Honoring our Military

The 54th Annual Armed Forces Day Celebration and Parade was held in Torrance last weekend. Each year, the City honors a different military branch; this year highlighted the United States Marine Corps. Grand Marshal, Major General Melvin Spiese, Former Commanding General, 1st Marine Expeditionary Force, Camp Pendleton, California, led the Parade on Saturday. Council Overturns Denial of Special Use Permit, Gives Business Owner Second Chance

By Cristian Vasquez

Despite the Planning Commission's denial of Special Use Permit No. 1166 and Design Review No. 74, and staff's recommendation to uphold the Commission's decision, the Inglewood City Council voted 3-1 on Tuesday to overturn the denial of both permits. "The item is a public hearing to consider an appeal of the Planning Commission for application for Special Use Permit [SUP] 1166 to allow the expansion of an existing beauty salon and also an appeal of Design Review 74 because the property is located in an art deco overlay zone and it requires that new construction in the area be consistent with art deco design standards," Acting Economic and Community Development Director Linda Tatum said.

The business in question, located at 3333 W. Manchester Boulevard, has been licensed to operate since January 2001 and has existed before the Inglewood municipal code was changed to require a SUP for modifications on a business in a general commercial zone. However, the owner never submitted an application to obtain an SUP and instead opted to begin the construction of an additional storage unit in the back of the property. The owner only submitted the application after a field inspection determined there was an unpermitted construction effort taking place.

"I have been broken into five times. Inglewood police has the records and we need a place for the beauty supplies--not the salon. There was already unit storage there. What we did was reinforce it and make it stronger to store supplies," Business owner Larry Oko said. "I am here asking Council and Mayor to just give me that opportunity where I can store my beauty supply things. As he said, it was bad idea not to ask for a permit initially and we want to make things right."

All Council members and the Mayor expressed their displeasure with the owner's decision to engage in construction efforts, even if the expansion was not in complete violation of the municipal code--which requires that the art deco match the zone's requirement since it was not an expansion of the business' square footage, but an improvement on an existing storage unit. District No. 4 Councilman Ralph L. Franklin was the lone vote of dissent and expressed his reluctance to continue allowing what he called "weekend warriors" to carry out construction efforts when City Hall is closed (usually the weekends) so that they don't have to file for permits and so that the City does not find out about the work.

"Our inspectors go out into the district to find these violations in process--now all of a sudden they [violators] want to say, 'Have mercy on us,'" Franklin said. "In essence, we have a uniform obligation to make sure that we uphold what this council has adopted and which is enforced by the staff--that is the municipal code. When I hear developers come to us and say I have been in business 10 years and they are clueless to needing a permit for a structure, I find that challenging to accept. The other thing I find challenging is that neither one of the gentlemen in this case showed interest in coming to the Commissioner's meetings last year. Still, they did not offer a letter of explanation in February of this year."

For District No. 2 Councilwoman Judy Dunlap and District No. 3 Councilman Eloy Morales, Jr., the violations by the owner should not go unpunished, but denying the ability to continue operating his business in the city was not the appropriate solution. "I don't know the business that they have--it is not my district--but I have no interest in creating another vacancy," Dunlap said. "I believe that we need be as business-friendly as we can to those businesses that are operating here in the city. They are not asking to come in. They are already here. They [business] already have six operators that provide an adequate living for their families. I for one believe that if there is a fine that can be imposed for not filing the proper permits, that is appropriate. I do not believe a special use permit would be necessary here because they are building a storage area. It has nothing to do with the hair salon. I have no objection to the moving forward."

The item will come back at a later date for the Council to uphold the new direction of the permits for the storage unit. In addition, the item will return with clear stipulations as to a fine being imposed.

"The problem when we grandfather in properties is that we tie them into staying exactly the way they are. I have seen it with residents who would like to fix their homes--but because they are grandfathered in, they can't seem to fix anything up," Morales said. "We as a city end up inheriting properties that could be better off otherwise. Here, the intention of the wording we are trying to follow does not leave us any better. We gain nothing by enforcing this, but we should impose a fine for the process of getting out of line. I would be more open to that." •

Five Super Nutrients That Help You Age Well

(BPT) - Parents often use the adage "You are what you eat!" to encourage children to make healthy food choices, but the saying is equally true for mature adults. Providing your body with a variety of nutrients lets you feel your best, and may even prevent disease and help you live longer.

Allison Tannis is a nutritionist, author and professional consultant. She believes that aging well means eating well. She recommends these five super nutrients to help baby boomers and older adults age well and stay healthy.

1. Omega-3s

"It can be hard to see fat as healthy, but omega-3 fatty acids are potentially one of the most important nutrients for our health," says Tannis. "Omega-3 fatty acids are vital to the maintenance and function of our eyes, brain and nervous system - parts of us that start to weaken with increasing age. In addition, these healthy fats have great ability to fight inflammation that is the cause of painful joints, cardiovascular disease and even wrinkles."

How can you get your daily dose of 1 to 2 grams of omega-3s, as recommended by the American Heart Association? Wild-caught fish like salmon, sardines and Arctic char are good sources of omega-3s. Plant sources of omega-3s include flax, chia and hemp. It can be difficult to get enough omega-3s from food sources, so supplements are a good alternative.

"Every morning I wake with the best intentions of eating healthy, but then life can get in the way," Tannis says. "Using daily supplements ensures my body gets all of the essential nutrients it needs to be at its best. I take Nordic Naturals fish oils, available in liquids, soft gels and even an effervescent drink."

2. Vitamin D

"Vitamin D is really only available to us from the sun," explains Tannis. "Sure, there are foods such as milk and orange juice that have added vitamin D. For some, these foods are a great choice, but for others, it can be hard to ensure you're getting enough of this essential vitamin through fortified foods."

Older people are prone to vitamin D deficiency, and therefore, may experience muscle weakness or impaired intestinal absorption. Tannis suggests that everyone, no matter their age, consider a vitamin D supplement if diet and sun exposure aren't adequate. From tasteless liquid drops to pills that combine multiple nutrients, there are a variety of options for vitamin D supplementation.

3. Probiotics

"Probiotics fight inflammation, promote digestive health and much more," says Tannis. "With age, there is a decrease in the most prominent probiotic in the colon, Bifidobacteria, leaving the colon prone to inflammation, which increases the risk of disease and discomfort."

Foods like kefir and yogurt are common sources of probiotics, but often it's not enough to get the full benefits. Probiotic supplements are a great way to maintain and rebuild probiotic levels in your digestive tract. "Seek out one with lots of different probiotic species," recommends Tannis. "You've got hundreds of kinds of probiotics in you. Each probiotic offers its own unique health benefits to your body, so having lots of different kinds in your system can help your body be at its best."

4. Green foods

"Greens are packed with more nutrients per bite than almost anything else on your plate. They are full of vitamins, minerals, antioxidants, enzymes and more," says Tannis.

What green foods are the best?

"The best greens to eat are the ones you like - you don't have to hate your food. Love your food! Choose some greens that you enjoy and then, once a week, try something outside your comfort zone," Tannis suggests. "If you simply can't stomach enough greens, there are plenty of powders available, from simple single ingredient products to complex formulas."

5. Multivitamins

No matter what your age, eating a balanced diet provides your body with plenty of nutrients. "Try to ensure that at some point each day you enjoy foods from each color of the rainbow, and artificial coloring doesn't count," says Tannis.

Taking a multivitamin is one way to ensure your body has the minimum amounts of the essential nutrients it needs each day to function properly. If you are considering a multivitamin, look for one that is designed for your age, activity level and gender.

"Food hasn't changed, even though it feels that everyone is telling you something new about it," says Tannis. "Enjoy a well-balanced diet, rich in colorful fruits, vegetables, nuts, seeds, beans, whole grains and fish. Nutrition really can be easy to swallow." •

"How far you go in life depends on your being tender with the young, compassionate with the aged, sympathetic with the striving and tolerant of the weak and strong. Because someday in your life you will have been all of these."

~ George Washington Carver

News for the City of Good Neighbors

From City Clerk Norb Huber Tornadoes in Hawthorne

This week we saw the destruction in Oklahoma from 200 MPH winds. We pray for those people and thank God that we don't have to worry about that ever happening in Hawthorne. But it has. On November 7, 1966, a tornado touched down in the eastern part of the city. The twister tore the roofs off of many homes and apartment complexes in what is known as Moneta Gardens today. A four minute video of the destruction is posted on You-Tube. So, if you think the only thing we have to worry about is earthquakes, think again.

A Very Good TASTE of Hawthorne

What a great day it was in Hawthorne on Sunday as the first annual TASTE of Hawthorne event ran its course up at the Hawthorne Airport. A large crowd was present for the music, displays, and most of all the great food. I indulged in the lobster cakes. It turned out that an old friend from my church is the owner of the lobster truck and it was great to see him explaining how he has the lobsters flown in fresh from Boston every few days. All I know is they were fantastic along with the rest of the TASTE. Congratulations to the Economic Development Board of Hawthorne for sponsoring a very successful event.

Time to Fly Your American Flag

Memorial Day is this coming Monday. Dig that American flag out of the closet and fly it proudly in honor of all those who have given their lives for our freedom. The Hawthorne VFW will hold a Memorial Day ceremony on Monday, May 27 at 10 a.m. at the Hawthorne Memorial Center. Don't forget to fly the flag again on June 14, Flag Day.

Community K9 Dinner

The 33rd annual Community BBQ Dinner will be held on Thursday, May 23 with dinners being served from 5 to 6:45 p.m. There is always a raffle held and the Hawthorne Police dogs put on a show for all in attendance. The $5 price for a good meal has not changed in the 33 years of the event. Children under 12 years of age eat for $2.50. Bring your family and help support our city.

Hawthorne Mural Project Announced

All entries will be put on display at the Museum and the winner will have the opportunity to share their talent with the mural completion.

Service Providers Fair - Earth Day Event - Saturday, June 1

St. Mary's Runs Away with CIF Track and Field Crown

St. Mary's Academy's Siera Peterson dashes to victory in the 200-meter dash at last Saturday's CIF-Southern Section Division IV Track and Field Championships in 23.96 seconds. The Belles captured their first CIF title in five years as a team. Photo by Joe Snyder

By Joe Snyder

After seeing Del Rey League rival Gardena Serra win the CIF-Southern Section Division IV girls' track and field championships over the past four seasons, St. Mary's Academy from Inglewood was able to get its first crown in five seasons last Saturday at Mt. San Antonio College in Walnut. The Belles accumulated 104 points to 54 for runner-up Westlake Village Oaks Christian and 47 for third place Serra, which was also last season's California state champion.

St. Mary's started and finished the meet well. Its 4x100-meter relay team captured the first race at 47.15 seconds and then closed its meet by winning the 4x400, clocking three minutes and 53.53 seconds.

Runners in the 4x100 included Aliyah Hale,

Morgan Pecante, Rachel Toliver and Sierra Peterson. Zuri Henderson, who finished seventh in the 400 in 59.42, anchored the Belles' 1,600 relay with Hale, Pecante and Robyn Miller running the first three legs respectively. In the 400, Pecante was fifth timing 58.67. Peterson captured the 200 with an outstanding time of 23.96.

Both St. Mary's relays and Peterson advanced to Friday's CIF-Southern Section Masters Championships at Cerritos College Friday starting at 4 p.m. Those who get qualifying finishes or times will move on to the California State Championships at Buchanan High in Clovis (Fresno area) on May 31 and June 1.

Although both failed to advance, the Belles had a third and fourth place from sophomore Briana Shufford (12.26) and junior Allannah Hughes (12.43) in the 100. Schuyler Moore of Oaks Christian (11.93) and West Los Angeles Notre Dame Academy's Ugo Ogbunamiri (12.09) were first and second respectively

HAWTHORNE SOFTBALLERS GET OUSTED

Hawthorne High's softball team was eliminated in the first round of the CIF-Southern Section Division IV playoffs by host Loara High 11-3 last Thursday in Fullerton. An eight-run third inning proved pivotal in the Saxons' win.

Loara already built a 10-0 lead through four innings before the Cougars scored three runs in the top of the third—all from a three-run home run by fourth-year starting senior Diane Montenegro. Hawthorne mustered just three hits off Saxon sophomore pitcher Vanessa Ledesna, who struck out 16 batters and walked just one.

The Cougars ended their season at 14-13-1 after finishing second behind champion Santa Monica in the Ocean League. Loara moved into last Tuesday's second round action at Riverside Patriot with a 20-6 record. The Saxons placed second in the Golden West League.

TEMESCAL CANYON BLASTS COUGARS OUT

A shorthanded Hawthorne team was able to get a playoff spot, due to being over .500 overall, but its wildcard game at Temescal Canyon was short-lived in a 17-1 blowout loss on May 14 in Lake Elsinore. After a scoreless first inning, the Tigers scored two or more runs in all of their next five innings to complete the rout. Included were back-to-back five-run innings in the bottom of the fourth and fifth innings.

Temescal totaled 19 hits to just four for Hawthorne. The Cougar defense also committed five errors. Hawthorne scored its only run in the top of the sixth.

With the loss, the Cougars, who tied for fourth place with Inglewood in the Ocean League, ended their season at 14-12-1. Over the past month, Hawthorne lost four players due to academic ineligibility and two more who were injured.

TOP SEED FINISHES OFF ENVIRONMENTAL CHARTER

After a 14-8 home win over Valley Torah from Valley Village in a CIF-Southern Section Division VII wildcard game on May 14, Environmental Charter High's baseball team from Lawndale was blanked by top-seeded Nuviev Bridge 9-0 in the first round last Thursday in Nuevo, located northeast of Victorville. At Roger Anderson Park in Lawndale on May 14, the White Tigers surged out to an 8-0 lead through three innings. NOTICE OF IMPENDING POWER TO SELL TAX-DEFAULTED PROPERTY

Made pursuant to Section 3361, Revenue and Taxation Code
Notice is hereby given that real property taxes and assessments on the parcels described below will have been defaulted five or more years, or, in the case of nonresidential commercial property, property on which a nuisance abatement lien has been recorded or that can serve the public benefit by providing housing or services directly related to low-income persons when three or more years have elapsed and a request has been made by a city, county, city and county, or nonprofit organization that property will become subject to the Tax Collector's power to sell.

All information concerning redemption or the initiation of an installment plan of redemption will be furnished, upon request, by Mark J. Saladino, Los Angeles County Treasurer and Tax Collector, 225 North Hill Street, First Floor, Los Angeles, California 90012.

DELIVERY IN LIMITED AREA AT BOTH LOCATIONS

I have always loved spicy foods. Growing up in Buffalo, New York you learned to appreciate the heat in the buffalo wing sauce and respect it.

Over the years I have had chilies and spicy sauces all over the world.

Most of the chili sauces that are sold commercially are too vinegary for my taste and not enough other flavors.

So I have come up with a way to make a great hot sauce without the vinegar to ruin your taste buds.

The Chef

Garlic Chili Sauce

- 1 cup vegetable oil
- 1/2 cup garlic cloves
- 1/2 cup chopped onions
- 1 cup chopped chilies
- (Use your favorite Jalapeño, Serrano, Habanero, Thai or even dried chilies will work, but remember they all have different heat meters.)
- 1 cup tomato puree
- 1/2 cup seasoned rice vinegar
- Salt to taste.

In a tall sauce pan, heat the oil. When it is hot, add the garlic and cook till golden brown.

Next, add the onions and cook till nice and soft about 2 minutes.

Next, stir in the chilies and cook for 3 to 4 more minutes.

Add the tomato puree and vinegar and simmer for 6 to 8 more minutes.

Season with salt and place in a blender to puree till smooth and creamy.

Chill and eat.

This will get you hoppin!

The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the street address and other common designation, if any, shown herein. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on a property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 1-800-281-8219 or visit this Internet Web site www.recontrustco.com, using the file number assigned to this case TS No. 10-0054533. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. Pets Without Partners

Adopt a “pet without a partner” and give a homeless pet a second chance in life.

Ramsey is a little six-pound ball of fire. He is spunky, energetic and full of himself. He is hilarious! Ramsey is about three years old and was found as a stray. Sadly, his owners were never located. He is fine with other dogs, a little goof ball and would best be placed with children over 10 years old. Ramsey is a very go-with-the-flow little guy and will make a great addition into any home situation. Ramsey is neutered, current on vaccinations, de-wormed, microchipped and good with other dogs.

Bigelow was born on January 19, 2013. He was in a litter of five Beagle puppies that came from a breeder’s home who got into trouble for having too many dogs on her property. We quickly took these little guys in so they would not land in the shelter. Bigelow has the biggest ears of the bunch and is a total love of a puppy. He is your normal, bouncy, playful, sweet little guy who’s looking for a forever home. This pup is full of personality and very lovable. Bigelow needs to be adopted within two or three cities away from our home base of San Pedro, as he will need to come back for vaccinations and to be neutered.

To learn more about these and other wonderful dogs, visit our website at www.animalsrule.org. If a dog is on our website, it’s available. Or come to our Saturday adoption events from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at 305 North Harbor Boulevard in San Pedro (just off the 110 near the cruise port). We are always in need of donations for veterinarian bill and our senior dogs. Donations can be made through our website or by sending a check payable to: Animals Rule Placement Foundation at 305 North Harbor Blvd., San Pedro, CA 90731. All donations are tax-deductible. We are a registered 501©3 non-profit organization.

Purrrfect Companions

Add a little love with a new best friend when you adopt your purr-fect partner.

Zoe is a darling three-month-old kitten who is in need of a human companion who is caring, patient and playful. At first meeting she is a timid girl, but warms up quickly and purrs like an engine. She is seeking a home that will give her the attention she needs to overcome her shyness. Zoe likes other cats, especially her siblings, but she wouldn’t mind a playful and friendly feline companion to bond with at her new home. Her ideal home is calm, with no children or crazy dogs to scare her, and preferably with one or two mature adults who can cater to her needs.

Pretty Boy is a gorgeous, blue-eyed Turkish Van/Siamese mix with taupe markings on his head and tail. He is a very affectionate boy who is playful with both human companions and other cats. Pretty Boy is looking for a safe and loving home where he could enjoy time with a kitty playmate.

Peanut is a loving young dog who gets along with other dogs and especially loves children. Yes, you read correctly. Peanut is a

Happy Tails

Misi (pronounced mee-see) was born in backyard feral colony. The kind caregivers wanted a better chance in life for some of these kitties and were able to bring a few of the kittens into their home. Misi and her brother were two of the lucky ones. As they became socialized, they found their way to a Kitten Rescue foster home on the next step of their journey. Black cats (and dogs) are often overlooked and the last to be adopted. Miraculously, within a week of each other, Misi and her brother both were adopted and found their purr-fect forever homes.

Her family wrote to share the news of Misi’s third birthday and the addition of a new kitty companion in their family...

“Misi is very at-home with us now. No longer hiding under the bed. She even has a playmate--a five-year-old orange kitty named Bubba we rescued after our neighbor kicked him out and left him. They love to wrestle and chase each other. They even cozy up together and sleep. Misi turned out to be the sweetest cuddler. She’ll cuddle for hours and nap with us. She’s such a good kitty. We can have our front door wide open and she won’t leave the doorstep. She’s a happy kitty and we love her so much. We are ever grateful to you for taking her in. Big thank you!” – Regards, Marisa.

When you adopt a “pet without a partner,” you will forever make a difference in their life and they are sure to make a difference in yours. •
