Lawndale Elects New Mayor, Incumbents for City Council

By Nancy Peters

On Tuesday, April 8, for the first time in 20 years, the City of Lawndale has a new Mayor. Robert Pullen-Miles, a City Councilman for 10 years, was elected to a two-year term by 138 votes, or a 10 percent margin over his opponent with 55.20 percentage points. Daniel Reid, who ran a campaign for his first election bid, won only one of the four precincts in the city.

Pullen-Miles has been a resident of Lawndale for 20 years and prior to his Council bid in 2004 served on the Planning Commission for 10 years as well. Currently, he works as a Rules Committee Officer for the California State Legislature assigned to the office of State Senator Ted Lieu. He is a former Probation Officer of the County of Los Angeles and is a certified Emergency Management Services Technician who did practice as an EMT for a few years.

His election motto—"I'm Pullen for YOU!"—apparently indicated to the voters of Lawndale that his commitment to the City and its residents is what they are looking for in their leader. Harold Hofmann served as Lawndale Mayor for 20 years and ran unopposed for most of his 10 election cycles. His successor announced his campaign soon after Hofmann's death in November 2013. Hofmann was the one who encouraged Pullen-Miles to run for his first City Council campaign in 2004.

Pullen-Miles plans to advocate for economic development for Lawndale and guide the City "in a new direction, with innovation and vigor...to do bigger and better..." His campaign promised to bring in new businesses that will expand the tax base and develop a business improvement district.

Also on Tuesday, incumbents Larry Rudolph and Pat Kearney were reelected with 888 and 893 votes, respectively. Their wins totaled 86.29 percent of the votes in the Councilmember category, or 43.02 percent for Rudolph and 43.27 percent for Kearney. The challenger, Gary McDonald, garnered a total of 283 votes, or a 13.71 percent.

Rudolph has served on the Council for 28 years and as Mayor Pro Tem for a few cycles. Kearney, the Mayor Pro Tem at the time of Hofmann's death, led the Council since November. This was Kearney's second election. With Pullen-Miles, Rudolph and Kearney back on the dais to join Councilmember James Osborne, there is still one vacant seat on the Council that will need to be filled by either appointment or a special election.

Rudolph is an advocate for public safety and also a watchdog for improvements of the city's roads and sidewalks. Kearney campaigned on a platform for improving local parks. The two walked the community together and spoke to a majority of the residents.

Also on the ballot on Tuesday was the election of a City Clerk. Both candidates were running for their first elected offices. Marge Heinemann, a current member of the Beautification Commission and a volunteer who attends Council meetings as an interested party sharing her ideas for improving the city; and Bernadette Suarez, a resident of Lawndale whose family has lived here for three generations and continually serves on many committees as a volunteer, were the two candidates.

Suarez won the election with 695 votes--120 more than Heinemann's 575. Suarez won two of the precincts with 54.72 percent of the total votes, or 9.44 points more than Heinemann's 45.28 percentage points.

The next meeting of the Lawndale City Council will be held on Monday, April 21 at 6:30 p.m. when Pullen-Miles will be sworn in as the Mayor, Kearney and Rudolph will take their oaths of office for their four-year terms as Council members; and Suarez will be sworn as the new City Clerk. A reception will follow prior to the first gavel by Pullen-Miles to begin a new regime. •

News for the 'City of Good Neighbors'

CLIMBING ROCKS IN HAWTHORNE?

Yes, you can do some rock climbing in Hawthorne! There are large boulders and a thirty foot high sheer rock wall in our city. You may be wondering, "Where would this be?" It is true, you can experience the thrill of rock climbing, practice your climbing skills, and get a full body workout all at the same time at Hangar 18 Rock Gym located just off of Rosecrans Avenue. Hidden in a small industrial park is the gym that has 2,000 members paying a monthly membership fee to do something fun while working their bodies and mind. My nephew, Erik, from Bend, OR is staying with us while working towards his university degree. He is an avid rock climber. There are many climbing areas up in his Central Oregon community. He finds it enjoyable to climb while he is here in the big city.

sporting events are not being shown to the "average joe" fan. Some of the biggest sporting events are now only shown on cable networks. The Rose Bowl football game, for example, is shown on ESPN. What all this means is that the little guys are being left out. If you do not pay for cable or satellite then you will not see what I saw on free television back when I was growing up. I became a baseball fan from watching the sport on a black and white television every Saturday afternoon. I realize that most people put cable television as a high priority in their family's monthly budget, right after their cell phones. I just think that the Dodgers are Los Angeles' team and everyone in LA should have the chance to watch their team play without paying $100 per month for a cable bill.

OFFICE HOURS FOR CITY COUNCIL MEMBERS

Alex Vargas holds open office hours from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m. on the Mondays before any regular City Council meeting. Olivia Valentine has office hours for community members to visit with her on the Thursdays prior to the City Council meeting from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m. All other council members and Mayor Brown can be reached by calling 310-349-2908. Or you can go to the new city website at www.cityofhawthorne.org to find their email addresses.

CITY OF HAWTHORNE MOVING FORWARD

The City Council is considering taking the initial action to purchase multiple properties located in the civic center area surrounding the current city hall. The long range goal is to develop the entire downtown area to make it the true center of civic activity. This plan will take many years to evolve and require a lot of outside funding.

CENTINELA VALLEY UNION HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD MEETINGS

There has been quite a bit of interest in attending the CVUHSD meetings lately. All regular governing board meetings are held on the second or third Tuesday of the month and will convene at 5:45 p.m. in the Centinela Valley Center for the Arts, located at 14901 Inglewood Avenue, Lawndale. The next meeting is scheduled for April 15. The Daily Breeze has been investigating the financial expenditures of the governing board recently.

ROCK AROUND THE BLOCK

The Wiseburn Education Foundation annually puts on a great fundraising event called, "Rock Around the Block". This year it will be held on Saturday, May 3 at Dana Middle School. There are games, food, vendors and raffles, plenty of fun for the entire family.

THANK YOU

Thank you to all of you who attended our annual Pancake Breakfast. We served over 600 people last Saturday morning. It was a great event.

The only time I've experienced a little taste of rock climbing was several years ago on our annual "men only" fishing trip up in the High Sierras of Central California. I was brave enough to climb down the side of a rock cliff using a rope tied around my waist. This is called belaying. "Belaying" is the term used to describe a "variety of techniques climbers use to exert friction on a climbing rope so that a falling climber does not fall very far". I noticed that the floor of the Hangar 18 gym is padded. So, if a climber does fall, they may survive. I think I will leave this activity to the younger folks. (Hangar 18 Rock Gym is located at 4926 W. Rosecrans Avenue. You can call them at 310-973-3388 or check out their website at www.climbhangar18.com.)

AMERICA'S PASTIME IS IN TROUBLE

The Los Angeles Dodgers held their home opener last Friday and unless you had tickets to the game, or a Time Warner subscriber, you could not see the Boys in Blue play their hated rivals, the San Francisco Giants. The contract negotiations will continue between Time Warner and other providers. In the mean time, most Dodger fans will have to listen to Dodger games on the radio. This is big deal right now for Dodger fans, but it's not the only time

Crenshaw/LAX Transit Project

metro.net/projects

Spring 2014 Project Update

As construction progresses on the Crenshaw/LAX Transit Project, Metro and Walsh-Shea Corridor Constructors (WSCC) are committed to providing the most up-to-date information on construction activities being performed along the 8.5-mile project route.

Running from the Expo Line to the Green Line, the Crenshaw/LAX Transit Project has eight stations and will serve the Crenshaw District, Inglewood, Westchester and the surrounding LAX area with stations at Crenshaw/Exposition, Crenshaw/Martin Luther King Bl, Crenshaw/Vernon (Leimert Park), Crenshaw/Slauson, Florence/West, Florence/La Brea, Florence/Hindry and Aviation/Century.

Current Construction

Construction on the underground stations is anticipated to begin in late April with pile installation at Crenshaw Bl/Exposition Bl and Crenshaw Bl/Martin Luther King Bl. Concurrently, demolition work is slated to begin on the Florence construction yard located at Florence Av/LaBrea Av. As the Crenshaw/LAX Transit Project is a design-build project, project design continues while construction begins.

Properties located at the future Expo construction yard have been cleared, and work on a 16-foot sound wall surrounding the yard has begun. Along the route, geographical boring (obtaining soil samples) and potholing (checking for underground utilities), as well as railroad track removal along Florence Av and utility relocation continue.

Community Updates

Metro held a January 2014 groundbreaking ceremony to kick off the start of construction. More recently, the project held its first community construction update meeting, an Open House at its new Airport Project Office at 9323 Bellanca Av. The event saw hundreds in attendance.

Metro now provides daily project updates via Facebook (facebook.com/crenshawrail), Twitter (@crenshawrail) and emails. Several project factsheets pertaining to trees, work permits and environmental standards have been distributed. Metro will also continue to meet with community stakeholders to provide project updates.

Other activities include partnering with community organizations to coordinate events promoting careers in construction. This has included appearances at Career Day at Crenshaw and Inglewood High Schools and mentoring two Morningside High School students for the day at Metro headquarters.

Further, outreach to local artists has begun regarding the process of submitting art for Metro stations. The project team has also expanded with the addition of new members to WSCC and Metro. Moreover, the Crenshaw/LAX Transit Project and WSCC have contracted with several local vendors to provide a myriad of services to the project.

WSCC is a joint venture between Walsh Construction and J.F. Shea Company. Together, they have collaborated on many rail projects in the United States, including systems in Dallas, Phoenix, Charlotte and Chicago. In addition to its October Business Opportunities Summit, WSCC has made an immediate impact in the Crenshaw/LAX community by hosting two food drives and a toy drive for the 2013 holiday season.

Rosetta Sets Sights on Destination Comet

By Bob Eklund

The European Space Agency's Rosetta spacecraft has caught a first glimpse of its destination comet, after waking up from deep-space hibernation on 20 January. Two 'first light' images were taken on March 20 and 21 by the OSIRIS wide-angle camera and narrow-angle camera, as part of six weeks of activities dedicated to preparing the spacecraft's science instruments for close-up study of comet 67P/Churyumov-Gerasimenko.

OSIRIS, the Optical, Spectroscopic and Infrared Remote Imaging System aboard the spacecraft, developed under the leadership of the Max-Planck-Institut für Sonnensystemforschung in Göttingen, Germany, has two cameras for imaging the comet. One covers a wide angle, while the narrow-angle camera covers a smaller field at higher resolution.

OSIRIS is one of a suite of 11 science instruments on the Rosetta orbiter that together will provide details on the comet's surface geology, its gravity, mass, shape and internal structure, its gaseous, dust-laden atmosphere and its plasma environment.

Rosetta has been traveling through the solar system for 10 years and will finally arrive at the comet in August this year. It first imaged the comet in a long exposure of over 13 hours from a distance of 163 million kilometers, three years ago, before entering deep-space hibernation.

Rosetta is currently around five million kilometers from the comet, and at this distance it is still too far away to resolve—its light is seen in less than a pixel and required a series of 60- to 300-second exposures taken with the wide-angle and narrow-angle camera. The data then travelled 37 minutes through space to reach Earth, with the download taking about an hour per image.

"Finally seeing our target after a 10-year journey through space is an incredible feeling," says OSIRIS Principal Investigator Holger Sierks from the Max Planck Institute for Solar System Research in Germany. "These first images taken from such a huge distance show us that OSIRIS is ready for the upcoming adventure."

"This is a great start to our instrument commissioning period, and we are looking forward to having all 11 instruments plus lander Philae back online and ready for arriving at the comet in just a few months' time," says Matt Taylor, ESA's Rosetta project scientist.

OSIRIS and the spacecraft's dedicated navigation cameras will regularly acquire images over the coming weeks to help refine Rosetta's trajectory in order to bring it steadily in line with the comet ahead of the rendezvous. Currently, Rosetta is on a trajectory that would, if unchanged, take it past the comet at a distance of approximately 50,000 km and at a relative speed of 800 m/s. A critical series of maneuvers beginning in May will gradually reduce Rosetta's velocity relative to the comet to just 1 m/s and bring it to within 100 km by the first week of August.

Between May and August the 4-km-wide comet will gradually 'grow' in Rosetta's field of view from appearing to have a diameter of less than one camera pixel to well over 2,000 pixels—equivalent to a resolution of around 2 m per pixel—allowing the first surface features to be resolved.

These early observations will allow the rotation rate and the shape of the nucleus to be better understood, crucial for planning maneuvers around the comet. An initial assessment of the comet's activity will also be possible.

With OSIRIS re-activated in the first week of instrument commissioning, Rosetta's 10 other science experiments, along with lander Philae, will provide the focus for the next months' activities. •

Fast Start Keys Tigers Over Aviators

By Joe Snyder

Local high school sports fans are used to the rivalries between Hawthorne, Lawndale and Leuzinger, and Inglewood and Morningside, but a rivalry baseball game between two local smaller schools--host Hawthorne Math and Science Academy and Environmental Charter from Lawndale--was played last Thursday at Alondra Park. The White Tigers entered the game unbeaten in seven games, while the Aviators were struggling at 0-7. Environmental Charter started quickly with nine first inning runs and went on to down Hawthorne Math and Science 15-9.

In the top of the first, the Tigers sent 13 batters to the plate. They took advantage of six hits, three errors, one walk and one hit batsman to race to a quick 9-0 lead. Highlighting the big inning were Rolando Sosa with a two-run double and Cesar Lopez and Alexis Muro each with run-scoring singles.

After his poor start, losing pitcher Antonio Navarro went on to strike out eight consecutive batters and retired nine in a row before walking Juan Salcedo in the top of the fourth. He finished with 13 strikeouts in five innings.

The Aviators managed one run in the bottom of the fourth when Dennis Toledo doubled and scored on a throwing error. Environmental added two runs in the top of the fifth, behind an RBI single from Donis for an 11-1 lead.

Base runner Juan Salcedo of Lawndale Environmental Charter slides safely to second base after a failed attempt to tag him out by Hawthorne Math and Science Academy second baseman Marcus Cooper in last Thursday's Harbor League baseball rivalry. The White Tigers downed the Aviators 15-9. Environmental Charter faces Pacific Lutheran at the Henderson Youth Sports Complex in San Pedro on Friday at 4 p.m. Hawthorne Math and Science hosts El Segundo Vistamar at Alondra Park next Tuesday at 3:15 p.m.

Hawthorne Math and Science got its offense going, scoring eight runs in the last three innings. Navarro had a two-run triple in the bottom of the sixth. The Tigers scored three in the sixth and one in the seventh to keep a good distance ahead of the Aviators.

Sosa sparked Environmental's offense by going two for five with two RBIs and two runs. Donis was two for four, reached base on an error, scored three runs and drove in one.

For Hawthorne Math and Science, Toledo went two for four, drove in one run and scored twice. Daniel Arias was two for four, including a two-run single in the bottom of the fifth.

The Tigers visit Pacific Lutheran from Gardena at the Henderson Youth Sports Complex in San Pedro on Friday at 4 p.m. The Aviators are at home against Vistamar from El Segundo next Tuesday at 3:15 p.m.

HAWTHORNE DEFEATS RH PREP

Hawthorne High's baseball team increased its record to 7-4-1 with a 6-1 home victory over Rolling Hills Prep from San Pedro last Thursday. Cougar pitchers combined for 12 strikeouts.

Hawthorne will have a pair of Centinela Valley District rivalry games at home against Lawndale and Leuzinger next week. The Cougars host the Cardinals next Wednesday at 3:15 p.m. and then face the Olympians on April 11 at the same time. Hawthorne swept those two opponents earlier this season, defeating host Lawndale 9-7 and host Leuzinger 14-2.

LOCAL HOOPSTERS PLAY IN ALL-STAR CLASSIC

Several local prep boys' and girls' basketball players vied in last Thursday's South Bay All-Star Classic at South Torrance High School. In the girls' game, the Red stars held off the Blue team 57-52. The Blues captured the boys' contest 112-106 over the Reds.

For the Red team in the girls' contest, Hawthorne's Kristina Brown scored four points. Leading the Reds was DeMoria White of Playa del Rey St. Bernard with 14 points.

The Reds held a 19-point (56-37) fourth quarter lead, but the Blues chipped away to make the game close. The Red squad was coached by Hawthorne's Joe House and Marcelo Enriquez from Redondo. The Blue team was coached by McKinsey Hadley from Gardena Serra and Rick Momohara of Torrance.

For the boys, Morningside head coach Donnell Meekins helped Manhattan Beach Mira Costa head mentor Jeff Amaral coach the Blues to a high-scoring win over the Reds. It was a game that featured several slam dunks and three-point baskets.

Local players on the Blue team were

Gabe Salache and James Brown from Morningside and Lawndale's R'Lando Beckles. Beckles, who keyed the Cardinals to their second consecutive Pioneer League championship this past season, had eight points. "There were a lot of great athletes out there," Meekins said. "We tried to do a little bit of everything."

The Monarchs finished only fourth in the Ocean League behind champion Beverly Hills, second place Santa Monica and third place Inglewood, but recorded a league-ending victory over the rival Sentinels on February 13 at Morningside. This past Morningside squad was senior-studded as it had Dakaria King play on the Red squad.

Salache, meanwhile, had 14 three-pointers in the pregame three-point shooting contest. He was second behind Palos Verdes' Connor McKeeve who had 16.

Also on the Red all-stars was Inglewood's only senior player, Cory Dollarhide, who had two points. Dollarhide keyed the Sentinels to the CIF-Southern Section Division IAA semifinals where they fell one point behind eventual champion Long Beach Poly 48-47 on March 4 at Poly.

Coaching the Reds were Doug Mitchell, who guided Torrance Bishop Montgomery to the California State Division IV championship with an 85-44 blowout of Hayward Moreau Catholic on March 29 at the Sleep Train Arena in Sacramento, and Carson's Kevin Shaw. •

By Kelly Kemp

The Lawndale Girls Softball Team struggled this past Saturday at West Torrance, losing a doubleheader. But the girls tried really hard. Center Fielder Cynthia Lopez had a nice catch until she got injured crashing the fence in a valiant effort to run down a line drive, and her replacement, Ashley Fliegel, and Right Fielder Priscilla Rojas each had a couple of nice put outs. Opening the fourth inning, Pitcher

Samantha Hernandez had a nice hit. A walk and a miscue later, the bases were loaded with no outs. It was Lawndale's best opportunity to score. Unfortunately, a triple play ended the inning and thwarted the scoring chance.

"It was a disappointment," according to Head Coach Candace Vidaurrazaga. "But between games, I just told them, 'Stay positive, keep your head in the game.'" That goes for the rest of the season, so good luck, Lady Cardinals! •

You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (619)590-1221 or visit the internet website www.dlpplc.com, using the file number assigned to this case 1339155-31. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web Site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. For sales information: (619)590-1221. Cal-Western Reconveyance LLC, 525 East Main Street, P.O. Get your grill out its BBQ time in the South Bay.

This is my favorite time of year. It's still a little cool outside, but warm enough to eat outside and light enough to enjoy the evening sky. Can't tell you how many great memories I have from the summer BBQ pit at our summer cottage on the lake in Canada. We would pack up all our toys and head out to the lake till the day after Labor Day when school would start back up.

From June through September we required no shoes, no shirts, and no sleep. Only fun, and of course, stealing a couple of Canadian beers when my mom or the other parents were not looking. LOL

This is a great easy marinade that goes well with any kind of meat.

Hope you like it and happy summer time!
