Proposal to Change Council Meetings to Daytime Sparks Debate

By Cristian Vasquez

In a filled-to-capacity Council chamber on Tuesday night, Inglewood residents voiced their opinion on an ordinance that would change the regular City Council meetings from evening sessions into daytime meetings.

The City Manager's report asked the Council to discuss an ordinance amending Chapter 2, Article 8 of the Inglewood Municipal Code to establish the regular Council meetings on the first and third Tuesday of the month to 1 p.m. rather than the current time of 6 p.m.

"If it changes, approved staff would endeavor to schedule items that have significant impact on senior citizens during the first and the third City Council meetings of the month," Inglewood City Manager Artie Fields said. "Establishing a policy of having the two meetings a month might result in minor cost savings due to reduced need to operate in our City system during the evenings. It may also result in a reduction in overtime costs."

The ordinance, which was introduced and set for further reading, was in response to a petition delivered to the City Clerk's Office on December 17, 2012, with 131 signatures asking for the Council to have two daytime meetings a month. City Clerk Yvonne Horton, who indicated that she verified each signature on the petition as being valid, presented the petition during the last week of December. However, many of the residents present at Tuesday's meeting were strongly opposed to the change.

"To change a meeting, to inconvenience the residents of this city is ungodly and when you stood and took the oath of office, you said so help you, God. If you break that promise, the thing that you have to worry about is not us--it is somebody that sits higher than us that is looking down on this and they will correct you whether you like it or don't," Inglewood resident Dr. Leroy Matthews, Jr. said. "Dissolving City Council positions, not paving the roads and putting up trees is all minor to me. To take away the people's voice, which they tried to do in the last election with the suppression of votes, and what did it get them? Nothing--and that is what it will get you guys if you don't adhere to what is right."

A few residents who spoke during public comment supported the change, citing that it would allow more students to participate and interact in the City's political process. In addition, it was noted that many seniors are not only inconvenienced by evening meetings but that some simply cannot travel at night.

"I understand the turmoil on both sides of this issue, but we should take a step back and let's think about the opportunities that we are presenting to people who actually don't have the opportunity to come out at eight o'clock at night to sit through a meeting," Inglewood resident Derek Steele said. "I speak in support of the seniors' petition that the City have two meetings a month during the day. Providing this opportunity will reflect the best practices for a city treating everybody with respect and giving everybody an opportunity to have a voice."

Members of the Council were also divided on the issue. District No. 2 Councilwoman Judy Dunlap considers the ordinance to be restrictive of democratic process and not in the best interest of local residents. "It's about cutting off debate, cutting off information, which is why they want to have daytime meetings--they're hoping none of you are able to come to speak to items," Dunlap said. "By the way, most of the people that attend our nighttime meetings are seniors and when something impacts seniors, they are here. People who work and have families can't come in the daytime at all, so that completely eliminates them. This is really all about stifling public debate. It is about stifling public input. It is about keeping people away from this Council. We have experimented with former Mayor Dorn, who tried daytime meetings, and it was the same thing. They used the excuse of seniors and it didn't work."

In April 2003, the Council changed its meeting times from 1:30 p.m. to the current time of 6 p.m. District No. 4 Councilman Ralph L. Franklin, who began serving on the Council in September 2003, has not had experience with daytime meetings as a public official but expressed his concerns for seniors who aren't able to attend meetings in the evening.

"I want to make sure that there is access to the process," Franklin said. "In this case, our seniors, many of them in my district say, 'Councilman, I would come to the meetings at night. So when I heard that the seniors are echoing the sentiments of several seniors in my district, it makes sense to have access to the process.'"

It is not uncommon for localities to have daytime city council meetings. Yet Inglewood has already tried scheduling such meetings and it was changed.

"I do recall that there were daytime meetings and that it was quite full at that time as well. So that doesn't really change, but in regards to us considering daytime meetings and the perspective that we are trying to keep people out and trying not to give people access to information, that is just ridiculous," District No. 3 Councilman Eloy Morales, Jr. said.

"It is one of those things that people are just going to read into it what they want, but the truth of the matter is we are kind of torn. If it is done for the daytime, in terms of allowing for more perspective and more inclusion, then it makes sense and that is correct. This is a decision where we have the opportunity to see how it works and if we don't like and if the residents feel that they do not have enough access, if the seniors don't have the presence that they were looking for--then we can change it back."

Changes to Chapter 2, Article 8 of the Inglewood Municipal Code will be determined at the the upcoming council meeting that will take place Tuesday, Jan. 22. •

Artistic Learning Thrives at Cabrillo Elementary

By Dylan Little

Cabrillo Elementary School Principal Margaret Lynch gave a presentation on her campus' involvement with P.S. Arts during last week's Wiseburn School Board meeting. The nonprofit has led all the students at the school in lessons about famous painters like Frida Kahlo and Mark Rothko, while helping them understand those artists' styles.

For eight weeks, teaching artists worked with students of all grade levels for an hour a week to complete four projects that not only taught advanced art techniques like working with reflections and pointillism, but also informed the students about the artists and the ideas behind the works.

First grade teacher Lorrie Cariaga described how the arts program made an important impact for one of her special needs students. By giving that student an area that he could excel in, art deeply enriched his education. "It was absolute therapy for him," said Cariaga. "I felt like it was a healing process. It really met all the needs of all the students."

The eight-week program ended with a Family Art Night, where not only could Cabrillo's students show off their art projects, but also learn with their parents about other artistic methods. Cariaga thought that getting parents and students to work together on art was a highlight of the program. "Family Art Night had a huge sense of community," said Cariaga. "To see that at Cabrillo, it was priceless."

The students' excitement at the event was equally priceless, as Lynch shared stories of the children showing off their artwork and challenging their parents to find their expressionist self-portraits. "Children came into the performing arts center and said, 'See if you can find me,'" said Lynch.

While the P. S. Arts teaching artists have moved on to another of Wiseburn's schools, students at Cabrillo are already awaiting a return visit. First grade teacher Liza Hough-Skovron described the P. S. Arts volunteers as stars to her students. "The kids are already asking when they're coming back," said Hough-Skovron "[They] are like celebrities on campus."

While the volunteers focused on teaching the students in the classroom, Lynch noted that Cabrillo's teachers also got a solid lesson on bringing art to the classroom. "Having a teaching artist in the classroom allowed that teacher to have individualized professional development," said Lynch.

School Board President Nelson Martinez was pleased with the results of the program and would like to implement more arts learning. "I hope we can do more [art education]," said Martinez. "I'd love to do it more."

While State funding for the arts has been practically nonexistent, the Wiseburn School District has turned to grants to keep arts in the classroom. The P.S. Arts program was funded by a $20,000 grant from the W. M. Keck Foundation. Superintendent Tom Johnstone credited the School Board for its fiscal prudence and willingness to look for alternative funding sources. Despite the economic slowdown resulting in years of cutbacks to education and an incentive to make cuts to arts (and other non-core curriculum), Wiseburn has prided itself on keeping art in the classroom. "We've gone through five tough years, but we've always had the arts," said Johnstone.

From art, the Board moved to a report from Budget and Accounting Director Dave Wilson about Governor Jerry Brown's new budget. Overall, the report had good news for Wiseburn. With the passage of Proposition 30, Brown vowed to increase funding for California's primary and secondary schools and his budget shows he was true to his word. His budget added $2.7 billion to the State's education fund, bringing it to a total of $56.2 billion. Wilson believes the additional funding will go towards reducing the State's longstanding practice of deferring payments to school districts to more convenient times, regardless of how inconvenient it is to the school boards (and the teachers who have to be paid). Wilson said that this additional investment in education is not only a financial boon but a moral victory as well, showing that California's voters will accept higher tax rates to protect education. "We see it as proof that California holds education as a priority," said Wilson.

However, the report wasn't all cheerful news. The new budget still results in districts receiving only 78 cents in funding for every dollar allocated to them. The budget also marks the beginning of the Governor's "New School District Funding Formula." Little is known about how this plan will distribute funding for schools, but it is changed from the Governor's original "Weighted Funding Formula" that tied funding to the number of English Language Learners and socio-economically disadvantaged students. Still, Wilson is optimistic about the future of school funding. "We're still quite a ways away, but it's the right direction," said Wilson. "We're making progress."

Martinez shared Wilson's optimism over the update on the new budget. "That's a very positive report," he said. •

HAWTHORNE POLICE CONDUCTS DUI CHECKPOINT FRIDAY, JAN. 18

The Hawthorne Police Department's Traffic Bureau will be conducting a 'DUI / Driver License Checkpoint' on Friday, January 18 from 8 p.m. to 4 a.m., at an undisclosed location within the City of Hawthorne. The deterrent effect of DUI checkpoints is a proven resource in reducing the number of persons killed and injured in alcohol or drug involved crashes. Research shows that crashes involving alcohol drop by an average of 20 percent when well-publicized checkpoints are conducted often enough. Officers will be contacting drivers passing through the checkpoint for signs of alcohol and/or drug impairment. Officers will also check drivers for proper licensing and will strive to only delay motorists momentarily. When possible, specially trained officers will be available to evaluate those suspected of drug-impaired driving. Drivers caught driving impaired can expect possible arrest, license suspension, and insurance increases, as well as fines, fees, DUI classes, and other expenses that can exceed $10,000.

News for the City of Good Neighbors

From City Clerk Norb Huber HOWSER - THE BEST CALIFORNIA PR MAN AROUND

Today we say goodbye to KCET icon Huell Howser. Howser, who hosted PBS' "California's Gold", died of natural causes at his home on Sunday, January 6. He was known for his folksy, aw-shucks demeanor as he highlighted California's small towns, landmarks and treasures. In case you're wondering, Huell did record a show or two in Hawthorne. He visited "Chips" restaurant and did a show on Northrup's flying. If we get more information of these shows I will let you know.

COLD SNAP

When something snaps it usually breaks and then it's over with. The cold snap that we have been experiencing has lingered a little longer than a snap. It's more like a slow break that keeps on cutting. Frost on the lawn and on the car windshield have been common for the past week. I'm such a SoCal guy now that I would have trouble adjusting to the freezing temps of the MidWest or East Coast. By the time you read this, the temps are suppose to be back to normal.

PIZZA SHOW

The Hawthorne Historical Society met at the famous Hawthorne landmark on the Boulevard this past Sunday for their annual dinner meeting with election of officers and board members. Gary, the long time Pizza Show owner was our host and took time away from his waiter duties to share some stories of his eating establishment. In 1994, a female driver decided to drive her black Corvette right into the front of the restaurant at 3:30 a.m. The Show had to shut down for four months while the entire front of the shop was repaired. Gary indicated that on average, 20 to 30 people come in every week with recollections of the "good times" they had as children or younger folks while making a visit to the Pizza Show. The Show is one of the oldest businesses in Hawthorne. It certainly holds a place in Hawthorne's history.

ROTARY CLUB TO HOST BLOOD DRIVE

The Hawthorne Rotary Club will be hosting a blood drive at the Wiseburn Food Truck Festival this month on January 25 from 5:30 to 8 p.m. at Dana Middle School. Come down, give blood and then feast on all the good food the trucks have to offer.

MUSEUM OPEN

The Hawthorne Museum is open on Tuesdays from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. and on Saturdays from 10 a.m. to noon. If you have any historical photos or documents you wish to donate, please bring them in for all of Hawthorne to enjoy.

CITY COUNCIL MEETING

The next regularly scheduled Hawthorne City Council meeting is set for Tuesday, January 22 at 6 p.m. Every 2nd and 4th Tuesday of the month is your opportunity to see our city governing body at work. Public comment is open to all residents and non-residents who wish to make remarks regarding matters that pertain to our city. This is your civic right to speak to your officials and let the rest of our residents know how you feel. You are limited to five minutes and must address the entire city council and not just one individual member. I encourage you to come and speak if you have a problem or concern. •

Inglewood Holds Off Hawthorne

By Joe Snyder

Lately Inglewood High's boys' basketball team has been in a slump, but it managed to barely snap a three-game losing streak by hanging on to top host Hawthorne 72-71 in an Ocean League game last Friday. After losing a key league opener to Santa Monica 58-57 on January 9 at Inglewood, the Sentinels started off well, racing to a 23-14 first quarter lead and led by as many as 13 points. The Cougars, though, pecked away at Inglewood's lead and trailed by just four points at halftime at 41-37.

The fourth quarter saw Hawthorne take a 71-69 lead on a three-point basket from Domonique McClendon, but Randy Onwassor answered with a three-pointer of his own to give Inglewood back the lead. The Cougars' final basket attempt fell short as the Sents held on for the win. McClendon, a junior forward, led Hawthorne (10-6 overall and 1-1 in Ocean play) with a game-high 30 points. Akeem Allen added 14 points and Davion Lee chipped in 10. Onwassor led Inglewood (8-6, 1-1) with 29 points, followed by Brandon Randolph with 19.

On January 9 at Inglewood, the league began with a bang with a showdown between who most observers feel are the top two teams in the Ocean. The Sentinels entered the game ranked 13th in the prestigious CIF-Southern Section Division IAA, while Santa Monica is number one in IA. The Vikings (13-4, 2-0) held on for a 58-57 win.

Down 51-43 after three quarters, Inglewood caught the Vikings, who had a cold shooting fourth period with only seven points, at 57 on a put-back by Nicholas Smiley. Shortly after the Sentinels tied the game, Santa Monica's Jordan Matthews was fouled. He made the first of two free throws to give the Vikings a one-point lead with 10 seconds left. Randolph rebounded the missed second free throw, dribbled down the court and was fouled, giving Inglewood a shot at winning. Randolph, however, missed both free throws, but the Sents were able to receive a loose ball that went out of bounds. Smiley inbounded the ball to Randolph, but his three-point attempt missed as Santa Monica held on.

Randolph led Inglewood with 18 points, followed by Smiley with nine points and seven rebounds. Six-foot-10 center Charles Lockwood contributed nine points, six rebounds and four blocks. Garcia had eight points and 10 rebounds. Matthews led the Vikings with a game-high 20 points.

Hawthorne began the Ocean with a 64-56 loss at Beverly Hills on January 9. The stingy Norman defense helped them build a 53-22 lead after three periods before the Cougars got hot, outscoring them 34-11 in the fourth quarter. The 31-point hole, though, was way too much to dig out of that day.

Hawthorne visits Culver City in league Friday at 7:30 p.m. The Cougars will then play in the Martin Luther King Challenge Classic at Redondo High on Monday before hosting Santa Monica next Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Inglewood hosts Beverly Hills Friday and then visits Morningside next Wednesday in 7:30 p.m. league games.

LEUZINGER BEGINS BAY AT 2-0

Leuzinger High's boys' basketball team is 2-0 in the Bay League after home wins over Palos Verdes and Peninsula last week. On January 9, the Olympians rolled over the Sea Kings 63-37. Last Friday, Leuzinger was able to overcome the Panthers' effective zone defense for a 49-46 victory.

Justin Delgado led Leuzinger (13-4 overall) with 14 points, including three three-pointers, followed by Deonte Welch with 11. Peninsula's Matt McFarland led all scorers with 18 points, including three three-pointers. McFarland also hauled down 10 rebounds.

In a Pioneer Showdown Series game Saturday at Providence High in Burbank, the Olympians edged Oak Park 65-64. Leuzinger was led by Treyvion Anderson with 17 points. Eric Childress put in 16.

LEUZINGER ROUTS HAWTHORNE

In a non-league cross-town rivalry game on January 7 at Hawthorne, Leuzinger was impressive in a 72-51 victory. The Olympians started playing the game without three starters who were benched for missing a practice, but Eric Childress scored nine of his game-high 23 points in the first quarter to help Leuzinger build a 21-17 lead. With those three starters in, the Olympians pulled away, leading 37-26 at halftime and by 20 points by midway in the third period.

Also aiding Leuzinger was Delgado, who tallied 16 points. Davion Abner totaled 12 points and Anderson added nine. The Cougars were led by Akeem Allen with 12 points. McClendon chipped in 10 points. Davion Lee and Jamal Hackard contributed nine and seven points respectively.

LAWNDALE BEGINS PIONEER 2-0

Lawndale High's boys' basketball team started Pioneer League action at 2-0 by winning the opener at El Segundo 58-54 on January 9 and coming home to down Torrance 57-45 last Friday. Against the Tartars, Will Newman had 18 points, six rebounds and six steals. Chimezu Metu tallied 14 points and eight rebounds. Newman also led the Cardinals with 17 points in their win over the Eagles.

Lawndale will visit South Torrance, last season's CIF-Southern Section Division IIIA runner-up, Friday at 7:30 p.m. before playing in a pair of Martin Luther King, Jr. Showcase games. The Cardinals will face a powerful La Verne Lutheran team, which lost to Serra in last year's Southern Section Division IVAA final, Saturday at 7:30 p.m. at Serra High in Gardena before playing host Redondo in the Redondo Showcase on Monday at 8:30 p.m.

Lawndale resumes the Pioneer at Centennial High in Compton next Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. •

Boys Basketball: Lawndale Out Strong in League

By Kelly Kemp

The Lawndale Boys Basketball team won outright – from start to finish – at El Segundo this past week in their Pioneer League opener, 60-52. Although El Segundo scratched back into the game by the third quarter, it was the dominant run of 21-8 leading off the first that set an almost unbearable pace.

It seemed to me that every player on the Lawndale, now 9-6 (1-0), hit a 3-pointer: D'Lano Beckles, Nathan McAnally, Will Newman, Myron Phillips and Marquinn Walton, with Newman leading all scorers with 17 points. Sergio Blandon, R'Lando Beckles, Chimezie Metu, Myron Phillips and Chris White also scored for the victorious Cardinals.

Photos by Shelley Kemp. For more photos, please visit www.shelleykempphotography.com

Senior Myron Phillips attempts a 3 pointer.

Senior Sergio Blandon lays up for 2 points after a steal and a full court drive to the basket.

Junior D'Lano Beckles puts the ball in for 2 points. Beckles scored a total of 9 points for Lawndale.

Senior Will Newman prepares to shoot. Newman contributed 17 points to Lawndale's win over El Segundo.

You will be bidding on a lien, not on a property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 1-800-281-8219 or visit this Internet Web site www.recontrustco.com, using the file number assigned to this case TS No. 12-0060372. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. RECONTRUST COMPANY, N.A. 1800 Tapo Canyon Rd., CA6-914-01-94 SIMI VALLEY, CA 93063 Phone: (800) 281 8219, Sale Information (626) 927-4399 By: Trustee's Sale Officer RECONTRUST COMPANY, N.A. is a debt collector attempting to collect a debt. 13 Cooking Tips for 2013, #6 thru #8 (tips 1-5 published January 10)

- When cooking pasta, always cook till 80 percent done, then cool with running water. Finish the cooking process in the pan with the sauce of choice. This way your pasta is still al dente and the sauce has coated the pasta thoroughly
- Try to always use fresh herbs. Grow fresh herbs in pots on your deck or patio. They are cheap to buy at a home depot type store and when you grow them in pots they won't over run the rest of your garden. Also, changing them is easier.
- When grilling fish, make sure your grill is clean and pre heated. Coat the fish with some oil and seasoning then place it on the hot grill. The preheating of the grill and the small amount of oil will assist you in being able to turn the fish over without it sticking too much. It's the New Year and we need to start eating better, or at least try to. So here is a great way to have a seafood dish that has no oil, butter, or cream, but still has lots of flavor.
