not force businesses that have been established with someone here for a long time to just say no, I can't choose that anymore."

Council member Ryan Baldino said it was "great" with the city moving from a permit process to the non-exclusive franchise model for protection but that he did have a problem with the city trying to pick "winners and losers" and saying who is qualified to do business in town and who isn't. "We like to tout ourselves as a business-friendly city, and I want to see as much competition as we can." He called for letting "the market decide" and to open the non-exclusive franchise model to be offered to all 12 applicants.

City Council voted 4-0 to allow the 12 permitted companies in the city to be granted the solid waste non-exclusive franchise agreement. The proposed term was changed from seven years to two years. •

Eagles Have a Future in Playoffs

Story and Photos by Gregg McMullin

This time of year means post season implications for some teams while others have begun their playoff schedule. It is an exciting time of the season where minor miscues could mean a league title, or it could mean their playoff run has ended. The El Segundo football team played for a league title but came up short; they will go to the playoffs as a second-place finisher. The water polo team opened up their CIF Southern Section Division 1 playoff with a spectacular win.

Eagles Get Their Wings Clipped Against West Torrance

It's been a long time since the Eagles won a league football championship. The last time they won a share of a league title was in 2016. They won an Ocean League title outright in 2014. So, when the Eagles faced the West Torrance Warriors on the road in the final Ocean League contest it meant the Ocean League title was at stake. Both teams entered the game 4-0 in Ocean League play. There was enough incentive for each team, but the Warriors had the weight of their last league title, of any measure since 2014, on their minds.

El Segundo didn't play a game in week nine due to a forfeit by Morningside. So, the lack of game time action may have contributed to their frustrating night and why West Torrance prevailed in their 38-21 win over the Eagles.

On a cool, blistery evening, the Eagle's offense was silenced by the West Torrance defense. The Eagles were missing a key component of their offense when Cole Castillo was held out due to a freak injury in practice. Castillo is El Segundo's leading rusher averaging 5.9 yards per carry and 13 touchdowns on the season.

In the first half, the Eagle's high-powered offense was held in check by a swarming West Torrance defense. In the first quarter El Segundo had no answer and had a minus eight yards of total offense. The second quarter wouldn't be much better; El Segundo had seven offensive plays. West Torrance dominated the time of possession, ran 51 total plays in the first half, and took a 24-0 lead into halftime.

The Eagle's offensive line had their hands full with the quickness of the Warriors defensive unit most of the game. Eagle quarterback Ryan Wiacek was constantly hurried and was sacked three times. The bright side to the offense was Isaiah Rodriguez and Merrick Boyles, who filled in at running back.

Trailing 31-0 in the third quarter the El Segundo running game got into gear. Rodriguez picked up 15 yards on one play. Boyles' rushing attempt deep in Warriors territory set up an eight-yard rushing touchdown by Rodriguez. The Warriors responded with a nine-play drive that extended into the fourth quarter and, scored a six-yard touchdown and extended their lead to 38-7.

The Eagles would not go quietly, and their perseverance was evident. After Sean Mossman returned the ensuing kickoff 47 yards to the Warrior's 45-yard line, the Eagles needed five plays to score. Rodriguez picked up 17 yards on the first play, and then Boyles rushed four consecutive times, including one into the end zone from the four-yard line, and made it 38-14.

The Warriors coughed up their next possession thanks to Eagle defensive end Hunter Sprick, who forced and recovered the fumble in West Torrance territory. With time winding down, Wiacek found Ethan Ayler open for a 12-yard touchdown pass. The Warriors took their turn and attempted to run out the clock. They were stopped on fourth and short with under a minute to play. The Eagles' courageous play didn't go unnoticed in that final 58 seconds. After an incomplete pass, Axel Thiess caught a 15-yard pass, setting up one last exciting play.

On the final play of the game, Wiacek showed his scrambling skills. After taking the snap, the sophomore quarterback eluded two Warrior defenders with a juke move to escape their grasp. He retreated 15 yards, faked out another defender, and got away from two more West players. Wiacek got free from the pressure momentarily when a West defender had him in his sights. Wiacek got his pass off and was drilled afterward. The pass fell incomplete, but no flag was called for roughing the passer. It was a fitting ending to a game of frustrations.

The loss means the Eagles will enter the CIF Southern Section Division 10 playoffs as the second-place team. The CIF came out with their pairings and were not kind to the Eagles. El Segundo (6-4) faces the Shadow Hills Knights (6-4) Friday night at 7 p.m. on the road; Shadow Hills is located in Indio.

Ham and Asparagus Strata

Provided by Campbells Soup Corp.

Strata is like a savory bread pudding, and makes us think of brunch and holidays and family time. This Ham & Asparagus Strata, while perfect for brunch, is also perfect for dinner, since it's ready to bake much faster than the usual strata. There's no prep needed- the stuffing, cheese, asparagus and ham go into the baking dish, then the soup mixture is poured over the top. The magic happens during baking, when the ingredients meld into a rich and savory bake that looks and tastes amazing. Ham and Asparagus Strata will be a family favorite, for the holidays or anytime.

Ingredients

- 4 cups Pepperidge Farm® Country Style Stuffing
- 2 cups shredded Swiss cheese(about 8 ounces)
- 1 1/2 cups cooked cut asparagus(about a 9-ounce package if using frozen)
- 1 1/2 cups cubed cooked ham
- 1 can (10 1/2 ounces) Campbell's® Condensed Cream of Asparagus Soup or Cream of Mushroom Soup
- 2 cups milk
- 5 egg
- 1 tablespoon Dijon-style mustard

Directions

- Step 1: Heat the oven to 350°F. While the oven is heating, stir the stuffing, cheese, asparagus and ham in a greased 13x9x2-inch baking dish.
- Step 2: Beat the soup, milk, eggs and mustard in a medium bowl with a fork or whisk. Pour over the stuffing mixture. Stir and press the stuffing mixture into the milk mixture to coat (the stuffing mixture will soak up the liquid as it bakes).
- Step 3: Bake for 45 minutes or until a knife inserted in the center comes out clean. Let stand for 5 minutes before serving.

Tips

For 1 1/2 cups cooked cut asparagus use 3/4pound fresh asparagus, trimmed and cut into 1-inch pieces or 1 package (about 10 ounces) frozen asparagus spears, thawed, drained and cut into 1-inch pieces.

Send us a photo and recipe of your favorite dish. We'd love to share it with the community. Send to: web@heraldpublications.com

TWICE AS NICE; PAINT A TWO TONE ROOM

(BPT) - If your walls could talk, what would the paint color say about you? You're bold? Calm? Sophisticated? Painting a wall multiple colors is an affordable, yet impactful, way to uniquely express your personality. A two-toned wall is an interior design technique that utilizes two paint colors on the same wall. Follow these steps to achieve professional-level results.

* Prepare to paint: To get ready for painting, gather all necessary supplies, like a drop cloth, primer, a paintbrush, a roller and painter's tape. Remove as much furniture as possible, covering any large items with a tarp. Using a sponge, wipe the walls with warm soapy water, then repair any cracks or holes with putty and sand the surface smooth. If you're painting over a dark color, apply a primer as a base coat to ensure an even foundation.

* Measure and mark: To create a dynamic color-blocking effect on your walls, start by determining where the colors will meet. Color blocking can be executed horizontally or vertically, or with additional creative options like diagonals or geometric patterns. A horizontal scheme splits the wall, making the room feel longer, while a vertical approach enhances the sense of height and openness, especially in open floor plans.

* Apply painter's tape: Regardless of your chosen approach, using painter's tape, such as FrogTape® brand painter's tape, is essential for achieving clean lines. It's treated with exclusive PaintBlock® Technology to seal tape edges and prevent paint bleed - critical in this type of project. Apply the tape along the marked line to create sharp edges where each color begins and ends. Use a firm plastic tool to eliminate gaps and seal edges. And, be sure to tape adjacent surfaces, including baseboards, ceilings and walls.

* Paint the light color: To achieve full coverage, apply the light base color one coat at a time, starting by "cutting in" along the tape with a paintbrush and then using a roller to fill in the rest of the section. Allow each coat to dry before applying the next, using as many coats as needed for the desired look.

* Paint the dark color: After completing the light color, repeat the painting process. Keep adding coats until you achieve the finished product you have in mind.

* Remove the painter's tape: For best results, remove the tape while the paint is still wet, pulling slowly at a 45-degree angle.

Two-tone walls can transform a space to reflect your style with just a simple change. For more tutorials, tips and tricks and creative inspiration, visit FrogTape.com. *

Eagles Defeat La Habra in First Round

The El Segundo Eagles won a CIF championship a season ago. That success meant being promoted from Division 3 to Division 1 in 2024. In the first round of the CIF Southern Section Division 1 playoffs the Eagles demonstrated they were worthy of playing in the CIF's top Division with their 17-10 victory over the La Habra Highlanders.

The Highlanders' lofty won-loss 23-3 overall record was impressive, and their 391 goals scored were eye-popping, but none of those statistics fazed the Eagles. It showed early on in the first period when Austin Miller, from the center spot, scored with a vicious goal. Tristan Foster followed with a goal two possessions later, and Sutton Fisk made it 3-0 with three minutes left in the opening quarter. Vinny Baldino made it 4-1 with a 2-meter goal to end the Eagle's opening-period scoring.

The Eagles continued their dominance offensively and defensively in the second quarter. They used their counterattack to their benefit and stretched their lead to 7-1 with a goal by Carter Williamson. With 1:28 remaining in the half, the Eagles worked their magic to score again when Williamson scored over the middle to make 9-3.

The second half was a little more competitive with La Habra switching up their offensive approach. To open the third quarter, the Highlanders scored consecutive goals to narrow the gap to 9-5. The Eagles put pressure on the Highlanders with a different defensive strategy and the play of Cooper Albano, Vinny Baldino and Carter Williamson on the perimeter and Austin Miller inside. The Eagles scored three goals in the span of two minutes to take a comfortable 12-5 lead.

The fourth quarter saw plenty of action, with Spenser Carty, La Habra's leading scorer, scoring three goals. El Segundo's Austin Miller, Sutton Fisk, Carter Williamson, and Cooper Albano each scored fourth-quarter goals, and the Eagles won easily 17-10.

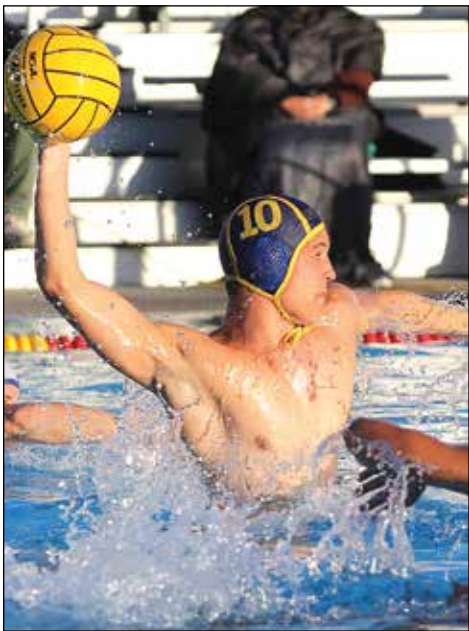

The win was impressive, and the Eagles showed off their strengths and just how deep the team is with talent. The 17 goals scored were the most scored by any Vinny Baldino's defense was a big factor in the Eagle's win over La Habra.

Division 1 playoff team in the first round. They were tested in the quarter-finals, which was played yesterday at Westlake. The Eagles were facing the top-seeded Warriors, and both teams looked evenly matched on paper. The winner advances to the semifinals next Tuesday. Should the Eagles win yesterday, they would host the next round if San Juan Hills defeats Yucaipa. Otherwise, El Segundo would make the long trip to Yucaipa for the semi-final round, with a 5 p.m. starting time. •

Luke Griffiths gets some help from Cooper Albano against La Habra in the opening round of the CIF-SS Division 1 playoffs.

Stefan Lazarevic goes high to save a shot attempt in the first round of the CIF-SS Division 1 playoffs.

Purrrfect Companions

Kitten Rescue rescues cats and kittens from a variety of situations. Most live in our volunteers' homes and those volunteers foster them until we can find permanent homes for them. Young or old, tabby or Siamese, we care for orphaned and abandoned kittens that need to be bottle-fed around the clock, moms with litters, cats that need socialization, and sick or injured animals. When they are finally ready for their forever home, we will help match you with the purr-fect one. Now is the purr-fect time to adopt.... Imagine a cozy cat on your lap in the upcoming cool fall nights and cold winter days ! When you adopt, you save a life... and in turn enrich your own.

Coco will melt you with his sweet and calm demeanor. Coco and his brother, Shadow, are the most trusting and calm kittens you will meet. They take after their mother, who despite being a feral cat, learned to trust, approach and provide joy and comfort to the patients and staff at the hospital campus where she lives (she has now been spayed). Coco will purr and sink into your lap as if you were a pillow. You will love caressing his fur, which feels like silk. Coco enjoys playing with kitty toys and exploring, although he is quick to allow his brother, Shadow, to take the lead and play first if he desires. Coco loves and is loved by the other cats in their foster home and will easily adapt to any kitty who lives in your home. He also lives with a Lhasa Poo dog, who he has accepted and learned to trust. Undoubtedly, Coco will surely bring years of joy to any family that adopts him.

Canyon is a sweet, grey shorthair looking for his forever home. He loves head scratches and belly rubs, during which he shows off the stylish light grey tiger stripes on his stomach.

He can be a bit quiet and shy at first when meeting new people but warms up quickly. After that, he loves attention and is not afraid to seek it out. He frequently comes up to his foster mom to ask for pets and loves to spend time hanging out with her, whether that means sitting next to her on her desk or on her lap while she is working or taking naps with her on the couch. Canyon has lots of energy and is extremely playful - the most playful of his litter - and loves to chase strings and his litter mates. He will even come running to you if you call out "Kittens!" from across the house. He would love to be adopted with his sister, Orchid, who he loves to cuddle and play with.

Louffy is a charming orange and white kitten with an easygoing vibe and a playful spirit. He is the kind of kitten who goes with the flow, making him adaptable and fun to have around. Louffy's playful energy brings joy to everyone he meets, and he is always ready for a good game or some snuggle time. He would love to be adopted with one of his siblings or another young, playful kitty who can match his cheerful personality. If you are looking for a sweet, fun-loving companion to brighten your home, Louffy is ready to meet you!

These cats and kittens are available for adoption through Kitten Rescue, one of the largest cat rescue groups in Southern California. All our kitties are spayed/neutered, microchipped, tested for FeLV and FIV, dewormed and current on their vaccinations. For additional information to see these or our other kittens and cats and for a list of our weekend adoption events, please check our website www.kittenrescue.org.

Saving one animal won't change the world, but the world will surely change for that animal. •
