Inglewood City Re-Appropriates Funds for National Recreation and Parks Association Grant

By Cristian Vasquez

Mayor James Butts and the Inglewood City Council approved a resolution amending the 2014-2015 fiscal year budget in order to redirect $30,403.10 to the National Recreation and Parks Association grant account.

The $30,403.10 that will be re-appropriated will be an addition of funds to the NRPA grant's account original $30,000 and $10,000 of in-kind nutritional literacy materials. In addition, the grant included a $1,200 stipend that cover travel expenses to Reston, Virginia in order for staff associated with the grant to attend "evidence-based nutrition literacy training for the OrganWise Guys Program." The staff report indicates that the OrganWise Program is specifically designed for the city's youth, which are at "out-of-school time program sites" during the summer and fall.

The City of Inglewood was awarded the NRPA grant on April 1. By May 13 the mayor and council agreed to accept the NRPA grant in order to "increase the number of healthy meals that children in low-income communities receive through the Summer Food Service Program and the Child and Adult Care Food Program during out of school times," stated the staff report.

Also agreed upon by the council that day was the funding to "provide evidence-based, age-appropriate nutrition literacy to children that create behavioral changes by teaching the importance of healthy eating; and implement nutrition and physical activity standards that increase access to healthier foods and increase opportunities for physical activity."

The grant also provides supplemental funding for a staff person, Program Specialist, who is responsible for coordinating all provisions related to the OWG nutrition literacy for kids age 10. The budget amendment was reported to be necessary to re-appropriate the balance of the funds provided by the NRPA grant from the 2013-2014 fiscal year to the 2014-2015 fiscal year.

The grant also provides supplemental funding for a staff person, Program Specialist, who is responsible for coordinating all provisions related to the OWG nutrition literacy for kids age 10.

COUNCIL ACCEPTS CITIZENS OPTIONS FOR PUBLIC SAFETY

Members of the Inglewood City Council voted to accept the Citizens Options for Public Safety grant in the amount of $176,547. Upon agreeing to accept the funds the city also approved spending the funds based on the recommendations made by the Inglewood Police Chief Mark Fronterotta, as well adopting a resolution that amends the 2014-2015 fiscal year budget in order to include the new funds.

COPS funds are being provided under the provisions of Assembly Bill 3229, which was enacted to provide counties and cities throughout the state with money based on a per capita basis for "law enforcement capital outlay supporting the front-line duties of the police department's sworn personnel" stated the staff report.

Since the 1996-1997 fiscal year the City of Inglewood has received COPS grant funds. As a recipient of these funds the state requires that the city's citizens are given an opportunity to "provide input and discuss the expenditure recommendations" that are made by the city's chief of police. The staff report indicates that the grant's guidelines establish that supporting the front-line efforts of police officers that the grant funds include: equipment, supplies, training, consultant services, public service announcements and recruitment advertising.

Upon analyzing the department's needs for the current fiscal year, the city's chief of police recommended that the COPS grant funds be used to obtain a new computer aided dispatch/records management system. To date the Inglewood Police Department relies on the Computer Aided Dispatch system, which the staff report describes as a "home-grown system created approximately 20 years ago." In the 20 years that the system has been in used, other CAD systems have been developed and made available that surpass the capabilities of what the police department has available.

Furthermore, the department's current system is becoming "costly and time-consuming" just to maintain because of its particular elements. The Records Management System used by the department also goes through similar complications as the CAD system due to its age.

For now the Inglewood Police Department is in the process of negotiating the cost of a new system with a selected vendor. Once a vendor and system are approved, the COPS grant, along with other funding sources, will be used for the initial phase of the project. •

Volunteers, City Officials Team up to Build Playplace

By Joanna Brody,
Brody Public Relations

Nearly 300 volunteers from The Smile Generation, Environmental Charter Schools, organizers from KaBOOM! and residents of the Inglewood community have teamed up to build a new community playground at Environmental Charter Middle School - Inglewood.

Designed in September when students from the school put crayons to paper to draw their dream playground, the new playspace includes a revolving ring to hang from and a rock-climbing wall. In keeping with its focus on experiential learning and using the environment as a way to both engage students and prepare them to become leaders in their communities, the new playground area also includes a number of sustainable features such as gardening spaces, recycling and composting bins, and shade structures.

ECMS - Inglewood is a free, public middle school in South Los Angeles that offers students a small, caring educational environment supporting their transition from elementary school to a college preparatory high school. The rigorous academic program prepares students for a college-prep high school and places an emphasis on social responsibility. Until today, the campus had no playground equipment. Without a safe place to play, ECMS students were not optimally developing essential physical, social and cognitive skills. Youths who do not have safe places to play outside spend much more time indoors, in front of a screen, rather than interacting with others, taking calculated risks, and developing physical coordination and strength. The new playground brings more than 300 kids in Inglewood one step closer to having the childhood they deserve.

“The Smile Generation is committed to bringing smiles to people’s faces and we were excited to partner with KaBOOM! again to create a place for the children to play and a place for them to smile,” said We Serve Manager Kyle Guerin. “We are thrilled that we had a hand in helping the Environmental Charter Middle School build a play area and that we were able to serve Inglewood community members with the on-site dental clinic that provided donated dentistry to those who do not have access to dental care.”

As part of the construction, volunteers assembled the playground from start to finish in less than six hours. They mixed and poured thousands of pounds of concrete and moved enough safety surfacing to cover nearly 9 NBA-sized basketball courts. Inglewood Councilman Ralph Franklin spent the entire day on campus moving mulch and building raised garden beds with the volunteers. Sixty-second District Assemblymember Steven Bradford and Inglewood Mayor James T. Butts, Jr., joined the volunteers to see the fruits of their labor and the transformation of a corner of the Inglewood community.

“It’s wonderful for our students to get a brand-new playground; but what is truly inspiring for our students is to see hundreds of adults, who have never met them, coming to spend their time building a playground so that students can have a safe, challenging, and fun playspace -- literally in their own backyard,” said Beth Bernstein-Yamashiro, principal of Environmental Charter Middle School - Inglewood. “In addition to the playground, Kaboom! and the Smile Generation volunteers built raised garden beds for our students to

Lawndale Finishes Second in Ocean after Routing Hawthorne

By Joe Snyder

Photos by Joe Snyder

Lawndale High's football team enjoyed its best season since its earlier days of the 1970s, finishing second behind champion and the CIF-Southern Section Western Division's second seeded El Segundo, in the Ocean League, by rolling over a shorthanded Hawthorne team 42-0 in both teams' league finale last Friday at Lawndale.

With that finish, the Cardinals, who ended their regular season at 6-4 overall and 4-1 in Ocean action, are in the Western Division playoffs where they open against Bay League champion Palos Verdes at a site to be determined, tentatively slated for 7:30 p.m.

Against the Cougars, who have been struggling since the year after winning their last league title 10 years ago, Lawndale dominated from start to finish. The Cardinals took a quick 14-0 lead in the fourth quarter behind touchdowns by Austin Manigo on a 12-yard run and Taylor Walker on a 35-yard pass reception from quarterback Chris Murray.

The Cardinals added three more TDs in the second period that included a 70-yard pass from Murray to Sauleao Isaiah Torres, a 30-yard interception return from Kiyaam Cooksey and Manigo's seven-yard run as Lawndale grabbed a 34-0 halftime lead.

Murray finished off the Cardinals' scoring with a 40-yard touchdown run with 11:24 left in the third quarter that was followed by his two-point conversion pass to Bryant Perkinson.

"It's great to win this game and make the playoffs," Lawndale head coach Rick Mathieson said. "No matter what happened, we're in. We'll probably be ninth or tenth seed in the playoffs."

Manigo had a big game rushing for 135 yards and two touchdowns. Murray threw for two TD's and ran for another.

Mathieson knows that the Cardinals will have to play at a much higher level and one of the those squads that is at that level is Palos Verdes that won its fourth consecutive Bay crown and holds a 23-game winning streak in that usually very competitive league after rolling over host and hill rival Rolling Hills Estates Peninsula 42-14 last Friday. The Sea Kings finished Bay action at 5-0 and are 7-3 overall after a mostly tough non-league schedule that included losses to top CIF-Los Angeles City Section Marine League teams Carson and Narbonne, that finished in a three-way tie with San Pedro. P.V. also lost to Southern Section PAC Five Marmonte League school Moorpark 24-20 on September 5.

The Sea Kings defeated Newport Harbor, which usually does well in the Southern Section West Valley Division Sunset League, 49-35 on September 12.

Palos Verdes is very well coached by head mentor Guy Gardner and usually plays well in the clutch. The Sea Kings have one Southern Section Northern Division title from two years ago and could surprise the division this season, with Pioneer League champion West Torrance being the top seed. P.V. has very good depth behind quarterback Steven Delcarson and running back Stanton Gilbertson, who rushed for 214 yards and four touchdowns in its win over the Panthers. Delcarson is tough both in passing and running. He rushed for 145 yards and two TD's in the Sea Kings' key 21-10 win over the Bay's runner-up Redondo on October 31.

Hawthorne ballcarrier Paris McDaniel attempts to run past Lawndale defenders during last Friday's Ocean League football game. The Cougars finished fifth after losing to the Cardinals 42-0.

Hawthorne started this season with potential but a rash of injuries virtually wiped out any Cougar hopes at a respectful season. Hawthorne lost seven starters to injuries, including key receivers Jamal Mill and Rojal Neely.

The Cougars ended their season at 3-7 overall and 1-4 in Ocean action with their only league victory at last place Beverly Hills (1-9, 0-5) on October 17.

INGLEWOOD TOPS MORNINGSIDE

In an Inglewood football rivalry last Friday at Coleman Stadium, Inglewood High closed out the season with its third straight Bay League win over Morningside 22-14.

The Sentinels had two touchdown runs of three and one yards by De Juan Tyson and a scoring run from Kendric Johnson.

Patrick June had a TD reception for the Monarchs, who ended their season last in the Bay at 0-5 and were 4-6 overall.

Despite a third place finish in league, Inglewood (4-6 overall and 3-2 in league) was not selected into the Western Division playoffs due to six leagues and 16 spots. The difference could have been the mass ejections from a scuffle that occurred that led to its double forfeit loss in a non-league game against host North Torrance on September 26 and another forfeit in non-league to L.A. University due to lack of eligible players a week later. Instead, the CIF-SS took four teams from the Pioneer League that included third place Torrance and fourth place South Torrance.

LEUZINGER WINS FINALE

Leuzinger High's football team had it tough going in the extremely highly competitive Pioneer League but finished on a good note with a 39-20 home win over Centennial from Compton last Friday.

Khalil Miller and Angelo Smith sparked the Olympians, who enjoyed their best overall season in several years at 4-6, with two touchdowns apiece. Miller scored on runs of four and 10 yards, and Smith caught scoring passes of 33 and 55 yards from quarterback Edwin Santos. J.J. Liavara had a 31-yard interception return for a TD and freshman Loren Downen scored on a four-yard run. Leuzinger finished league at 1-4. •

The Party's Over

By Gerry Chong

The party's over / It's time to call it a day / They've popped your pretty balloon / And taken the moon away / It's time to wind up the masquerade / Take off your make-up / Just make your mind up / The piper must be paid

— NAT KING COLE

On the morning after the election, like a common drunk, America woke up and blinked its eyes. A shadow of its former self, it emerged from a blind alley, and wondered where the last six years had gone. Truly, it was a binge of the highest order: Unlimited spending and unlimited debt. World's highest income tax rates. Sky-bound regulations. Free food. Subsidized car purchases. Free phones. Housing subsidies. Unlimited money printing. Government directed and funded healthcare. Government spying on Americans. Government spying on allies. Inept appointees administering bloated bureaucracies. 92 million unemployed. Part time and entry level jobs being touted as "job growth." The racial divide and the gender divide growing. The chasm between rich and poor exploding. Unrestricted illegal immigration. Failed foreign policy.

The drunk tried to remember. Six years! Seemed like everything was fuzzy and out of focus, a scary movie that had somehow morphed into reality. He tried to remember what he had drunk to get him into this stupor, but could only remember some red-colored KoolAid. The container's label featured the smiling face of a benign savior. Everything seemed so cool. So reassuring. So, so politically correct. But now the hang over must begin.... the piper must be paid. Pass the aspirin and a soothing broth.

Perhaps the aspirin could be a bipartisan commission similar to the Military Base Closure Commission, convened to comb through the budget and list those programs that have outgrown their usefulness, and whose costs exceed their benefits. Congress could vote on an up-or-down basis to eliminate waste.

Perhaps the broth could include ingredients favored by both political parties. For example, an energy policy that approved the Keystone Pipeline, encouraged fracking and on-shore oil exploration would drive down the cost of energy. That policy would have four critical benefits: First, it would create real jobs. Second, it would lower the cost of living for all Americans. Third, it would make American products more cost competitive in the world market. Fourth, it would reduce American dependence on volatile Middle East oil suppliers.

Some of the benefits thus derived could be used to support bonds to improve highways and other infrastructure, and to support R&D to make alternative energy sources more cost competitive and more reliable . . . all without funding private companies like Solyndra, and all without raising income taxes or incurring more debt.

And so the drunk starts with a shower to scrub off the detritus of his binge. Cleansed, he lies back to wait for the aspirin and broth to cure his aching head and rebelling stomach. With eyes half closed he vows never to drink from the Leftist KoolAid again. In the immortal lyrics of Dandy Don Meredith, "Turn out the lights, the party's over."

"The Party's Over" is copyright 1956, written by Jule Styne, with lyrics by Betty Comden and Adolph Green. •

Assisted Suicide for the Terminally Ill Should Always be an Option

By Cristian Vasquez

On Nov. 1 Brittany Maynard decided to end her life with medication that was prescribed to her by a doctor, and despite the tragedy of her circumstances, I was comforted by the fact that there at least some states in our country that will facilitate such a decision. Maynard had a brain tumor which doctors could do nothing about so the outlook for the remaining years of what natural life she had left was bleak. So when Maynard decided to end her life and die with dignity, her personal ordeal became a national debate about the right to end one's life. Maynard and her family moved to Oregon, where she would have access to the state's Death with Dignity Act. Under this law, terminally ill Oregonians have the right to end their lives by voluntary self-administering a dose of life-ending medications. These medications are prescribed by a physician.

Sadly I have experienced having a loved one commit suicide; I have also witness a close friend attempt suicide and the experiences were both heartbreaking and scary. At the same time I have seen people who are terminally ill wither away into a painful and agonizing death. Sadly these people did not have the option to take the steps that the State of Oregon provided for Maynard. It is worth noting that to my knowledge, assisted suicide was not something they considered. However, watching them suffer and become a shell of their former physical selves was too much.

Maybe I'm a coward. Or my faith in God or a higher power is weak and hence I'm not enlightened enough to have such strong convictions. However, despite the agony of knowing that someone that you love took their own life, watching someone you love suffer as they await death is infinitely worse. There is little that can convince that it is better for someone with Parkinson's Disease, who is on a death timeline, should sit there and suffer rather than die with dignity, if they desire.

I accept that some people will hold on to their faith, or the strength that made them amazing people when healthy and simply wait for death to come. Yet, some of us aren't like that and there should be an option for people like Maynard who would rather avoid the agony of long hospital stays, the inability to care for one's self if in the end death is unavoidable. I'm not questioning the morality of this issue. Furthermore, it's not an attack on people of faith or their convictions. The fact is that with or without the right to assisted suicide provided by the state like in Oregon, my peers of faith can still decide to use their faith as they await death in agonizing pain. However, without the option on the table we are all made to suffer even if we want a less painful and faster solution.

My prayers go out to Maynard's family and my praise to the State of Oregon. Making such a decision has to be gut-wrenching to say the least, but if I'm down to my last year of life and it is scheduled to be a painful one, I would like the option of assisted suicide without having to leave the comfort of my home state. •

Pets Without Partners Purrrfect Companions

Rumba is an apricot Poodle who loves her walks and cuddles.

Adopt a "pet without a partner" and give a homeless pet a second chance in life.

Rumba is a darling apricot Poodle mix who is under a year old. She is very sweet, loves to sit on your lap and slept on the bed of the man who rescued her and had no accidents. Rumba is a good natured little girl, loves to play, is great on walks and loves people. She is a pretty dreamy little pup. Rumba is current on vaccinations, microchipped, fine with other dogs, and would be best with children over 6 years old.

Mama Cass is a really nice little girl and a good mom to her puppies, Dharma and Sticks. She is sweet, friendly, gives lots of kisses and has a very bright sparkling personality. It's hard not to fall in love with her the instant you meet her. We can't say enough good things about this little girl and her lovely demeanor and personality. She is completely housebroken and is good with other little dogs as well. At only 5 pounds, Mama Cass would be best with children over 6 due to her small size. Mama Cass will be spayed, is current on vaccinations, and microchipped.

Darling Dharma and her sweet brother

Mama Cass has a sweet and friendly personality.

Dharma is an adorable Chihuahua pup.

Sticks were born on August 21, 2014. Their mom Mama Cass is a gem and they are the best little puppies ever. Chihuahuas are a dime a dozen these days in the shelter, but none are sweeter than these little puppies. They have been raised with a lot of tender loving care from the day they were born. Both pups can be seen by appointment only with an approved application. They are ready to go home, but will need to remain in our relative area of the South Bay or North Orange County due to our spay/neuter ordinance. (They may be adopted separately.) Both puppies will be spayed/neutered when of age, are current on vaccinations, dewormed, and will be microchipped.

Hula is an adorable mix breed pup . . . possibly a Whippet or an Italian Greyhound mix. She is very sweet and is estimated to be 4 - 5 months old. Hula has a beautiful golden coat with a white blaze on her chest and two white socks on her front feet. Her tail wags so much it makes her body wiggle back and forth just like a little Hula dancer. Hula is very playful, is good with all the other doggies here at the rescue and has lots of puppy energy. She is very lovable, a quick learner and will be a great addition to any home. Hula will be spayed soon, is current on vaccinations, and microchipped.

To learn more about these and other wonderful dogs, visit our website at www.animalsrule.org. If a dog is on our website, it's available. Come to our Saturday adoption events from 11 a.m. - 3 p.m. at 305 North Harbor Blvd., San Pedro (just off the 110 near the cruise port). We are always in need of donations for veterinarian bills and our senior dogs. Donations can be made through our website or by sending a check payable to: Animals Rule Placement Foundation at 305 North Harbor Blvd., San Pedro, CA 90731. All donations are tax-deductible; we are a registered 501©3 non-profit organization.

Hula is a golden, mix-breed pup who gets along with other dogs.

Happy Tails

Gummi Bear and his brand new family.

Troy and his brother Tyrese love to snuggle with friends.

Add a little love when you adopt your purrfect partner. During the month of November, the adoption fee for tuxedo cats and black cats is only $60!

Troy, Tyrese and Little Ricky are three adorable high energy little boys who love to romp around together and with their fellow foster kittens.

Troy and Tyrese have striking coats of ebony with adorable soft green eyes. They love to sleep on the bed as well as snuggle on your lap or in your arms. If they aren't busy making biscuits on you, these beautiful little brothers will follow you from room to room just to be near you. Both Troy and Tyrese get along with the small dogs in their foster home and enjoy chattering away to anyone and everyone nearby. They would be very lonely by themselves, so they cannot be only kitties. Although Troy and Tyrese would adore being adopted together, they can be adopted separately into a home with another feline friend or with one of their other kitten buddies.

Little Ricky has a very loving personality. He is extremely playful, sweet, loves to cuddle, and enjoys being held. Petting him while looking at your smart phone doesn't count and he'll push the phone out of your hand so you'll give him your undivided attention. Ricky will run to the door to greet you, and he'll follow you around the house. With the amount of energy Little Ricky has, he would do well in a home looking for a cat that has dog-like personalities who will run and play with him. His favorite toys are strings, balls or crumpled up paper, and feathers. Little Ricky has been fostered in a home with two calm and well-behaved dogs. He loves following them around swatting at their wagging tails. Little Ricky is your "personality plus" kitten.

These kittens are available for adoption through Kitten Rescue, one of the largest cat rescue groups in Southern California. All of our kitties are spayed/neutered, microchipped, tested for FeLV and FIV, dewormed and current on their vaccinations. For additional information and to see these or our other kitties, please check our website www.kittenrescue.org or email us at mail@kittenrescue.org. Your tax deductible donations for the rescue and care of our cats and kittens can be made through our website or by sending a check payable to Kitten Rescue, 914 Westwood Blvd. #583, Los Angeles, CA 90024.

Tyrese loves his brother Troy and any other company.

On Saturdays, we have adoptions from noon to 3:30 p.m. in Westchester at 8655 Lincoln Blvd. just south of Manchester Ave. and also in Mar Vista at 3860 Centinela Ave. just south of Venice Boulevard. Our website lists additional adoption sites and directions to each location.

Little Ricky loves to play! He really really loves it.

Gummi Bear is as sweet as his name. His only challenge was being born without teeth, hence the name Gummi Bear. His new family looked right past that to see his inner sweetness shining thru and they are loving life together.

"Everything is going great with Gummi Bear. Yes, we're keeping his name - it's too cute to change. He has had a few accidents but nothing we can't figure out. He's getting tons of love and exercise. He's been to the dog park, dog beach, and every night at 5 our community has a meet up dog area. He loves it and he's not afraid of any size dog. He thinks everyone is his best pal. So funny! The kids are so loving their new little man. They wear each other out. It's been great! He's a perfect fit to our family. We can't believe we got so lucky in finding him. Thank you for all your help. We will touch base with you if we have any more questions. Thanks again from all of us! -- Terri, John, Johnny, Lexi, and Gummi Bear."

When you adopt a "pet without a partner," you will forever make a difference in their life and they are sure to make a difference in yours. •

This Holiday Season, Give Your Family The World - Without Breaking The Bank

(BPT) - Everyone has special holiday traditions, from heirloom decorations to secret recipes passed down from generation to generation. Whether your holiday celebration means an intimate family gathering or an elaborate house-filled party, why not add something new to your festive mix? Many authentic holiday traditions are just a grocery-store-trip away - and you may discover a new family favorite from a faraway land.

Adding some international flair to your holidays can be easy, enjoyable and educational - an opportunity to feed minds young and old during the school break. The whole family can get in on the experience: young children can learn holiday phrases from the countries whose foods you are featuring - and teach other guests. Older children can head to the library to get international holiday music, adding another dimension to the new experience. Those preparing the goodies should also be prepared to share some history about what they are serving.

her family's celebrations. Here are her tips on bringing the world to your holiday table without breaking the bank.

Money-saving expert Cindy Livesey, founder of LivingRichWithCoupons.com, uses smart shopping strategies to add festive flair to

1. Start simple - with cookies! Why not try Christmas cookies from the country that started the tradition of the Christmas tree? Gingerbread lovers will adore Pfeffernusse - these German spice cookies are so popular in Germany, they have their own holiday on

Dec. 23. Rather than purchasing all the fine ingredients, pick up a pack these small, round cookies from Bahlsen, Germany's leading cookie brand. And since they're gone after the holidays, "Grab any Bahlsen holiday cookies you see remaining in the cookie aisle right after New Year's Eve," suggests Livesey. "They may just be on sale ... and you won't have to wait a year to enjoy them again."

2. Start saving before the holidays. It pays to be prepared for the indulgent holiday season. Keep an eye on sales and specials leading up to your celebration and stock up on international ingredients. In anticipation of her family's traditional Italian Christmas Eve Feast of the Seven Fishes, Livesey buys seafood when it's on sale. "I scored frozen stuffed clams a few months ago for free - so that part of my holiday shopping is already done!" she says. Combining seasonal coupons with sales can help stretch holiday budgets.

3. Drink up some new flavors. Make your international menu more interesting by trying a new spice or type of produce. To capture some festive Mexican flair, add a little cayenne pepper to hot chocolate - you probably have both of those in your pantry right now. A nice fruit punch (with or without rum) adds unexpected tropical fun, channeling a Caribbean Christmas. "Keep frozen mango and other fruits in your freezer so you can add them to punch even when they're not in season," advises Livesey.

4. Assign each family member a part of the menu. The cost burden of a big family dinner can easily be lifted by sharing the cooking responsibilities. Choose an international region and assign different dishes to different family members - and decoration-making to young ones. When it's time to eat, the meal will be complete because the family is together - and there will be plenty to talk about as each person proudly explains his or her contribution. "Some of the best gifts really are free, and sharing something new as a family is one of those gifts," says Livesey.

It's easy to experience the holidays from around the world without emptying your wallet. Spice up the traditional and try something new with an international affair. You might discover a completely new tradition that will have your family celebrating together for years to come. •
