Lawndale City Council Selects New Member

By Haleemon Anderson

With resolute action, the Lawndale City Council moved to officially appoint former City Clerk Bernadette Suarez to the council Monday. The unanimous action brought several rounds of raucous applause and a standing ovation, with more than 70 community and family members on hand to witness the proceedings. Suarez was sworn in and her name plate was added to the electronic voting board; she then took a seat on the dias. She will serve the remainder of the term left vacant by the late Larry Rudolph.

Suarez's appointment follows a series of board readjustments, as Rudolph's death came on the heels of general election results in April. Councilmember Pat Kearney was appointed three weeks ago as Mayor Pro Tem, a post Rudolph held. Suarez's vacated city clerk position will need to be filled.

Assistant City Clerk Pamela L. Giamario informed the council, the position must be sworn in by July 15, and noted three available options. The council may appoint; it may make a temporary appointment until a special election is mounted; or it may keep the seat vacant until a special election.

"I think we do an application on this one," Mayor Pro Tem Kearney said. Giamario said she would ready the application and get it out immediately. Applicants must apply in person. The council will be prepared to review candidates at the June council meetings, after which they will take action to vote in a new member. Official bulletin and filing deadlines are pending.

Mayor Robert Pullen-Miles consulted with the council on appointments to the requisite intergovernmental agency boards. The council nominates among themselves to be delegates and alternates to six agencies. The posts must be filled every two years after elections.

The consent calendar was approved, moving action on bike lanes for Hawthorne Avenue, payments for planning services, public works and other accounts receivable.

In her first council action, Suarez announced the 2016 Outstanding Older Adult, Sandy Tofflemire. Ms. Tofflemire is a long time resident; she retired from Delta Airlines with 40 years as a flight attendant. Mayor Robert Pullen-Miles described Tofflemire as "friendly and energetic." He said she volunteers in a number of capacities, and still finds time to be a working actress. She is currently the secretary, and driving force, for the Lawndale travel club.

Tofflemire accepted the award, saying the club likes to keep Lawndale's seniors "active, engaged and educated." Instituted in 1964 by the LA County Board of Supervisors and Commissioners, the OOA award is given in May to a senior resident in honor of their "exemplary service to the community in which they live."

Public comments proceeded. Diane Sambrano from the Historical Society of Centinela Valley, announced the 41st annual BBQ. The fundraiser supports the work of the society, and will take place June 12, from noon to 4 p.m., at the museum located at 7634 Midfield Avenue in Westchester.

Noting that their family has been in Lawndale for over 60 years, Ms. Suarez's cousin, a graduate of Leuzinger High said Suarez brings "a wonderful diversity of age, ethnicity and gender" to the council.

Several community residents expressed dissatisfaction with the council's appointments procedure, continuing to challenge the process, if not the actual appointees. Pam London, in particular, expressed her opposition. "I take exception to filling vacate seats by council vote." Another resident urged the council to establish district-based elections.

Lieutenant John Hocking gave the public safety report, noting three arrests in the period from May 2 through May 16. A routine traffic stop in the 4400 block of Rosecrans resulted in several charges including credit card fraud and identity theft; on Eastwood, block 15000, a suspect was arrested breaking and entering a vehicle and residence; an arrest in the 4500 block of 166th Street involved multiple violations--including vandalism, petty theft, burglary and possession of controlled substances.

City Manager Stephen N. Mandoki announced the community advisory boards and commissions are accepting applications. He reminded everyone that nominations close on Thursday, May 26, for the Lawndale Wall of Distinction.

Councilmember John Osborne reported the Homeless Sub-Committee has started to proceed with action. The initial impact will achieve 58 individuals housed and off the street. Osborne also mentioned the council could use an updated official portrait. He encouraged everyone to attend the BBQ, saying it's a good deal.

Councilmember Suarez thanked the council and the many well wishers in the chambers, which included her parents and grandparents, her kindergarten teacher and Albert Goodman, her 8th grade teacher from Rogers Middle. "I am so proud to be third generation (Lawndale resident)," she said, pledging to do her best.

The mayor reported on a conference, where he attended a "very engaging panel" on ethics training. He also attended a Metro/Cal Trans Symposium that is looking at ways to engage with homelessness and transient encampments, an issue heretofore disregarded by the agency.

The entire council attended the Planting Ceremony last weekend at Rudolph Park, and praises were sung all around. "That is an A-1 park," said Mayor Pullen. He gave credit to the community effort, saying residents' ideas and input can be seen in the design and aesthetic appeal of the park. A ribbon cutting ceremony is scheduled for Saturday, and the community is welcomed to come out and enjoy free churros and other refreshments.

The next meeting of the Lawndale City Council will take place Monday, June 6 at 6:30 p.m. •

Education on Nutrition and Data Warehousing Reviewed at Board Meeting

By Halemon Anderson

The Wiseburn School Board reviewed innovative programs for data warehousing and nutrition education, and heard initiatives on online college and solar energy installation at its regular meeting last week. Business items were handled efficiently, with unanimous action on several personnel matters, consent items, construction and general contracts. An interdistrict attendance agreement was tabled, and a closed session preceding the meeting saw no actionable items brought forth.

Deputy Superintendent Chris Jones introduced a report from Schoolzilla, a K-12 data gathering service which “brings data into focus.” Gloria White gave the board an overview of phase one. “This is the stock car phase,” White said. “We want to know what you as a board would want.” After input from the board and district faculty, Schoolzilla will build dashboards for the “stock car.” Customized, interactive dashboards will allow cross-referencing of multiple data streams. Student data can be grouped and analyzed for trends or specific areas of interest.

“We want to build a robust model that can grow with us,” White said. When fully implemented, educators will be able to look at data by student, by class and school, and a plethora of other markers. “We can look at grades, SBAC scores and SELDT scores, as well as attendance and chronic absences. We can look at the state average versus us,” Jones said.

Jones noted the potential for Schoolzilla to benefit student matriculation even after high school. He said data on the last three senior classes has been gathered from 12th grade teachers, who report to a national clearinghouse. “On the Da Vinci side, we’re looking at, what do grades show regarding college persistence?” Jones said. “We’re thinking about data across K through 16.”

Alex Smith previewed site plans for a potential solar panel installation at the K-8 schools. Partners For Many Generations Solar (PFMG) develops productive, cost effective solar power systems, according to its website. Smith noted 22 California districts are already on board. “It’s no emissions, clean, green and a good show to the community as a good neighbor,” Smith said.

The project would produce $3 million in savings over 25 years, and provide local hiring and education programs for students, as well as community events around energy conservation and efficiency. It provides electricity only, not gas. All capital and design, implementation and maintenance would be financed by PFMG. The company mitigates its costs through a “power purchase agreement,” said Smith, essentially buying excess outputs of energy beyond district use at reduced rates.

Board member Roger Banuelos asked what is the price tag if the district wanted to bear its own costs. Smith said the projected price is approximately $5 million. He said there are a few methods to self-fund, if the district chose not to enter into the power purchase agreement. It could do a general obligation bond or it could take on debt.

Janet Lusk, director of dining services, gave a report on the district’s nutrition programs. Chartwell, the district’s food service provider, has been hosting a dietetic intern in training for the Registered Dietitian certification. Zaily Llamas shared healthy eating instruction with the students and has also conducted a study of eating habits at Cabrillo and Dana. She found the students wasted more cold salads, fruit and vegetables, while generally consuming the entrees and starchy vegetable side dishes. Lusk said students have responded well to the nutrition lessons from Llamas. Board member Neil Goldman expressed interest in having a district-wide food education program.

As there were no public comments, the board proceeded with reports. Goldman attended the Wiseburn Education Foundation, meeting with the new leaders, Debbie Felt and Wallis Chang, to discuss their strategic plan. Jones met with English teachers and staff to ready the K-5 English Language adoption materials for pilot this fall. Jones said he is getting summer school set at Anza, with Dana Teacher Kiana Brede as acting principal.

Vince Madsen, director of facilities planning, said comments come back next week from the Department of State Architects regarding phase two submissions for the gym and the pool. Madsen also reported the Sepulveda gas mail line gave way, saying it needs to be repaired first and replaced at a later time. Madsen reiterated the mandate from OSHA that requires guard rails above the fourth 4th floor for window washing.

Johnstone reported attending programs in Boston and New Hampshire, to look at College for America, an online program with connections to industry. The college has 70,000 students enrolled nationwide, with tuition costs of $5,500. Johnstone said it would be the first of its kind in California. “It could be a potential model for funding college,” Johnstone said. “It looks at kids beyond high school, who may have already dropped out.”

Johnstone also shared with the board a letter from a Cabrillo family, commending the school for its work with their autistic son. Johnstone met with the Wiseburn Faculty Association, and reported progress on compressing parent/teacher conferences into two weeks instead of six. The move must be approved in collective bargaining. He also presented a college commit list from Da Vinci Science, showing students have been accepted at all nine UCs and all 23 CSUs, as well as several private and Ivy League schools including Harvard for fall 2016.

Additionally, District 37 Little League Coach Jerry Florey will sell fireworks this year during the 4th of July season, and will alternate yearly with the Rotary Club.

The next meeting of the Wiseburn School Board will be Tuesday, May 24, at 5:00 p.m. at Cabrillo PAC. •

Hawthorne Happenings

News for the 'City of Good Neighbors'

From City Clerk Norb Huber

offer a Rabies Clinic to all residents on Saturday, June 4 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the City Hall located at 4455 W. 126th Street. The event will offer low cost rabies vaccinations, renewal of dog licenses, and low cost microchipping. These services are offered once a year by our animal control office here in the city.

ON TO MARS, BATTERIES FOR YOUR HOME AND FEWER CAR ACCIDENTS

Every week I could give you an update on what they are up to over on Crenshaw Blvd. Elon's two companies are changing our world, right here in Hawthorne. SpaceX plans to send its Dragon spacecraft to Mars as early as 2018, marking a major first step toward CEO Elon Musk's goal of sending humans to the Red Planet. If successful, the endeavor would make SpaceX the first private spaceflight company to land a vehicle on another planet. Tesla announced that they are working on a battery pack for your home. Solar panels will draw the energy from the sun and feed the power into the battery wall that will power up your home. Finally, Tesla's self driving car technology will prevent 50% of the auto accidents that are due to human error. The future is happening right here in front of us. You could say that we are becoming the good neighbors to the universe. If some of us are going to live on Mars we are going to have to get along with your neighbors. That would make Mars the Planet of Good Neighbors. Mars could be our "sister planet". I'm sure we could roll out the red carpet to welcome any Martians to Hawthorne that would want to visit our fine city. The possibilities are unlimited. No, I am not having a cold one while writing this. No, I do not wish to send my dear wife to Mars. I do wonder what God will be thinking when we do set up camp up there. As long as we have an ice box, it will all be good. •

COMMUNITY K-9 DINNER

The Hawthorne President's Council in collaboration with the Hawthorne Police Department will sponsor our annual Community BBQ Dinner to raise funds for the HPD's K-9 Unit. The date is Thursday, May 26th starting at 5 p.m. at the Memorial Center. Adults are $5 and children are $2.50. It's great to come together as a community and help support our HPD. They usually show off their talents for all in attendance.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY MEETING

The next open meeting of the Hawthorne Historical Society will be held on Monday, May 23 beginning at 6:30 p.m. at the Hawthorne Museum. GOOD NEIGHBORS DAY COMING THIS SUMMER

The 6th Annual Good Neighbors Day is planned for Saturday, July 16th at the civic center area. We want to make this year's edition bigger and better. We are inviting any Hawthorne residents with talent or with some talent, to contact us about performing on that day. We are particularly looking to involve our young people in our program. If you know of a local band that is practicing in their garage and wants an opportunity to perform, this would be their chance. Please email me if you know of anyone who would like to participate. Need Readers?

Here Are Key Facts to Know Before you Buy Reading Glasses

(BPT) - Your 40th birthday was a while ago and since then, print looks like it's been getting smaller. Moving printed matter farther from your eyes to bring it into focus worked for a while, but now you're stretching your arm as far as it will reach. Since that arm's not going to get any longer, it may be time to get some reading glasses.

A visit to an eye doctor can confirm if you're experiencing presbyopia, a natural side-effect of growing older. As you age, the lens inside our eye loses flexibility and becomes less effective at helping you focus. Most people will develop presbyopia in their early to mid-40s; in fact, the number of people who wear corrective lenses spikes in the 40s, and 93 percent of people ages 65-75 wear corrective lenses, according to the Vis

Of course knowing you're far from alone in your need for reading glasses might not make you feel any better about wearing them. You may be tempted to sneak into the local pharmacy, grab the first pair of readers you see and hope you can pay for them and get out of there before anyone you know sees you. But don't be hasty in your choice of reading glasses. A recent study by Foster Grant indicates the readers you wear can have a significant impact on your productivity and quality of life.

Here are some important facts to help you choose reading glasses that are right for you:

- Reading glasses generally offer magnification between +1.00 and +2.75, in increasing increments of .25.
- You can buy readers without a prescription from a pharmacy, department store, vision center, discount store or online.
- Try to purchase the lowest level of magnification that works for you; a magnification that is too strong may cause headaches and eye strain

• Long gone are the days when all reading glasses looked like something your granny would wear. Today, brands like Foster Grant have reading glass designs in a variety of shapes, colors, sizes and styles to flatter any facial structure and appeal to virtually every preference.

• While readers help you focus on printed matter, they can actually make it difficult to see other things, such as a computer screen or the face of someone you're talking to. In order to refocus your eyes from printed material to something else, you have to remove single-focus readers or peer over the lenses.

A study by FGX International, the owner of the Foster Grant brand, found nearly half of people 40 and older who wear single-focus reading glasses take them off 10 or more times a day. Having to remove readers is irritating, embarrassing and hinders productivity, the majority of wearers said in the survey. The arrival of reading glasses with multiple strengths is changing the way people use readers.

Foster Grant Multi-Focus reading glasses offer three different magnification zones in the lenses of a single pair of glasses. Users can keep the glasses on and still be able to focus comfortably on things farther away. It's not necessary to remove the glasses in order to refocus from printed matter to something else, sparing users the time and aggravation of removing glasses and putting them back on. Since you remove the glasses less frequently, there's less chance of misplacing them - so you no longer need to buy multiple pairs to leave around the house or keep replacing pairs you took off and lost.

For most people, reading glasses are an inevitable part of growing older. But they don't have to be an irritation, or something you're embarrassed to wear. A little shopping around can help you find readers in a style, magnification and focus options that work best for your lifestyle. Visit www.fostergrant.com to find readers that are right for you.

Lawndale Sweeps Hawthorne

Lawndale High's Tyler Bonsky swings in last week's Ocean League rivalry game against Hawthorne. The Cardinals swept the two games from the Cougars, 11-9 and 3-0.

Hawthorne base runner David Perez gets back to second base to beat out the tag of Lawndale second baseman Alex Robles in last week's Ocean League baseball game.

Article and photos by Joe Snyder

Lawndale High's baseball team's record was not so impressive. It ended the Ocean League with a 2-8 record after sweeping league rival Hawthorne last week. At Hawthorne on May 10, the Cardinals outlasted the Cougars, 11-9. In their Ocean finale last Thursday at Lawndale, the Cardinals had a fine pitching and hitting performance from Michael Zembrano in shutting out Hawthorne, 3-0. Making things better was that Lawndale ended the regular season at 11-11 and head coach Steven Washington feels the Cardinals are capable of getting an at-large spot in the CIF-Southern Section Division III playoffs, despite the fifth place finish in league play.

"We haven't been this good since 2003," Washington said of his squad's .500 mark. "I hope we can make the playoffs. The guys we played were tough and we gave them very good games. We had some very good games against teams like Santa Monica, Culver City and El Segundo. We definitely competed and know how to complete. We did pretty good. To look where we were in the past, we have improved."

Last Thursday, Zembrano went the distance with a four-hitter. He struck out six batters and walked none. With the bat, he drove in a run with a double. "He was lights out," Washington said of Zembrano. "Mike was the show." Jesus Sanchez also did well. He was two-for-two and drove in two runs with the bat. Sophomore catcher Ju Ju Diaz threw two Cougar base runners out. Centerfielder Kobe Dempsey also had a good game, according to Washington. For Hawthorne, which finished last at 1-9 and ended its season at 11-13 overall after an 8-0 start, had one hit each by Danny Perez, Brandon Brown, Daniel Sanchez and Andres Cordova. Losing pitcher Bernardo Robles pitched five and one-third innings, allowing three runs (two earned) on three hits. He struck out three batters and walked two.

On May 10, the game was tied at five until Lawndale let loose for four runs in the top of the sixth to take the lead for good. Dempsey's two-run single highlighted the inning. Julian Diaz went two-for-five with one run batted in, two runs and a stolen base. Alex Robles had two hits and scored once. Tyler Bonsky doubled in a run and made an outstanding defensive play at third base.

"It was a tight fought game," Washington said. "Both teams played well against each other."

After a very good non-league against mostly weaker programs, the Cougars found things tough going against tougher Ocean League teams, including league champion Culver City, runner-up El Segundo and third place Santa Monica. Hawthorne's only Ocean win was a few weeks ago against Beverly Hills.

"Our kids are young," Hawthorne head coach

J.C. Randolph said. "We have to learn how to win. These kids have a full year. Next year, we will compete."

Senior Brown had a good game for the Cougars. He went three-for-three with two runs batted in and two runs scored. Junior Charles Phelps was three-for-four and drove in two runs. Sanchez, a sophomore, had one hit, two RBIs and three runs.

Last Friday in the Contreras Tournament, Hawthorne lost to Rolling Hills Prep, 3-2. The Huskies are currently ranked third in the CIF-Southern Section Division VII and are Harbor League champions.

LAWNDALE, ST. MARY'S ATHLETES ADVANCE TO FINALS

Lawndale High's boys and Inglewood St. Mary's Academy's girls track and field teams qualified a few athletes to this Saturday's CIF-Southern Section Divisional Championships after getting high enough finishes in last Saturday's Divisional Prelims. In the Division II Prelims at Moorpark High, the Cardinals advanced Kiyam Cooksey in both hurdles and Jalen Walker in the long jump. The Belles advanced Israel Conerly, Aaryn Smith and their 4x400-meter relay team in the Division IV Prelims at Carpinteria High in South Santa Barbara County.

For Lawndale, Ocean League champion Cooksey had a pair of eighth place overall finishes in the 110-meter high hurdles at 15.0 seconds and the 300 intermediate hurdles clocking 39.84. Jalen Walker, who also won the Ocean in the long jump on May 5 at Culver City High, just made the cut with a ninth place overall finish with a leap of 21 feet, 2.75 inches.

In the Division IV Prelims, Conerly had the meet's third overall best time in the 400 (57.39). She also ran on the third leg of St. Mary's 1,600-meter relay that was fourth overall in 4:04.55. Other runners included Jade Jones, Aaryn Smith and Ziquisha Reed. Smith also advanced in the 300 hurdles after a seventh place overall finish timing 47.6.

The Divisional Finals will be on Saturday at Cerritos College. The field events begin at 11 a.m. and the running events start at 1 p.m. •

Wowser Schnauzers

Rueben

We are looking for volunteers to help with our pet adoption fairs which are held every Saturday at the Petco located at 537 N. Pacific Coast Highway Redondo Beach 90277, from noon to 3:30 p.m. If you are interested in volunteering and can commit to at least one Saturday a month, please contact us at info@msfr.org. You can also visit all of our Miniature Schnauzers & Friends rescues at the adoption fair or check out our website, www.msfr.org. If you have any questions about a particular dog's availability you can email us at info@msfr.org. Schnauzers! Bet you can't adopt just one!

Hi, my name is Rueben. I know, that's a pretty grown up name for a 2-year old, 14 pound guy like me. My life proves how important luck and being at the right place at the right time can be. First of all, if I hadn't wandered off I never would have ended up, as a stray, at a LA county shelter. If the MSFR folks hadn't been there to check on another dog they were supposed to rescue, they wouldn't have even noticed a Schnauzer/Lhasa mix. The MSFR folks are very big fans of the Grooming Gives Hope volunteers and they stopped to admire their work. When the groomers started my grooming, I heard someone say that I looked like cousin "It" from the Addams Family so I truly was a nasty mess. If I hadn't been posing for my post makeover photos, I never would caught the eyes of the rescue people but once I did, they couldn't leave me behind. I'm probably more Lhasa than Schnauzer, because I have those cute, little, turned out legs, but I also have the sweetest face ever. I get along great with other dogs, love people, I'm very friendly and affectionate. All I need is just a little more luck to find my forever family. If you are interested in Rueben, please email info@msfr.org for more information.

Ziggy is the diminutive form of the name Ziegfreid and one thing for certain is that I'm definitely diminutive. I'm a 2-year old, female, Schnauzer/Poodle mix. I ended up at a L.A. county shelter as a stray and was accompanied by two friends, Stardust and Major Tom. I don't know how long I was "on the streets" but I certainly was a mess when I arrived at the shelter. I was in dire need of bath and my beautiful coat was so matted and dirty that it looked like grey dreadlocks. After some grooming magic, I've been transformed to a lovely, long-legged "Schnoodle" with an adorable face. I'm pretty quiet, a bit shy at first meeting but I'm 13-pounds of sweetness and affection. I get along great with other dogs and would love to have a doggie pal. My first choice would be my friend Stardust but if you already have a dog, that's okay too. If you are interested in Ziggy, please email info@msfr.org for more information.

If you believe that stardust is magical, then I'm about to bring magic to your life. That's because my name is Stardust! I too am a 2-year old, female, Schnauzer/Poodle mix (like my best friend Ziggy). She and I met up with Major Tom when we were trying to find our way home but ended up in a LA county shelter as strays. The matted, dreadlock look just wasn't me and I was thrilled that the groomer was able to make my coat sparkle and glisten again. Ziggy and I look so much alike we could be twins. We're tiny, only 13 pounds, with the cutest "Schnoodle" faces you'll ever see. The only noticeable difference is my nose is rose colored and hers is black. I'm a bit more reserved than my friend but I'm just as affectionate and get along great with other dogs. Ziggy and I would love to stay together, however, if that won't work out, another doggie pal to keep me company would be great. If you are interested in Stardust, please email info@msfr.org for more information.

Aaaeeeeyyy! It's me, Fonzi but I'm not the guy who wears a leather jacket. In fact, I'm a 1.5-year old, male Wheaten/Bichon mix who is always looking for fun and a playful companion. I've had some training and was an exceptional student – you'll have to see me to believe how smart I am. I'm ready to be adopted by a South Bay family and would probably do best in a home without children. I am eager to please and love to romp around but have the potential to become over enthusiastic – especially at first introductions. I'm about 22 pounds and I love to play with dogs my size, however, I become intimidated by anything larger – you know the big boys. Fonzi can be seen at Whiskers N' Tails in Gardena. Call 310-532-0860 or email info@thedrivendog.com for an appointment or more information. •

Happy Tails

Huge congratulations to Gibson and his new family. Gibson is the cute little Schnauzer/Lhasa mix that was rescued in early March. He new family met him the end of March at our pet adoptions. They had recently lost their Schnauzer and their 16-year-old Golden

Retriever. They were looking for someone to share their home, their hearts and their love. Gibson now lives in Del Aire with his siblings, a 4-year old MinPin and two senior cats. As of our last report, all get along famously. Wishing the whole family many happy memories. •

Life is looking up for Gibson and his new family!

THE YELLOW DOG PROJECT.com

If you see a dog with a YELLOW RIBBON or something yellow on the leash, this is a dog who needs some space. Please do not approach this dog with your dog. Please maintain distance or give this dog and his/her person time to move out of your way.

There are many reasons why a dog may need space:
HEALTH ISSUES
IN TRAINING
BEING REHABILITATED
SCARED OR REACTIVE AROUND OTHER DOGS

THANK YOU!

Those of us who own these dogs appreciate your help and respect!
