Los Angeles Rams Helps Students Get Ready for Their Graduation

The Los Angeles Rams have generously purchased caps and gowns for over 350 graduating seniors for the third year in a row. Earlier this week, the Rams hosted all of our soon to be graduates from City Honors International Preparatory High School, Inglewood High School, and Morningside High School at Sofi Stadium where the Rams surprised our students with their caps and gowns. This unforgettable experience underscores the Rams' dedication to our students' success and the community's future. Photo courtesy Inglewood Unified School District.

Genuine Heroes on Four Paws

By Ron Sokol

It was 3:00 am. Hawthorne Police Officer Chad Dahlen was awakened by a request to drive out to Costa Mesa with Hannibal to try to find a missing teenage boy. The Costa Mesa Police Department called Hawthorne PD because the Department has two bloodhounds as part of its K9 Unit. Hannibal, who is young, energetic, and well-trained, is one of the bloodhounds. Officer Dahlen, who, by the way, also serves on the Department's Swat Team, is his handler.

The missing boy had wandered off from a hotel. His family was visiting the area. To complicate matters, the weather was chilly, with a lot of rain, and the boy was non-verbal and autistic.

Chad got there promptly. Hannibal sniffed the boy's pajamas at the hotel where he was staying with his family. Then, energetically, Hannibal led the assembled team over the course of a mile-and-a-half. Given the bad weather, there was growing fear the youngster would suffer from hypothermia. And one can only imagine the fear in the hearts and minds of his family.

Officer Dahlen told me: "When Hannibal has a good day, he gets to play with his ball. He loves that ball. He knows it is a reward. Hannibal wants to earn that ball!"

Well, Hannibal earned his ball. The young boy was indeed found. He was crouching under an awning at an outdoor shopping center. Surprisingly, you may not know this story, and you may not be aware the rescue even happened. It simply is fair to call Hannibal an unsung hero (and Officer Dahlen and the Hawthorne K9 Unit as well).

Hannibal is one of the six dogs that currently are part of the Hawthorne Police Department's K9 Program: Three patrol dogs, two bloodhounds, and one narcotic detection dog. The Department also has a Facility Dog Program, which includes the inimitable Thyme, who works with her trainer, the much admired Lameka Bell. Over ten years ago, Lameka started the facility dog program as part of the Community Relations Department of the Hawthorne PD. Her first dog was Scottie, the wonderful golden retriever who sadly passed a little while ago. Scottie can rightfully be described as incomparable.

The K9 Program seeks to find missing people, as well as track suspects, to assist in patrol, and to search for narcotics. The Facility Dog Program is, in part, to provide comfort to those who suffer loss, trauma, and also to provide support to young and old at, among other locations, schools, hospitals, and homes.

Lieutenant Jason Moulton is the K9 Supervisor (it is his collateral duty with the Hawthorne Police Department). He describes working with the K9s Unit as "One of the best gigs I ever had. After all, I got to take my best friend home..."

Lieutenant Moulton's main job is Patrol Watch Commander, but along with supervising the K9 Division he also supervises the Swat Team. He and Officer Dahlen have a

Canary Girls by Jennifer Chiaverini

By Cathie Hinkle - Library Assistant
El Segundo Public Library

Ms. Chiaverini uses her writing skills to deliver a book that provides insight into munitionettes; women who built bombs during the First World War. Canary Girls, the book written by Jennifer Chiaverini communicates the stories these women encountered such as life changing risks, intimate relationships and a deep love of soccer.

The reader is initially introduced to a few characters and to be honest, I was surprised that the first chapters focused so much on soccer. I was not expecting a book that dealt with wartime sports so heavily. That is what I get for taking a book home based on cover alone. But once the initial character development takes place the book took off for me and I became invested. I am so glad I stuck with it! The women who worked in the Danger Building at the Thornshire munitions plant assembled bombs and the TNT turned their skin yellow. They also developed other health issues, lost the color in their hair and some gave birth to infants that were yellow. The color of their skin gave them the nickname Canary Girls. For the most part, the women did not want to quit their jobs even though their lives were in jeopardy. They felt that they were doing their part for the war and they were also being paid well and had meals provided. The women felt that if the men they loved were risking their lives, they could do the same. One of the characters in the book, Helen Purcell, who is married to the factory boss, takes the plant under her wing and tries to institute safety measures for the women to the best of her ability. She also discovers a love for soccer along the way as well.

As a respite from their health issues and the stress of war the women play soccer against other munitions factory teams. Their soccer team is called Thornshire Canaries after the munitions plant they work for. When the women are playing soccer, they feel free. For the brief time that they are competing against other munitions plants they are just women having fun together and the reader can see how sports and other activities are vital as an outlet for stress.

The author introduces many characters throughout this book and develops them all equally well. The reader is let into intimate relationships between women and how they navigate hard feelings, death and traverse the bumpy road towards healing. I enjoyed the fact that even though this is a book set during WWI it is not overly graphic. It mainly focuses on the relationships of the women, their love of soccer and the desire to truly want to make a difference in any way they can.

I came away from this book with mixed emotions. I was so upset with how the women were treated at times and also so grateful that so many strong women have stood up and made their voices heard. I read this book over the course of a few days, just could not put it down. If you enjoy historical fiction novels this might be a good fit. •

Robot Dreams is a Heartfelt Reflection on an Evolving Friendship

By Morgan Rojas for Cinemacy

Director Pablo Berger's Robot Dreams may be an animated film but its ability to tug at your heartstrings should not be underestimated. After a long awards campaign, which included an Academy Award nomination in 2023 for Best Animated Feature Film, Robot Dreams is finally coming to theaters in Los Angeles on June 6th. Adapted from the graphic novel Robot Dreams by Sara Varo, this beautiful cinematic interpretation is a poignant portrayal of friendship, growing up, and moving on.

It's another typical day in 1980's New York City. Dog sits down on his couch and unboxes a TV dinner while flippantly surfing through the channels on his TV. Basking in the dim glow from the screen, Dog suddenly feels lonely. He wants—no, needs—a companion in his life. That night, he orders Robot. After a quick assembly on his living room floor, Robot comes to life, and the two misfits immediately become best friends.

There is a newfound pep in Dog's step as he walks the streets of NYC with Robot. This happiness culminates in an epic dance montage where Dog, Robot, and a posse of animal civilians dance to Earth Wind & Fire's "September." The song is reprised as a piano instrumental when the duo takes a trip to the beach, and it evokes the quintessential feeling of summer. The sun is shining, the breeze is blowing, and Dog has never been happier. That is, until Robot realizes that the salty ocean water has rusted his robotic

New City Logo: A Symbol of Unity and Progress

HAWTHORNE City of Good Neighbors

The City of Hawthorne is proud to unveil its striking new city logo, a visual representation of unity, progress, and community pride. Collaborating with marketing firm Tripepi Smith, the City embarked on an extensive design journey that involved input from various stakeholders across the community.

The creative process began with a comprehensive brainstorming phase, shaped by reflections on Hawthorne's history and vibrant community. Engaging in meaningful conversations with diverse stakeholders ensured a comprehensive understanding of the City's identity and aspirations.

Tripepi Smith designers crafted a logo that encapsulates several of Hawthorne's landmarks, including the City's water tower, airport, and Betty Ainsworth Sports Center.

It also features striking iconography that evokes a Californian setting and ties to the aviation industry. One of the logo's most distinctive features is a rocket that swoops across the frame, symbolizing Hawthorne's dedication to progress and innovation.

Following the brainstorming process, a wide range of initial design ideas were created and evaluated, and a favorite first draft was selected. Several rounds of drafting and feedback ensued, fostering a collaborative and iterative approach that allowed for the incorporation of valuable insights from Hawthorne stakeholders. This thorough process ensured the final design truly resonated with the spirit of the community.

The new City logo was presented to the Hawthorne City Council on the evening of Tuesday, April 9, marking a significant milestone in the City's visual identity. The design reflects a modern and dynamic aesthetic, symbolizing Hawthorne's commitment to progress and its diverse and interconnected community.

The new City logo is not just a symbol; it represents Hawthorne's ongoing journey, celebrating its heritage, embracing the opportunities of tomorrow, and reaffirming the welcoming atmosphere of the City of Good Neighbors. The City looks forward to integrating the logo across various platforms, reinforcing a sense of civic pride and community identity.

parts in place, rendering him paralyzed. Dog is determined to get his friend off of the beach but the hurdles he faces prove to be anything but smooth sailing.

Things don't fare well for Robot either. Stuck on the beach, he is at the mercy of strangers, some of which are not so kind. Both Dog and Robot are heartbroken at their separation. As time passes, their once-solid friendship inevitably weakens. What was once a beautiful relationship starts to become a distant memory.

Music is the driving force behind Robot Dreams, as there is no dialogue throughout the entire film. In addition to being a strong creative choice—that works extremely well—this also allows universal accessibility for audiences. A film without dialogue removes the barrier to entry and allows any age to connect with the material.

On one hand, Robot Dreams is a film for children. The flat-look animation is easy on the eyes with continuous clean lines, flat colors, and limited shadows. On the surface, it is fun, light-hearted fare. On the other hand, it can be argued that only adults can truly absorb the film's emotional subtleties. Robot

Dreams is ultimately a meditation on being alone, together, a sentiment that empathists will have a hard time getting through the ending with dry eyes.

Fans of Past Lives and La La Land will feel a similar emotional connection to Robot Dreams. It is a fantasy, a whimsical animated tale, and also a surprisingly emotive story of reflection and friendship. • notable rapport. I was fortunate to speak with each and left with a sense of admiration and gratitude for both. Jason Moulton is a "local boy", Hawthorne High School grad who decided to serve the community. Chad Dahlen is from Orange County, which is interesting since he and Hannibal had that nice success in Costa Mesa, as described above.

Unsung Heroes

This all leads to the 42nd K9 Fundraiser

Dinner held on May 16. The turnout was excellent. They had a lot of cool items that attendees could buy tickets for (and, if we were lucky, win in a drawing). Also, there was a raffle; some of the dogs showed off their talents, and thankfully, good funds were raised. That said, I think it is ok for me to encourage any generous folks reading this article to think about donating to the K9 program. Affording a K9 dog, then training and after that maintaining each, is not inexpensive. And, the work they do is so very significant and helpful. More funds would, of course, be welcomed.

By the way, one of the K9 dogs is from Holland. His name is Milo, and he is a Belgian Malinois. His handler, Detective Thomas Heffner, speaks to him in Dutch! Watching their comradery at the K9 Dinner brought a big smile to all faces if you could just bottle that tenderness (and that ferocity all at once).

Like the title says: Genuine Heroes on Four Paws.

Yet another reason to salute the Hawthorne Police Department. And, another reason to feel gratitude for those great folks there who look out for us, including at 3:00 am in the morning. •

Purrrfect Companions

Kitten Rescue rescues cats and kittens from a variety of situations. Most live in our volunteers' homes and those volunteers foster them until we can find permanent homes for them. Young or old, tabby or Maine Coon, we care for orphaned and abandoned kittens that need to be bottle-fed around the clock, moms with litters, cats that need socialization, and sick or injured animals. When they are finally ready for their forever home, we will help match you with the purr-fect one. When you adopt, you save a life... and in turn enrich your own.

Harmony is a very talented young athlete. She loves to run and climb, so Harmony hopes her forever family will have lots of indoor space in which to frolic! She is a very busy little gal during the day (bird watching, chasing bugs, batting toys, etc.). At night, she turns into a precious little love bug - best cuddler and foot warmer in the business! She is loving, playful, super active and good with children.

Pebbles is a handsome boy who loves to eat, is fond of naps and likes to play with his cat toys especially the interactive ones. He likes pets and will jump up on his cat tree or on the bed when you walk into a room. This is his strategy to place himself at an easy petting level so you do not have to bend down. Pebbles can sometimes be a little shy when he meets new people, yet he warms up quickly when he gets some pets and head scratches. Pebbles is easy going and would be fine being adopted into a single-pet household or into a home with an existing friendly cat or with one of his foster siblings. Come meet Pebbles and his foster siblings to see if he is the purr-fect kitty for you.

Mike and Eleven are a beautiful pair of siblings with the prettiest patterns on their soft coats. We are astonished that these two have not yet been adopted! Eleven with her black mask is excited to get to know you. She immediately gets up close personal and is ready for pets. Meanwhile Mike with his black goatee and neck beard is more observant. But not much time passes before the two must check in on each other. They are very playful and affectionate with one another. They love to burrow under blankets to find lost toys or surprise the other sibling. You will love spending time with these two! These kittens are a bonded pair and must be adopted together.

These cats and kittens are available for adoption through Kitten Rescue, one of the largest cat rescue groups in Southern California. All our kitties are spayed/neutered, microchipped, tested for FeLV and FIV, dewormed and current on their vaccinations. For additional information to see these or our other kittens and cats and for a list of our weekend adoption events, please check our website www.kittenrescue.org.

Saving one animal won't change the world, but the world will surely change for that animal. •

In the event that the deed of trust described in this Notice of Trustee's Sale is secured by real property containing from one to four single-family residences, the following notices are provided pursuant to the provisions of Civil Code section 2924f: NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee's sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 916-939-0772 or visit this internet website <https://www.nationwideposting.com>, using the file number assigned to this case 2024-78221. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not be immediately reflected in the telephone information or on the internet website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 916-939-0772 for information regarding the trustee's sale, or visit this internet website <https://www.nationwideposting.com> for information regarding the sale of this property, using the file number assigned to this case 2024-78221 to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. City of Inglewood Housing Protection Department Long-Term Rental Division Property Owner's Annual Responsibility Pursuant to the City of Inglewood's Housing Protection law, property owners must participate in an annual property registration process. The open registration period is January 1st - March 31st of every year. For your convenience, the Housing Protection Department sends annual registration reminder letters to owners in December. The final step in the annual registration process is to provide a copy of the Annual Registration Certificate to your tenant(s). Please keep a copy for your records. In addition to the mandatory registration requirement, owners are REQUIRED to record various transactions within 30 days on the online Residential Registry System, such as rent increases, new tenancy information, and changes of ownership or management. Notices to cure and tenancy terminations notices are required to be recorded within three (3) business days of serving the tenant. The notice is null and void if an owner does not comply with the notification requirements. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact us at (310)412-4330 between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:30 p.m., Monday - Friday. City Hall is closed every other Friday. In 2019, the Inglewood City Council adopted and established a Housing Protection Program (Rent Control). All properties with two or more units, including commercial properties with residential components (mixed-use), are required to register through the online Residential Registration System every year. The open registration period is from January to March. Beginning in April, monthly penalties and a potential lien on the property tax bill will be imposed if registration has not been completed and the fees remain unpaid. In addition to the mandatory registration requirement, owners must record various transactions within 30 Days on the online Residential Registry System, such as rent increases, tenancy terminations, new tenancy information, and change of ownership. Copies of notices served to tenants must also be uploaded to the online Residential Registry system within three (3) business days of being served to their tenants. According to Inglewood Municipal Code 8-126(c), the City may commence enforcement measures against any owner who fails to register their property. Furthermore, no owner shall advertise for rent, demand or accept rent for a rental unit, or evict any tenant from a rental unit without first procuring and serving a copy of a valid Registration Certificate on the tenant of that rental unit. Please contact the Housing Protection Department's Long-Term Rental Division for any questions or concerns regarding registration, rent increases, or eviction protections. In 2022, the Inglewood City Council adopted Ordinance No. 22-15, establishing Short-Term Rental (STR) Regulations. A brief synopsis of the eligibility requirements to operate a short-term rental in the city are as follows:

1. To be considered for approval and obtain an STR permit, the Owner/Host must be at least 25 years old, own and live on the property, and be their primary residence for at least 365 consecutive days.
2. Single-family homes and/or condominiums subject to Home Owner Associations (HOAs) must have written approval (on HOA Letterhead) with HOA contact information to verify support if needed.
3. The proposed property must be owned by a natural person and not by a company (i.e., LLC, LLP, Inc., Assoc., Corp., Co., Ltd., etc.)
4. Before applying for a Vacation rental permit, the short-term rental Host must be a resident in the City of Inglewood for a minimum of ten consecutive years, own their primary residence for a minimum of five consecutive years, and own the vacation rental for one year. Chicken Tanga Tacos

Provided by Campbells Soup Corp.

All you need is 6 simple ingredients and 10 minutes to make these delicious Chicken Tinga Tacos! Preparing the recipe for Big Batch Chicken Tinga Filling ahead of time not only helps you get taco night started sooner, but also allows the flavors of tomato and chipotle time to meld. Stuff some flour tortillas with the juicy shredded chicken tinga taco filling and top with lettuce, red onion, and a squeeze of lime for these fresh-tasting chicken tinga tacos. It's a recipe you'll want to put on repeat- and luckily, when you make a big batch of chicken tinga filling, you can.

Ingredients

- 2 cups Big Batch Chicken Tinga Filling (click for recipe)
- 8 flour tortilla (6-inch)
- 1 cup crumbled queso fresco (optional)
- 1 cup shredded lettuce
- 1/2 cup diced red onion
- 4 lime wedge

Send us a photo and recipe of your favorite dish. We'd love to share it with the community. Send to: web@heraldpublications.com

Directions

- Step 1: Heat the chicken filling in a 10-inch skillet over medium heat until hot.
- Step 2: Serve the chicken filling in the tortillas with the queso fresco, if desired. Top with the lettuce and red onion and serve the lime wedges on the side.

Tips

Cook Once, Eat Twice: After you make these tacos, use the rest of your big batch of filling to make Chipotle Chicken Flatbread with Chili-Lime Crema. Or, if you want just enough filling for this recipe, saute 1 cup chopped onion in 1/2 tablespoon vegetable oil in a 12-inch nonstick skillet. Stir in 1 can Campbell's Condensed Tomato Soup, 1/4 cup water and 1/2 teaspoon cumin. Add 1 pound skinless, boneless chicken tenders and 1 to 2 chopped canned chipotle peppers in adobo and simmer for 15 minutes or until done. Shred the chicken and stir to coat. •
