South Bay Workforce Investment Board Hosts Youth Job Fair

By Cristian Vasquez

More than 700 youth and 60 companies attended the Blueprint for Workplace Success Youth Job Fair hosted at Rogers Park on April 10. The event was sponsored by the South Bay Workforce Investment Board and South Bay One-Stop Business & Career Center and has been an opportunity for young people in the area to engage with employers about job openings and adequate interviewing techniques as well as having proper resumes.

"Anything that has to do with the workforce, we will help. If it is matching laid-off workers with a job or helping employers in the South Bay by providing the workers that they need or putting people into training to make them more appealing and apt for a job, that is what the South Bay Workforce Investment Board does," Executive Director South Bay Workforce Investment Board (SBWIB) Jan Vogel said. "We have a special place in the hearts of the youths, as the economy is not as strong as we hope it would be. When the economy is weak, then you have a lot of different people vying for those jobs traditionally filled by youths. When you have parents and grandparents working for low wages, it pushes the youth to the bottom of the barrel and it makes it much more difficult for them to get a job. We have to be able to keep our youth occupied and hopefully in a productive manner in order to allow them to grow."

This job fair has been organized for more than 14 years and began when SBWIB, which in years past had a large summer youth program, had federal funds cut. In an attempt to provide an event to connect residents with jobs without the use of federal funds, the SBWIB has reached out to students in Inglewood, Lawndale, El Segundo, Hawthorne, Carson, Gardena and the Beach Cities.

"I did not know what to expect, but it was great. There are a lot of companies that I want to apply to and I had a good overall experience," Long Beach City College student and homeschooled high school student Nephtiry Bailey said. "I think these events are very important. We are in a recession and people need to make money—especially students. It is basically on us to get the economy back up and running. I think job fairs like this should happen as much as possible."

Gardena High School junior Chris Hernandez has been a part of similar events in the past and believes that he is better prepared for an interview with a potential employer than people who have not gone through the programs that he has experienced. "I think it was good, but I think I need more opportunities to apply and engage in more thorough interviews," Hernandez said. "The interviewers I was with were more focused on job descriptions and I didn't get asked a whole lot, but overall it was great. They [companies] need to give out applications. They tell us to apply online and we already know that. It was good that they answered our questions and I think I am pretty prepared, but I will keep attending more job fairs. I am pretty confident about getting a job."

For students to attend, they had to be between the ages of 16 and 21 and were required to be Blueprint for Workplace Success-certified. They also had to complete a Blueprint for Workplace Success Job Fair Workshop or be enrolled in a STEM academy.

"It gives me more confidence to speak about myself and sell myself. It also gives me the opportunity to apply to more places because I would obtain information from the Internet or people, but that alone did not motivate me to follow through with the process of going online and applying," Angelica Ceja, senior at Gardena High School said. "My interview went well. The person in charge of my interview asked me a lot of questions and gave me information about what they do at their store. I am pretty confident I will get a call within the next three days."

The fair also helps people who are no longer in school but who have completed one of the requirements in the past. For Mia Clark, a Gardena High School graduate and future El Camino College student, the SBWIB has been preparing her during the last three months via its Gardena One Stop Center. "They had me at their site and helped me with customer service, they helped me dress better and they helped me interact with other people," Clark said. "They also taught me other things like clerical work skills that can help me find a job. It was like pre-training. These resources are very important for me because I actually need a full-time job. Bills are not going to pay themselves and considering that I am not in school, I need a job to do the things I need to do to help myself and get back into school to get a better job."

Organizing the fair has never been easy, but the benefits have outweighed the challenges for more than 14 years now. "It is always a challenge, but we have a relationship with these employers—and as you saw at the job fair, there are many people there for us," Vogel said. "Plus, there are a number of young people that go through our training courses throughout the year on how to get a job and how to keep a job. These individuals were very well-prepared on how to go out and interview in order to obtain a job." •

Hawthorne Happenings

News for the City of Good Neighbors

From City Clerk Norb Huber
SpaceX

Members of the Historical Society were invited to take a tour of SpaceX last Saturday. Wow! What a place! This little company is making history every day. Some of their short and long term goals are to have their rockets return to earth unharmed so they can reuse them. They want to make space travel affordable to common people who wish to go and stay up in an inflatable room for several weeks. The 100k price tag for a trip seems reasonable. Their ultimate goal is to have us live on Mars. If we can live on Mars, we can live any where. It looks like SpaceX is well on their way to achieving these goals. They have contracts from foreign governments and private companies for the next five or six years to deliver pay loads to outer space. The entire company is all working together to make all of this happen. Why Hawthorne? The response was because of the legacy that Hawthorne has. The Northop legacy, the aerospace and pioneering past that has been in Hawthorne for the past 80 years. SpaceX is simply continuing this legacy by making history with every new step they take.

Trinity Lutheran to host National Day of Prayer Event

The Hawthorne Ministerial Association will be sponsoring a special time of prayer and worship on our National Day of Prayer at Trinity Lutheran Church in Hawthorne on Thursday, May 2 at 7:00 pm. The church is located at 4783 W. 130th Street, which is at the corner of Inglewood Avenue and 130th Street. The event will include a service and community gathering of shared music, messages and prayers. Bring your entire family and friends for this inspiring time of community fellowship. Refreshments will be provided. America, California and the City of Hawthorne all are in need of our prayers. Take some time out of your schedule and join with others in the community as we turn our hearts to God.

The Benefits of Volunteering

The Hawthorne Presidents Council sponsored the 31st annual Volunteer Appreciation Day last Sunday. Close to 200 volunteers were nominated to receive recognition. Along with the city council, I shook everyone’s hand and congratulated them on their service. But, most all of them indicated that they didn’t serve for themselves. They served because they wanted to help others. They served to make their school, their club, or their association better. They wanted to make Hawthorne a better place to live. We thank and celebrate with everyone who gives of themselves in service to others.

Relay for Life

The American Cancer Society’s Relay for Life Event will be held at the Hawthorne High School’s track on Saturday and Sunday, April 27 and 28. All the money raised from the event goes to support the fight to find a cure. Even if you have not signed up to walk or be a sponsor, please feel welcome to join with everyone this Saturday and Sunday morning. There will be plenty of food, music and activities to entertain you.

Hawthorne Falls to 0-4 With Rugged Start

By Joe Snyder

Hawthorne High's baseball team found Ocean League power Culver City too much to handle with two more league losses last week. At Culver on April 16, Hawthorne was shut out 5-0. At Hawthorne last Thursday, the Centaurs pulled away from the Cougars 8-2.

Last Thursday, Hawthorne and Culver were tied at two after three innings and the Cougars trailed 3-2 through four before the Centaurs let loose for five runs, behind a three-run home run by freshman Michael Netzel and a two-run shot from Darren Sylvester. The Cougars managed to have good pitching by senior Dominic Gutierrez through the first four innings before giving up the two homers in the fifth that put the game out of reach. Gutierrez pitched 5 2/3 innings, allowing six runs (four earned) on eight hits. He struck out six batters and walked one.

Hawthorne Dominic Gutierrez bears down as he pitches to a Culver City batter during last Thursday's Ocean League game. The Cougars host Beverly Hills today at 3:15 p.m. Photo by Joe Snyder.

Sylvester, a junior, started the game with a solo homer, but Hawthorne came back to tie the game at one when Andrew Banuelos singled, scoring Gutierrez. Culver again took a 2-1 lead, but Chris Robles drove in a run with a base hit in the bottom of the third. Freshman Calvin Murrillo gave the Centaurs a 3-2 lead in the top of the fourth with a run-scoring single.

"Gutierrez pitched okay," Hawthorne head coach Greg Hines said. "We got to have the plays." The Cougars managed three hits in the game off Culver starting pitcher Nathan Matthews.

On April 16, Hawthorne was not able to get much off sophomore pitcher Jay Sterner, who hurled a two-hit shutout. Sterner struck out eight batters and walked just one. Gutierrez and Steven Leyva had the only hits for the Cougars. Tim Stewart had a two-run homer for the Centaurs.

The Cougars (11-8-1 overall and 0-4 in league) hope to get back to winning form as they face Beverly Hills in two games this week. After visiting the Normans at La Cienega Park on Tuesday, Hawthorne hosts Beverly Hills today at 3:15 p.m. Hawthorne visits Inglewood next Tuesday at the same time.

SOUTH OVERWHELMS LAWDALE

Lawndale High's baseball team was unable to contain a very good South Torrance High squad after two Pioneer League losses last week. At Lawndale on April 17, the Cardinals were shut out by the Spartans 9-0. At South last Friday, the Spartans humiliated Lawndale 19-1.

In the shutout loss, the Cardinals (0-4 in league) mustered just three hits off South junior pitcher Matt Mogollon. Rafael Luna, Anthony Santellan and Steven Rudolph each had one hit. Nick Cohen keyed the Spartans (3-1 in league) by going two for four with three runs batted in and one run scored.

Lawndale hosted El Segundo yesterday and will visit the Eagles at Stevenson Field on the El Segundo Recreation Park grounds Friday at 3:15 p.m. Next Wednesday, the Cardinals will face Torrance at Kendall Field on the Torrance Park grounds, beginning at 3:15 p.m.

SAMO SWEEPS INGLEWOOD

After sweeping cross-town rival Morningside two weeks ago, Inglewood High's baseball team lost two games to Santa Monica last week. At Inglewood on April 16, the Vikings downed the Sentinels 13-6. At Santa Monica last Thursday, the Vikings blanked Inglewood 18-0.

On April 16, the Sentinels avoided a mercy rule loss when they scored all six of their runs in the bottom of the sixth inning. Sean Day had a two-run single that highlighted that inning. Sophomores Andrew Pozos and Christian Loeza each had two hits, drove in one run and scored once. Joey Rosenblum went three for five with one RBI and three runs scored for Santa Monica.

On April 9 at Morningside, the Sentinels downed the Monarchs 11-6. On April 11 at Inglewood, the Sentinels defeated Morningside 7-3. Inglewood hosted Culver City on Tuesday and will visit the Centaurs today at 3:15 p.m. The Sentinels host Hawthorne next Tuesday at the same time.

After visiting Santa Monica last Tuesday, Morningside will host the Vikings today at 3:15 p.m. The Monarchs host Culver City next Tuesday at the same time.

CHILDRESS SIGNS AT UCSB

Leuzinger High boys' basketball standout Eric Childress signed a letter of intent to play at UC Santa Barbara last week. Childress was the Bay League's Most Outstanding Player, averaging 16.1 points and 4.4 assists per game in keying the Olympians to a second place finish, (behind eventual California State Division II champion Redondo), the semifinals in the CIF-Southern Section Division IIIAA playoffs and the quarterfinals of the Southern California Regional playoffs.

Childress played for the Olympian varsity squad since he was a freshman three years ago when they captured the CIF-Southern Section Division IA title over Santa Monica. In that season, Leuzinger was head coached by Reggie Morris, Jr., who guided the Sea Hawks to their first state crown this past season. He started since his sophomore year. The Olympians are now head coached by Ali Parvaz, in his third season. Childress is also a very good student with a 3.4 grade point average. •

Boston Strong

By Adam Serrao

Almost two weeks ago now, the Boston Marathon was the site of one of America's greatest tragedies since the bombing of the World Trade Center in New York. Boylston Street, on that day, was supposed to be a place for celebration—a place that symbolized completion and achievement. Instead, what developed was utter chaos and disaster where because of two degenerate psychopaths, what should have been a feeling of fatigued fulfillment in an instant turned into utter terror leaving three people dead and more than 170 victims wounded. The events that took place that day can never be undone. People's lives will forever be changed from a rippling shockwave that touched every person's heart across the nation. The events that took place, though, will never be forgotten and America stands undefeated. A prevailing sentiment of resilience and the undying will to recover has now been born in the face of disaster—and once again, the United States stands strong. It has been learned that in the face of catastrophe, Americans band together and it is no different this time for Boston. Boston columnist Kevin Cullen put it ever so simply when he stated that the city of Boston only cares about three things in this life: "Politics, sports and revenge." Now in the aftermath, it is sports that will be the power to help get us through this tragedy.

The Boston Marathon has been around since 1897 and is considered to be the oldest continual marathon in existence. Attracting runners from all nations and all states in America, it is one of the, if not the most, popular marathon events in the world. It is important to not let this race nor any sporting event be diminished by the mindless attacks on last week's Patriots Day in Boston. Instead, the world, the nation and the city should come back stronger and fulfill what is an opportunity for renewal and accomplishment. "We don't want the evil people who did this to get the satisfaction of changing the symbol of Boston, which is freedom of movement, companionship, sportsmanship," said Mike Noori, a 52-year-old resident of Atlanta, Georgia who was at the race supporting his wife who ran in honor of her own breast cancer survival. Noori's wife Sina represents a microcosm of why Boston will remain strong and the marathon will go on and most likely be an emotional scene next year. People come from all walks of life to celebrate their own personal achievements or to run for a cause that means something in particular to them and those around them. It is the sport of marathon running that bonds those who participate and those who are affected around the world together. It's one sport for one cause with one thing in mind: Success.

Though the motivations of the attack remain uncertain, it is clear that they occurred at one of the world's largest and most patriotic athletic events in one of the world's most patriotic cities on an entirely patriotic day that commemorates the beginning of the American Revolution. What is great about the sport of the marathon is that it represents the ideal of freedom in and of itself. Anyone can enter of any age, any gender, any ethnicity or creed from elite runners to novices and those who share handicaps. There is no ticket that must be bought to watch and support those who are undertaking the feat. There is basically no barrier that separates the competitors from their fans. That same openness may in fact be what made the marathon such a target—but if the attack was meant to weaken the freedom that the race represents, it will fail miserably.

The 2014 Boston Marathon will indeed be one of the biggest marathons in the history of the sport. The amount of competitors entering the race will more than likely exceed the largest amount ever recorded. The amount of fans present to cheer on the competitors will pack and line the streets. Victims of this week's tragedy will undoubtedly return to finish that which they have started, once again instilling the feelings of jubilation, completion and success that were so effortlessly robbed from them this year. Sport will persist. The activity of sport will bond us all together once again as it has already done in the days almost immediately following the bombings. Perhaps Boston's biggest rival, New York, won over the hearts of Red Sox nation everywhere as it dedicated a moment of silence and the singing of the Fenway Park favorite Sweet Caroline to stand in support. At a Boston Bruins game, Renee Rancourt took center stage to sing the National Anthem. Soon after he began, the crowd chipped in and in unison continued with and finished the anthem in a way that, upon watching, anyone with a heart and a soul would have gotten goose bumps. From baseball to hockey, marathon running and back, sports reinstalled a sense of patriotism and honor where it otherwise may have eerily been absent.

These are the things that sports do for us. As fans, as people and as Americans, athletic competitions have a way of bringing us all together and uniting us as one nation. What has been done cannot be undone and many among us will go on with their lives having been changed forever. The process of mending has begun, however, and soon the pain will cease to exist. We will all try to get over the horrific events that took place on that Monday morning in April, but they will never be forgotten. Hopefully soon, some semblance of an answer to the question, "Why?" will arise so that some sort of closure may be attained, but until that time let us realize how much the power of sport plays in that healing process. May we all stand united and let no one say that sports don't matter. •

Last week at the Depot we had our monthly cooking class and the topic was salads. Growing up in an Italian neighborhood, I was introduced to what we called a cold antipasto salad.

Antipasto (plural antipasti), often spelled and/or pronounced as antipasta (antipasta salad), means "before the meal" and is the traditional first course of a formal Italian meal. Traditional antipasto varies from one area to another but they are always a great way to start.

Every Italian deli has their own version of this tangy chilled dish, and the following is mine. Bouno apeto!

The Chef

Chef Shafer, Owner/Chef of Depot, Buffalo Fire Dept., and the Downtown Torrance Market Place.

Chilled Antipasto Salad

- 1 cup diced tomatoes, or cherry tomatoes, cut in half
- 1 cup diced cucumber
- 1/4 cup diced red onion, very fine
- 1 can garbanzo beans
- 1 cup diced Parmesan cheese, or you can use mozzarella or feta if you like
- 1 pound chopped hard salami, or other sausages or prosciutto cut into julienne strips
- 1/2 cup chopped kalamata olives
- 1/8 cup olive oil
- 1/8 cup balsamic vinegar
- 6 to 8 basil leaves, ripped

Garnish
3 hardboiled eggs peeled and cut into wedges

Mix all the ingredients together in a bowl then chill. Place on a platter with the hardboiled egg wedges as a garnish. •

Pets Without Partners

Adopt a “pet without a partner” and give a homeless pet a second chance in life.

Paddington suddenly found himself homeless and in a boarding kennel for almost two months when his owner died unexpectedly at the age of 45. This little one is full of sweetness and good energy...

Paddington

happy, playful and always wagging that white-tipped tail. His personality will capture you and bring you in as he casts his spell of love upon you. Paddington is spunky and full of personality. He loves to walk, ride in the car or be a lounge lizard. He really misses having an owner to love him and is waiting patiently for his next forever home. Paddington is two years old and weighs about 16 pounds. Paddington is neutered, current on vaccinations, de-wormed, microchipped, housebroken, loves everyone he meets, is great with other dogs and good with children.

Lucy is simply divine in her apricot and cream-colored coat. Although she is 11 years old, Lucy does not look or act a day over five. She has been well taken care of and cherished by her prior owner who tearfully surrendered her due to personal issues. Lucy is a love of a little girl. She has been a housedog for her entire life, has good manners and is completely housebroken. She weighs 13 pounds and was born on June 1, 2002. Lucy is ready to share adventures with you on a walk or a car ride to anywhere. She will need to be on a grooming schedule, so remember this when budgeting for her. Lucy is spayed, current on vaccinations, de-wormed, microchipped, housebroken, loves everyone she meets, and good with children and other dogs.

To learn more about these and other wonderful dogs, visit our website at www.animalsrule.org. If a dog is on our website, it's available. Or come to our Saturday adoption events from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at 305 North Harbor Boulevard in San Pedro (just off the 110 near the cruise port). We are always in need of donations for veterinarian bills and our senior dogs. Donations can be made through our website or by sending a check payable to: Animals Rule Placement Foundation at 305 North Harbor Blvd., San Pedro, CA 90731. All donations are tax-deductible. We are a registered 501©3 non-profit organization.

Saving one animal won't change the world, but the world will surely change for that animal.

Purrrfect Companions

Add a little love with a new best friend when you adopt your purr-fect partner.

Cider is a polite little gentleman. He is always eager to meet new people, but understands that some people don't like cats crawling all over them. So instead, he'll calmly greet you and then wait for you to take the next step. If your next step involves lots of love, he will be the happiest kitty, as he loves attention and cuddling. Then when you're ready for some feline playtime, Cider will be your cheerful, energetic play buddy. If you'd like someone to follow you with eyes that say, "Excuse me. What is it that you are doing? Can I be of any service?"--then Cider is the cat for you! Cider gets along very well with other cats. In fact, he has been known to be quite the charmer, especially with the ladies! Just like with humans, Cider loves making new feline friends, but will also respect other cats' boundaries if they prefer to keep their distance.

Simba is a kitty with a big personality! He is a very sweet, loving boy and handsome too! Simba loves to play with his kitty toys and on his cat tree. He's happy chasing his brother around the house. But this wonderful boy also really likes cuddling with his people. Simba is a great kitty all around who is hoping to find his fur-ever human. He's ready for a happy life with lots of playtime and cuddles. If you happen to be looking for two kitties, Simba would love to bring his brother along!

These kittens/cats are available for adoption through Kitten Rescue, one of the largest cat rescue groups in Southern California. All of our kitties are spayed/neutered, microchipped, tested for FeLV and FIV, de-wormed and current on their vaccinations. For additional information and to see our other kitties, please check our website at www.kittenrescue.org, or email us at mail@kittenrescue.org. Your tax-deductible donations for the rescue and care of our cats and kittens can be made through our website or by sending a check payable to Kitten Rescue, 914 Westwood Boulevard, #583, Los Angeles, CA 90024.

On Saturdays, we have adoptions from noon to 3:30 p.m. in Westchester at 8655 Lincoln Boulevard, just south of Manchester Avenue, and also in Mar Vista at 3860 Centinela Avenue, just south of Venice Boulevard. Our website lists additional adoption sites and directions to each location.

Be kind. Save a life. Support animal rescue.

Are You Unable to Adopt, Consider Fostering

Are you unable to adopt, but would love to have a kitty or dog in your home? Consider fostering. Children who assist with foster care learn to help an animal and feel like they have accomplished something. They learn that because of someone's irresponsibility, this pet is homeless--but they can be a solution to the problem and give back to their community. When foster families and individuals let these animals go to their new homes, they have the joy of knowing they have helped give an abandoned pet a second chance in life.

With "kitten season" in full bloom, there is an urgent need for foster parents. Whether you care for one or many, once or frequently, Kitten Rescue would love for you to become a foster parent. They offer training, guidance, medical care (if needed) and lots of moral support. Fostering brings you the rich reward of knowing you personally saved this kitty's life in providing a safe, loving home while waiting for adoption. Interested? Please email them at foster@kittenrescue.org for more information.

Every dog would love a foster home while waiting for their forever home. The more foster volunteers Animals Rule has, the more dogs it can take out of the shelter. It's a very rewarding experience. As a foster family, the dog or puppy goes into your home on a temporary basis. Everything is covered... the food, the toys, the vet bills, etc. You supply the love, allow the dog to stay with

Become a Kitten Rescue Foster.

All you do is supply the love.

you during the week and bring the pet back on Saturdays for the adoption events from 11 to 3 p.m. Stop by an adoption event or send an e-mail to info@animalsrule.org if you are interested in fostering and Animals Rule will help you in the first step.

Some people say, "It would be too tough to let the pet go once it's in my house, I can't do it." Isn't it tougher to know that that without more foster families, a homeless pet may never have the chance for a permanent, loving home? •

Give a pet a second chance in life.

The Beneficiary under said Deed of Trust heretofore executed and delivered to the undersigned a written Declaration of Default and Demand for Sale, and a written Notice of Default and Election to Sell. The undersigned caused said Notice of Default and Election to Sell to be recorded in the County where the real property is located. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a Trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a Trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the County recorder's office or a Title Insurance Company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or Deed of Trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this Notice of Sale may be postponed one or more times by the Mortgagee, Beneficiary, Trustee, or a Court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a Trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the County recorder's office or a Title Insurance Company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or Deed of Trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this Notice of Sale may be postponed one or more times by the Mortgagee, Beneficiary, Trustee, or a Court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about Trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (800)280-2832 or visit the internet website www.auction.com, using the file number assigned to this case 1370975-25. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web Site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. For sales information: (800)280-2832. Cal-Western Reconveyance Corporation, 525 East Main Street, P.O.
