Community Center Renamed for Former Lawndale Mayor Hofmann

In a ceremony presided over by new mayor Robert Pullen-Miles and the City Council, the Lawndale Community Center was renamed "Harold E. Hofmann Lawndale Community Center." Approximately 100 citizens, including the former Lawndale mayor's widow, Doris Hofmann, her children and her grandchildren, attended the dedication. Hofmann, who was the longest serving mayor in the county and the state of California prior to his death on November 16, 2013, was instrumental in the building of the center, which opened in January 2012. Inglewood City Amends Summer Food Service Program Budget

By Cristian Vasquez

The Inglewood City Council adopted a resolution to amend the 2013-2014 budget, reflecting an increase of $54,328 for the Summer Food Service Program as well as $18,809 to cover the salaries of 13 SFSP staff members. In addition, the agreement will allow for 180 Degrees & Still Standing to provide the free summer lunch program from June 19-August 28, through the use of $149,328 in California Department of Education grant funds. The final part of the agreement includes a non-financial partnerships with two local churches and the Inglewood Unified School District, which would allow for the use of school property at Bennett-Kew Elementary to use facilities for all SFSP sites. "They are opening up their doors, especially in areas such as district four, where there is only one park site but the need is there," Parks, Recreation and Library Services Director Sabrina Barnes said. "Now we are able to go to these churches. They are not paid and we are not charged rent."

In 1997 Inglewood received grants from the CDE for the provision of SFSP. For 10 years the city dealt with a commercial food company, which was able to provide summer lunch meals for children in the Inglewood community. In March 2014 an agreement was reached for IUSD to purchase SFSP lunches. The agreement increased the amount of money needed for the meals only because of the addition of one new

"The vendor that we are going with this year is in this business in a large way and serving a number of sites,"... We have heard she serves meals that the kids do like so we don't waste time and money with that effort."

lunch site. Due to the increase in price for each meal, from $2.50 to $3.50 per meal, as well as the need SFSP to continue in the city and the insufficient funds with the grant made available through CDE, the City of Inglewood decided to work with 180SS by granting them the lunch meals contract. "The vendor that we are going with this year is in this business in a large way and serving a number of sites," Barnes said. "We have heard she serves meals that the kids do like so we don't waste time and money with that effort."

Since 2009 180SS has been working to address issues like homelessness among women and children by providing free meals and housing. The nonprofit has since expanded its food programs to serving 5,000 meals a day in 42 different sites throughout Los Angeles County and the Inland Empire. Through the new agreement SFSP will operate five days a week, not including holidays, and will provide a total of 1,200 lunch meals a day at 12 sites, including Ashwood, Darby, North, Rogers, Siminisky, and Vincent Parks, as well as Lockhaven Community Center, Inglewood Main Library, Parent and Bennett-Kew Schools and First Church of God and Inglewood Southside Christian Church. The city has no influence over what types of meals are served but they meet state requirements. "The California Department of Education provides a meal pattern and there are a selection of meals that are made available to the youth," Barnes said. "We can make suggestions but ultimately the meals are set but the children do have a variety of vendors that we are going with this year." •

News for the 'City of Good Neighbors'

From City Clerk Norb Huber

can tell you how valuable these dogs have been in saving lives and keeping our city safe.

Wounded Heroes of America Golf Tournament

There are a lot of charity golf tournaments to play in. They are good fund raisers for worthy organizations. The 8th Annual Wounded Heroes of America Golf Tournament will be held on Saturday, June 7 at Brookside Golf Club in Pasadena. This is a great cause. Monies go to support our heroes. If you are interested in playing or attending the dinner then contact Mike Talleda at 310-355-0266.

"Celebrate Hawthorne"

The inaugural "Celebrate Hawthorne" Banquet will be held on Friday, July 18 at the civic center. This first-ever awards banquet and civic celebration will be held in conjunction with Good Neighbors Day which is the next day, Saturday, July 19.

Memorial Day Weekend

The unofficial beginning of summer, warmer weather, backyard family barbecues, American flags, patriotic ceremonies at our military cemeteries, the Indy 500 car race, all of these things come to mind when we think of Memorial Day weekend. Decoration Day or Memorial Day is a federal public holiday in the United States. Decoration Day is observed on the last Monday of May every year. This day is set aside to celebrate and honor United States men and women who have died serving their country in military service. Yes, the day is full of family fun, but it's important to stop and thank God for those who have given their lives for our freedom. The VFW and American Legion will hold a Memorial Day ceremony at the Hawthorne Memorial Center on Monday, May 26th starting at 10 a.m. Let us come out, reflect on the past, show our respect, and then we can enjoy our family fun.

Community K-9 Dinner - Tonight

The Annual Community K-9 Dinner will be held on tonight, Thursday, May 22 from 5 to 6:45 p.m. at the Memorial Center. The tickets are still only $5 per adult and $2.50 for children. It's a great chicken dinner, the K-9 squad shows up, and a raffle is held each time. Each year this dinner raises valuable funds in support of our K9 unit. Our HPD personnel

Hawthorne Finishes Second after Win Over Beverly Hills

By Joe Snyder

Hawthorne High's softball team ended the Ocean League in second place by downing Beverly Hills 12-7 last Thursday at Hawthorne. It was a game that took nearly three hours and all but two total runs were scored in the first two innings with the Cougars taking a 10-7 lead. The Normans started out with five unearned runs in the top of the first, but Hawthorne bounced back with 10 runs in the bottom of the inning to take a quick 10-5 advantage. Beverly Hills, which placed fourth in league, added two runs in the top of the second. The score stayed the same until Hawthorne cushioned its lead with two more runs in the bottom of the sixth. Natalie Rocha sparked the Cougars, who are 18-8 overall and ended league at 8-2, with two triples and two runs scored. Espie Villafan added two hits and scored once. She drove in two runs. "We continue to be strong every season," Hawthorne coach Jerry Contreras said. The Cougars finished second behind league power Santa Monica, which went unbeaten in Ocean play at 10-0. Hawthorne began the CIF-Southern Section Division IV playoffs at La Canada High, the Rio Hondo League runner-up, last Tuesday. If the Cougars win, they will visit top seed Loara High in Fullerton today at 3:15 p.m.

COUGAR BASEBALLERS TAKE THIRD

Hawthorne's Carrie Ludman makes contact with the ball during last Thursday's Ocean League softball finale against Beverly Hills. The Cougars finished second in the Ocean League with a 12-7 victory over the Normans. The Cougars opened the CIF-Southern Section Division IV playoffs at La Canada last Tuesday.

Hawthorne High's baseball team placed third in the Ocean League after a pair of forfeit wins over Inglewood Morningside last week. The Monarchs were shorthanded to a variety of injuries, players quitting and academic ineligibilities. The Cougars finished Ocean play with a 6-4 record to take third behind champion Santa Monica and runner-up Culver City. However, according to Hawthorne assistant coach J.C. Randolph, Santa Monica has been investigated for a possible ineligible player that could force the Vikings to forfeit all of the games he played in. The CIF-Southern Section Division III playoff pairings were due to be released last Monday in which that decision was expected to be made. If Santa Monica does forfeit the league title, that will move the Cougars up to second place in league bringing them a better seeding in the playoffs. Randolph feels that Hawthorne has the potential to make noise in the playoffs. The Cougars got help with El Segundo High transfers Chares and Chris Phelps, and also have been led by seniors Javier Martinez and Andrew Banuelos. Banuelos already has a no-hitter against Inglewood from two weeks ago. Another senior, outfielder Steve Leyva, has also been a spark for the Cougars. "We're hoping that we can get past the first round," Randolph said. Charles Phelps is a promising freshman pitcher-outfielder.

Interestingly, the Ocean League will be in with two other South Bay studded leagues in the Bay and Del Rey. The Bay League was won by West Torrance, which enjoyed two routs over Lawndale Leuzinger last week, with the help from Redondo, which stunned favored Rolling Hills Estates Peninsula with a two-game sweep. Both of those squads tied for second but the Sea Hawks will get the second place seed over the Panthers due to the sweep. Peninsula entered last week ranked third in the CIF-Southern Section Division III. The Del Rey League was led by co-champion Gardena Serra, last year's Southern Section Division III champion. The younger Cavaliers, along with all-American players Denz'l Chapman and Marcus Wilson, tied for the league title with La Puente Bishop Amat. Top ranked is Gahr High from Cerritos, while La Verne Bonita is second.

LAWDALE SWEEPS CENTENNIAL

Lawndale High's baseball team ended the Pioneer League with a 3-7 record after sweeping Centennial High from Compton last week. The Cardinals began last week with an 8-1 victory over the Apaches on May 13 at Lawndale. Last Thursday, the Cardinals outlasted host Centennial 15-11. Lawndale ended its season at 8-15 overall.

WEST OVERWHELMS LEUZINGER

Leuzinger High's baseball team ended its final Bay League season with lopsided losses to league champion West Torrance. At Leuzinger on May 13, the Olympians fell to the Warriors 15-2. West ended up pulling out the Bay crown, with help of Redondo's sweep of league favorite Peninsula, with a 22-0 shutout. Edgar Gutierrez played well despite the losses for Leuzinger, which ended its season at 3-23 overall and 0-10 in league.

ST. MARY'S SHINES IN DIVISION IV PRELIMS

The St. Mary's Academy girls' track and field team from Inglewood is in very good condition for its second consecutive CIF-Southern Section Division IV crown with several top performances in last Saturday's Prelims at Carpinteria High in South Santa Barbara County.

The Belles had top performances from seniors Allannah Hughes and Sierra Peterson. Hughes had the meet's top long jump with a leap of 17 feet, nine inches and was second in the triple jump at 36-8. Peterson had a pair of fourth place finishes in the 100- and 200-meter dashes with times of 12.34 and 25.22, in order. Both, along with Alijah Hale and Brianna Shufford, were on St. Mary's winning 4x100-meter relay team which was clocked in 46.99. Shufford and Peterson also led the Belles' 4x400 relay squad to a third place overall finish in 3:58.37. Shufford advanced in the 100 and 200. The Southern Section divisional championships are Saturday at 11 a.m. (Running events begin at 1 p.m.) at Cerritos College. •

Looking Up

Astronomers Find Sun's 'Long-Lost Brother'

By Bob Eklund

A team of researchers led by University of Texas at Austin astronomer Ivan Ramirez has identified the first "sibling" of the Sun—a star that was almost certainly born from the same cloud of gas and dust as our star. Ramirez's methods will help other astronomers find other "solar siblings," work that could lead to an understanding of how and where our Sun formed, and how our solar system became hospitable for life. The work will be published in the June 1 issue of The Astrophysical Journal. "We want to know where we were born," Ramirez said. "If we can figure out in what part of the galaxy the Sun formed, we can constrain conditions on the early solar system. That could help us understand why we are here."

Additionally, there is a chance, "small, but not zero," Ramirez said, that these solar sibling stars could host planets that harbor life. In their earliest days within their birth cluster, he explains, collisions could have knocked chunks off of planets, and these fragments could have travelled between solar systems, and perhaps even may have been responsible for bringing primitive life to Earth. Or, fragments from Earth could have transported life to planets orbiting solar siblings. "So it could be argued that solar siblings are key candidates in the search for extraterrestrial life," Ramirez said.

Born from the same gas cloud as our own sun, HD162826 is a star located 110 light-years away, but scientists have identified it as a solar 'sibling' to our own sun. Photo credit: Ivan Ramirez/Tim Jones/McDonald Observatory

The solar sibling his team identified is a star called HD 162826, a star 15 percent more massive than the Sun, located 110 light-years away in the constellation Hercules. The star is not visible to the unaided eye, but easily can be seen with low-power binoculars, not far from the bright star Vega. The team identified HD 162826 as the Sun's sibling by following up on 30 possible candidates found by several groups around the world looking for solar siblings. Ramirez's team studied 23 of these stars in depth with the Harlan J. Smith Telescope at McDonald Observatory, and the remaining stars (visible only from the southern hemisphere) with the Clay Magellan Telescope at Las Campanas Observatory in Chile. All of these observations used high-resolution spectroscopy to get a deep understanding of the stars' chemical make-up.

But several factors are needed to really pin down a solar sibling, Ramirez said. In addition to chemical analysis, his team also included information about the stars' orbits—where they had been and where they are going in their paths around the center of the Milky Way galaxy. The team's experts in this field, which is called "dynamics," are A. T. Bajkova of the Pulkovo Astronomical Observatory in St. Petersburg, Russia, and V. V. Bobylev of St. Petersburg State University. Combining information on both chemical make-up and dynamics of the candidates narrowed the field down to one star: HD 162826.

While the finding of a single solar sibling is intriguing, Ramirez points out that the project has a larger purpose: to create a road map for how to identify solar siblings, in preparation for the flood of data expected from future surveys. "The idea is that the Sun was born in a cluster with a thousand or a hundred thousand stars. This cluster, which formed more than 4.5 billion years ago, has since broken up," he says. "A lot of things can happen in that amount of time." The member stars have broken off into their own orbits around the galactic center, taking them to different parts of the Milky Way today. A few, like HD 162826, are still nearby. Others are much farther afield. •

Politically Speaking

One Man's Opinion

By Gerry Chong

"8-9-10-yer out!" A battered and bloodied Jimmy Carter rolled over onto all fours, his eyes glazed; he used the bottom rung of the ropes to pull himself to his feet. His seconds dragged him to his corner, where he hung his head in defeat. Poor Jimmy mumbled, "I couldn't do it. I couldn't defend my crown as the Worst President of the United States. Time to admit it: I was outclassed. I knew my title was in danger when that young pup seized that icon of private enterprise, General Motors, using over $50 billion taxus in 2019, but we accelerated our own demise. This new champion simply regulated growth out of our economy. Today, the cost of Federal regulations is larger than the total economies of all but nine countries. The annual cost of regulations is $1.86 trillion per year. By contrast, Canada's entire GDP is $1.82 trillion and India's is $1.84 trillion. Moreover, the Competitive Enterprise Institute says it's getting worse. Last year alone, the Federal Government issued 3,659 rules, or one new regulation every 2.5 hours, 24/7. The Federal Registry which lists Federal payer dollars, and ultimately losing $11.2 billion. Now that company is in danger of entering bankruptcy again. Later, when he presided over the country's losing its AAA credit rating, Americans moved him up the list of title contenders. The public's clamor for a new champion grew louder when he exploded the nation's accumulated debt by 70% in less than six years! But it's actually worse than that. Janet Yellen, his choice to head the Federal Reserve says the course the country is on will result in another $8 trillion being added to the debt by 2025, a consequence that will crash the economy. And so with each devastating decision, the young challenger moved closer to my crown.

"Since 1872, the United States had been the preeminent economic power in the world, but this year will relinquish that distinction to China. With the U.S. economy struggling to grow at 2%, and China growing at 7.5%, it had been projected that China would pass rules, now totals 79,311 pages! With that, he moved up to the number one contender for the crown as the Worst President in the History of the Country, and I could do nothing but despondently watch his rise.

"Why, even his wife helped. Her recommended school lunch program was so bad the kids wouldn't eat it, so it has since been modified or dropped entirely. His rise was therefore a family effort. My coup de grace was, of course, Obamacare. On May 11, CNN released a report that only 12% call Obamacare a success. USA Today reported on May 5, that health spending has risen 9.9%, the highest increase since 1980. With that, he devastated the nation's healthcare system encompassing one-sixth of the economy. Who could compete with that? He took my crown and it wasn't pretty and it wasn't even close. I didn't accomplish anything close to what he did so I'll just have to settle for being the second worst president ever." •

Another Man's Opinion

Somebody and Everybody Must Be Held Accountable

By Cristian Vasquez

It is no secret that our nation's veterans face many challenges when returning home. Some of these obstacles they face at the very institutions that are designed to help them as they transition back to civilian life simply because of the backlog that exist. However, when it was revealed that at least 40 veterans died waiting for appointments at the Phoenix Veterans Affairs Health Care system.

"If Secretary of Veterans Affairs Eric Shinseki knew about the fatal long waits, the cover-ups and did nothing about it, then he needs to be fired and face criminal charges."

As more information has been made public about this incident, the levels of indignation have grown and rightfully so. Adding to an already tragic situation are the allegations that VA officials tried to cover up these incidents. If Secretary of Veterans Affairs Eric Shinseki knew about the fatal long waits, the cover-ups and did nothing about it, then he needs to be fired and face criminal charges.

Since the allegations came out of the Phoenix Veterans Affairs health care system, CNN has reported that delays in VA facilities across the country "are numerous," and VA staffers allege that officials have been trying to cover up dangerously long wait times. As a result, Shinseki was scheduled to receive a "grilling" from the Senate Affairs Committee but the truth is that is not nearly enough. Shinseki is responsible for the services provided to the veterans at VA facilities across the country. For something of this magnitude to take place under Shinseki's watch is unacceptable: he, along with any other officials who knew about this, have to be held accountable and serve jail time.

It is impossible for Shinseki to know what happens in each and every VA facility across the country. However, when there is dysfunction of this magnitude within offices in his organization that is leading to the death of veterans, he is responsible. Much like we expect the CEOs of private businesses to be on top of their organizations' actions, we must also hold these department secretaries to the same standard. It is understandable that there is a backlog for veterans to receive services but at the same time the current delays are unacceptable. The men and women who volunteered and sacrificed for our country should not have to be placed on a waiting list to receive treatment, nor should they be dying in wait of said services.

It can be argued that these deaths and long waiting lists were being kept a secret, hence the root of this scandal. Still, as the person in charge of this department, Shinseki is responsible for its actions. Shinseki needs to find out and expose the people within his department responsible for these deaths and for the attempted cover-up. If he refuses, or is unable to indicate who those people are, then his head should roll. There is no excuse for having our veterans die as they wait for services; it is sad that after the first death from these waiting list there wasn't a call for additional help by these VA facilities; and it is disgusting that these deaths would be kept a secret. •

PUBLIC NOTICES

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF DAVID LEE LAKE

Case No. BP-141915
To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of DAVID LEE LAKE

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by David Williams in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES. THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that David Williams be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on June 12, 2014 at 8:30 AM in Dept. No. 9 located at 111 N. Hill St. Los Angeles, 90012.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within four months from the date of first issuance of letters as provided in Probate Code section 9100. The time for filing claims will not expire before four months from the hearing date noticed above.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF: TONI Z. HUTCHINSON

CASE NO. BP151271
To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the WILL or estate, or both of TONI Z. HUTCHINSON.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by ARIL MANNING in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that ARIL MANNING be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's WILL and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The WILL and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: 06/03/14 at 8:30AM in Dept. 5 located at 111 N. HILL ST., LOS ANGELES, CA 90012

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

Is Macular Degeneration Limiting Your Ability to Make New Memories?

(BPT) - Have you noticed your loved one having trouble seeing what they're doing at the stove? Are they having trouble recognizing which grandchild is asking for help tying his shoe?

For people over the age of 60, age-related macular degeneration (AMD) is the leading cause of irreversible vision loss and legal blindness, which affects as many as 15 million Americans. The slow loss of vision often isn't immediately noticed, but AMD is a condition that continually worsens over time, despite being treatable in early stages. Patients with the advanced form of the disease develop a blind spot, permanently blocking straight-ahead vision, which often results in reduced quality of life as the problem worsens.

Veteran and retired teacher Roy Kennedy, 77, of Moreno Valley, Calif. and his wife, Kay, frequently took road trips across the country in their 35-foot RV, visiting national parks and monuments, even as Kennedy's sight began to deteriorate 20 years ago. Six years ago, he had to give up driving and travel was less pleasant because he couldn't see straight ahead. Kennedy had End-stage AMD and was told his sight would not improve, which was depressing and limiting. He wondered, "What would I want to see first, if I could regain some of that lost vision?"

Kennedy learned about a remarkable treatment option proven to restore sight and improve quality of life for patients with End-stage AMD, called CentraSight. The CentraSight program utilizes a tiny telescope, about the size of a pea, which magnifies images seen in one's "straight-ahead" vision. The images are projected onto the healthy portion of the retina not affected by the disease, making it possible for patients to see the central vision object of interest. The FDA-approved device is implanted in one eye and surgery is performed on an out-patient basis. The cost for the telescope implant and related program visits are Medicare eligible in all 50 states. Kennedy underwent surgery because he was eager to see his wife, family and regain independence.

"I worked with a great team of specialists, all part of the CentraSight program," Kennedy says. "My doctors counseled me about what to expect from the procedure, particularly afterwards. There was a significant amount of rehabilitation required to adjust and become proficient at using my new vision. I also was warned that my sight would not be like it was in my youth. I wouldn't be able to do everything I used to, nor would I be able to see the minute I opened my eyes."

Kennedy says the surgery was a big success for him. "The most amazing part is seeing my wife's face again," he says. "I've regained the ability to do many everyday tasks, like reading, working on my computer and watching old Westerns on TV. My wife and I are even back to traveling the open road in our RV - which I love (she drives, of course)."

"Patients tell me before the procedure about all the things or people they can't wait to see again," says Dr. Marc Levy, of The Sarasota Retina Institute, a Fellow of The American Academy of Ophthalmology, and American College of Surgeons. "Recognizing the smiles on grandchildren's faces or remembering an event depicted in a photograph are moments they are happiest about afterward."

Levy cautions, though, that this procedure is not for everyone, "The telescope implant is not a cure for End-stage AMD. As with any surgical intervention, potential risks and complications exist, including possible side effects such as decreased vision or vision impairing corneal swelling."

There are nearly 100 CentraSight treatment centers nationwide. To be considered a potential candidate, patients must:

1. Have irreversible, End-stage AMD resulting from either dry or wet AMD
2. No longer be a candidate for drug treatment for AMD
3. Have not had cataract surgery in the eye in which the telescope will be implanted
4. Meet age, vision and corneal health requirements

Patients should talk to their ophthalmologist to see if this procedure is right for them. Or, if you or your loved one has been diagnosed with AMD, visit www.CentraSight.com, or call 877-99-SIGHT (877-997-4448) to find out if you may be a candidate for the procedure. •

OVER 40 THOUSAND PAPERS DELIVERED WITHIN MILES OF YOUR HOME OR BUSINESS.

I have been reading a book about The Cordon Bleu School of Cooking in Paris and how it got started. Did you know it was a result of a magazine that was published about cooking? The editor thought it would be a great idea to have local chefs teach classes to promote sales of the magazine. Of course the school gained worldwide notoriety when Julia Child went there and when it was featured in the movie Sabrina in 1954. It reminded me of my own classical French training and also my time worked in Europe. One of my favorite dishes was "Coq au Vin" or "chicken cooked in wine" This is my rendition of the classic dish. Hope you like it.

The Chef

Coq au Vin a la Chef Shafer

Ingredients:

2 pounds boneless skinless chicken thigh meat
1/4 cup olive oil
3 to 4 cloves garlic, chopped
Salt and pepper
1 large onion, diced
1/2 pound thick cut bacon, or pancetta, diced

1 pound sliced mushrooms
2 carrots, peeled and diced
2 cups red wine (use a good but cheap one)
1 teaspoon thyme
1 each 15 oz. can diced tomatoes
2 cups chicken stock or more to cover chicken and veggies
3 tablespoons unsalted butter

- Take 1/2 the oil and mix in a bowl with the chicken, garlic, and salt and pepper.
- Pre-heat a large sauté pan.
- Add the remaining oil and brown the chicken on each side for about a minute.
- Remove chicken from pan and set aside in a large casserole dish that can go in the oven later.
- Add the bacon to the sauté pan and cook till brown, and then sprinkle over the chicken without the fat in the pan.
- Use the fat in the pan to brown the onion, carrots and mushrooms.
- Add the diced tomatoes and cook for 5 minutes.
- Add the wine and let simmer for 5 minutes.
- Pour over the chicken and bacon; add the thyme and chicken stock. Bake in a 350° oven for 20 to 30 minutes or till chicken is tender.
- Remove chicken from casserole and place on a platter and keep warm.
- Take the sauce and vegetables and reduce by 1/2 in a saucepan. Finish with 3 tablespoons of unsalted butter. Season with salt and pepper to taste. Pour over the chicken and serve over butter noodles or mashed potatoes.

As Julia would say "bon appetite!" •
